

SEVEN CHILDREN ORPHANED BY FATHER'S PISTOL; MURDER AND SUICIDE FOLLOW MARITAL QUARREL

Jett Now Slated For Post of Chief Police

COMPROMISE PLAN WILL GIVE PLACE TO ACTING CHIEF

Administration Forces
Claim To Have Sufficient Votes To Sustain Mayor in Police Fight.

POLICE COMMITTEE WILL RETAIN POWER

Court Fight Over Chief's Election Between Committee and Council Will Come Up Today.

A compromise under which the police committee is to elect Acting Chief E. L. Jett as permanent police chief was declared to have been reached Wednesday at city hall in a series of maneuvers by administration leaders to prevent election by council of former Chief of Detectives A. Lamar Poole.

As a result of the compromise, administration leaders declared that they would muster sufficient votes in council to sustain a veto at the ordinance adopted Monday, 23 to 10, to elect a chief and to vest such authority in general council as a whole.

Beall to Support Mayor.
Councilman John A. Beall, a supporter of Jett for chief, who was one of the 23 voting to vest in council authority to elect the chief, stated that he would vote to sustain the mayor's veto of the paper at the next meeting of council.

Alderman R. A. Gordon and Councilman James A. Wells, neither of whom was present to vote on the paper Monday, were said to be lined up in support of the mayor, making 13 votes which administration leaders were counting on to sustain the veto. Two-thirds, or 24 of the 36 members of council, would have to vote to override the veto, provided all members of council are present.

Mayor Sims refused to make any statement directly as to what he would do to him, but he intimated broadly that he would veto it.

Court Fight T. Jav.
The police committee meanwhile was preparing to go to bat with the Poole supporters in superior court this morning where a petition for injunction against the committee to prevent election of a permanent chief is to be heard.

Judge E. D. Thomas is to hear the petition at 9:30 o'clock this morning. Attorney Armentis Wright had been retained by the committee, through Chairman Edward H. Imman, to fight a permanent injunction order, and to oppose delay in settling the issue.

The petition was filed before Judge G. H. Howard Wednesday morning through attorneys Joe Wood, Ben H. Sullivan, Holmes Joyner and J. V. Poole. It was signed by Aldermen J. L. Carpenter, Foster L. Hunter, Councilman T. L. Slappey, W. M.

Continued on Page 8, Column 6.

FLORIDA DEFEAT
UNDERWOOD FATE

Alabama Senator Decisively Rejected in Every State He Has Contested
Except His Own.

BY MARK SULLIVAN.

Washington, June 4.—There are two results of McAdoo's victory over Underwood in Florida. One is to impress democrats everywhere with this final one in the series of successes McAdoo has had and, therefore, to strengthen the morale of his forces. The other is to set what must be close to the final seal on the elimination of Underwood.

When McAdoo defeated Underwood in the first state in which the two men contested, Georgia, experienced politicians and observers were disposed to regard it as an ominous sign, damaging to Underwood's hopes. That feeling became stronger when Underwood was beaten in primaries or conventions, or otherwise rejected

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

Business Increase
Since Jan. 1 Shows
Local Prosperity

Six Atlanta Department Store Executives See Growth Over Same Period in 1923.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS
MADE ON PROSPECTIVE

Commercial Outlook for Rest of 1924 Summarized as "Conservatively Optimistic."

BY RALPH T. JONES.
After interviewing the executive chiefs of half a dozen of Atlanta's great department stores, a careful summarization of their opinions on the business situation today shows there has been, on the whole, a substantial increase in the total of business done this year to date, as compared with 1923, and that prospects for the balance of the year may best be described as "conservatively optimistic."

The business men interviewed included D. H. Strauss, secretary and treasurer of M. Rich & Brothers company; Henry S. Johnson, president of Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose company; J. P. Allen, president of J. P. Allen company; Frederick J. Paxon, secretary-treasurer of Davison-Paxon-Stokes company; W. H. Brittain, president of H. H. High company, and R. P. O'Donnell, of the Keely company.

Probably the most convincing illustrations of the basic soundness of local business conditions today are to be found in the fact that one Atlanta store has recently spent $100,000 in securing additional floor space and new fixtures; another has arranged to spend $200,000 in opening up a new frontage on an additional street, and another, all Atlanta knows, has moved in the last three months into a new building, the most magnificent department store home in the southern states.

Davison-Paxon-Stokes company is

Continued on Page 6, Column 7.

KILL FARM RELIEF
AT THIS SESSION

Longworth Announces
Republican Inability To Work Out Plan To Command Necessary Support.

Washington, June 4.—President Coolidge has put his foot down on the compromise farm relief bill which was laid before him by administration leaders in the house in a final effort to get agricultural legislation through this session of congress. This was made known Wednesday night after a conference of the republican steering committee of the house with former Representative Frank W. Mondell, of the war finance corporation, which was to administer the new scheme. Mondell acted as go-between for President Coolidge and republican house leaders, who laid the plan before him earlier in the day.

Republican Floor Leader Longworth also stated that the opposition which has shown itself to the McNary-Haugen bill would stand against this compromise measure. He said he had conferred with democratic leaders, who had made this plain.

This virtually kills any hope of farm relief legislation at this session though Longworth stated that efforts might be continued to revive the plan so that it would meet with greater favor.

"Since the defeat of the McNary-Haugen bill in the house," Longworth declared in a formal statement, "in consultation with many members of the house and with the official representatives of many of the large farm organizations, I have been attempting to arrive at some satisfactory measure for the relief of the agricultural situation. We have also discussed the matter with the president."

The large majority recorded against the McNary-Haugen bill made it evident that any legislative proposition embodying the basic principles of this bill could not be passed. While fully realizing the condition of agriculture, and with the most earnest desire to bring relief as far as legislatively possible, we have so far been unable to work out a plan which would command the necessary support.

SLEUTHS CONNECT
FRANKS SLAYERS
TO OTHER CRIMES

Positive Evidence of Participation in Tracy Death Uncovered as State
Seeks Indictments.

Chicago, June 4.—Just as the Cook county grand jury was viewing gruesome exhibitions in the Franks murder case Wednesday, word came to State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe that positive evidence had been found connecting the "intellectual" slayers of 13-year-old Robert Franks with two other crimes.

Detective Sergeants William Croft and Frank Johnson, who arrested Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb last Thursday, announced they had been able to trace the murder of Freeman L. Tracy, former University of Chicago student, to the two youthful sophisticated, pampered sons of multimillionaires, and had obtained corroboration of the story of Charles Ream that the two kidnaped him and performed a gland operation on him.

Brand's Boys as Friends.
The detectives will go before the grand jury and give their evidence, they said.

Despite the fact that Crowe and many of his assistants were busy presenting testimony concerning the brutal slaying of young Franks to the grand jury, they were able to give some attention to the new phase of the Franks case, which, Crowe declared, "only tends to confirm our suspicions that these two university youths may safely be classified with the worst fiends in history."

Sergeant Johnson said:
"We have been able to get information connecting Leopold and Loeb with the Tracy murder. We were sure they had some connection and we have found it."

To Press New Cases, Too.
"The proof is now in the hands of the police department and the state's attorney's office. As we understand it, this matter and the case of Ream will be gone into as soon as Mr. Crowe finishes with the Franks case."

Both detectives said that there were many circumstances tending to connect both youths with several other crimes, all practically as atrocious and revolting as the murder of the Franks boy, which they confessed.

Shortly after Crowe had been apprised of the latest turn in his investigation of the past lives of Leopold and Loeb he received a report of Dr. W. D. McNally, coroner of Cook county.

Continued on Page 3, Column 2.

RUMANIA ROCKS
AS REVOLT BREWS

All News From Bucharest
Censored—Fascisti Coup Credited in Persistent Rumor.

Vienna, June 4.—While western European capitals thrill to continuing reports of revolutionary disorders in Rumania, a veil of strict censorship blocks all news from Bucharest.

Thus far reports of a revolt in Rumania are depicted by Rumanian officials abroad. Confirmation has been obtained, however, of the report that King Ferdinand forbade General Averescu, leader of the peasants' party, from holding a demonstration scheduled for last Tuesday, and that the latter said he would disregard the king's orders.

Belgrade dispatches Wednesday reiterated previous reports that Averescu had overthrown the Bratino government in an extremist fascist coup.

Best informed circles here believe, in view of the available reports, that a revolution is imminent in Rumania, if not already under way.

NOTE FROM GRAVE IS WINNING CARD
IN JOHNSON FIGHT

Harding Declared Naming of Phillips Delegates in 1921 Was Mistake To Be Rectified.

BATTLE RUNS GAMUT OF PARTY EMOTIONS

Georgia G. O. P. Factions
Kept on President's Trail
To Garner Bits of Patronage.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
Cleveland, Ohio, June 4.—A letter from the grave suddenly upset the plans of republican party managers for "cleaning up" the long-standing factional fight in Georgia, and resulted today in the seating again of delegates headed by Henry Lincoln Johnson, the negro national committeeman from that state, long a stormy petrel before the national conventions.

Just as most of the old line party managers on the committee had decided that Johnson and his delegates must go to make place for those representing the faction formerly headed by J. L. Phillips, which had been recognized by officials of the national committee as representing the regular organization in the state, a letter was produced, written by President Harding to C. Bascom Slemp, now secretary to President Coolidge, saying that in recognizing the Phillips faction a blunder had been made and suggesting that action be taken to alter the situation.

Hilles Forces Letter.
Charles D. Hilles, committeeman from New York, practically forced the production of the letter. It was a trump card for Johnson, and the committee voted, 22 to 14, to seat his delegates.

A sub-motion offered by Joseph B. Keating, committeeman from Indiana, to seat the contesting delegation was rejected by the same vote. Then the committee made the vote to seat Johnson's delegates unanimous.

The Georgia contest, which occupied practically all of today's session, was the only enlivening feature of the pre-convention period. The session was alternately noisy, bitter, pathetic and funny.

Johnson, as is his custom, had charge of the presentation of his own case and for nearly an hour he paced the floor.

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

U.S. BUDGET BUREAU REJECTS PROPOSAL TO FINANCE SURVEY

Washington, June 4.—(Special.)—The budget bureau has declined to approve the resolutions of Senator W. J. Harris and Representative Bell, of Georgia, to pay expenses of the commission for investigation of the sites for a national park in the southeast. The bureau says the proposed appropriation is in conflict with the president's financial program. The commission now studying the sites was appointed by Secretary Work, of the interior department, and it is expected to continue its investigation. Senator Harris and Representative Bell and Lee said they would continue their efforts to secure the park for Georgia.

Intellectuals Planned Orgy
Of Fearful, Torture Deaths

BY H. H. ROBERTSON.
Chicago, June 4.—A passion for torture, through manipulation of the surgeon's scalpel on human muscles so skillfully that death would be prolonged for hours, may have been the real motive that led Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb to kidnap and murder 13-year-old Robert Franks, police detectives declared Wednesday night after the discovery of new and startling evidence.

In Leopold's room, investigators discovered a list that "Crowe" said contained names of youths intended by the two self-confessed slayers for possible dissection—or death. Besides Franks, this list included the names of S. Deutsch, the grandson of Julius Rosenberg, president of Sears-Roebuck & Co., Junior Harris, son of S. H. Harris, of Harris Bros. & Co., a millionaire, and John Levinson, son of Solomon Levinson, a lawyer.

In a little-known treatise inscribed by Pietro Aretino, never translated from Italian to English, the intellectual exquisites, who confessed murdering Franks, are believed by the authorities to have found their inspiration for crime.

Aretino, four centuries after his body was laid in the grave, sprang into life through the diseased imaginations and perverted instincts of two University of Chicago students, and furnished an impulse that led them to mark at least four youths for "experiments," according to evidence unearthed by the police.

Pretty Peggy Now Proclaims
Success in Quest for Love

New York, June 4.—"At last, at last—the all-consuming love that I have waited for all my life!" That is the way Countess Morner, who as Peggy Joyce, set hearts aflame on both sides of the Atlantic, feels about her latest venture into matrimony with Count Gosta Morner, 24-year-old Swedish nobleman.

The count, who won Peggy after a whirlwind courtship of a month, is at a loss to understand why everyone is so interested in his wife's fourth marriage.

Facing a battery of reporters Wednesday, the dashing youngster said:
"My poor wife is all upset over this publicity; it is all so new to her. She is positively sick over it."

And the reporters solemnly wrote it down.
"Is this your first marriage?" the count was asked.
"Why, yes," he replied. "Don't I look it?"

Peggy and her new husband spent their first night in Peggy's New York apartments because, the count explained, his were only bachelor quarters.

The countess, as usual, had interesting things to say about marriage. "At last, at last," she cried. "The all-consuming love that I have waited for all my life!"

"This is my first real marriage—and my last. Oh, at last I am deeply in love."

The new husband is one of the strapping, six-foot-three, college-boy type. He plainly shows the aristocratic strain of his old Norse house. For him Peggy has given up any thoughts of returning to the stage. She will assume the role of wife of the nobleman and in her bliss will forget the screaming publicity which her former ventures to the altar have caused. She will also forget that ever since the Joyce divorce she has been declaring that she was not in line for any more matrimony.

The count and countess will sail for Paris in the fall and Peggy will rest. From Paris they will go on to the Northland, where a parental welcome awaits them.

Reconsideration of the Inman three-mill special school tax proposal will be sought by finance committee members in the adjourned session of city council this afternoon, in order that the finance committee plan for school relief may be put to a vote.

The finance committee will recommend a special one-mill tax, to be levied without a vote of the people, restoration of city water rates to the level in effect before June 1, and appropriation to schools of all additional income and as much more as can be cut from January appropriations, it is stated.

The school board plan for a permanent increase of two mills, or 20 cents on the $100 of property, will not be submitted to council today. The charter revision committee heard arguments by school board members in favor of it Wednesday afternoon, but reserved decision on the ground that it will not afford a practical method of relieving this year's crisis.

The board proposed a school tax election for September 10, which council members said would be too late to meet the crisis for this year. The proposal will be considered later in connection with others aiming at permanent solution of the school finance problem.

Hits Traffic Violators.
Council will hear the favorable report today of the ordinance committee, recommending restrictions of taxicabs and jitney busses and providing for revoking permits of drivers convicted of traffic law violation or selling whisky. The ordinance was introduced by Councilman T. L. Slappey as a comprehensive substitute for measures originally introduced by Alderman W. B. Harrisfield and Councilman Edward H. Imman.

The finance committee is to ask for more time before it submits the June finance sheet, on the ground that it can not be prepared until the school finance problem is settled definitely. A recess until Monday or some other day next week may be asked by Chairman J. R. Bachman.

DAUGHTERS SEE
FATHER KILLED
BY STREET CAR

John Peavy Run Down at Bad Crossing in Clarkston by Stone Mountain Car.

WAS HURLED 25 FEET
FROM HIS MACHINE

Motorman Claims He Blew Whistle and Rang Bell Before Approaching
Crossing.

While three daughters, seated on a porch a short distance away, looked on, horror-stricken, John Peavy, 65, of Stone Mountain, early Wednesday night was killed when the automobile he was driving was struck by an inbound Stone Mountain street car at Lovejoy stop in Clarkston. He suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries, and died at the Atlanta hospital a short time after the accident.

The machine, in which he was riding alone, was struck squarely in the middle as it crossed the car tracks. The automobile was smashed to bits, while Peavy was catapulted 25 feet through the air.

The man was on his way from his Stone Mountain home to visit a daughter, Mrs. Joe Butler, on whose porch Mrs. Butler and two of her sisters, Misses Vannie and Mattie D. Peavy, were sitting at the time of the mishap.

According to the report submitted to officials of the Georgia Railway and Power company, the accident was unavoidable, as Motorman H. M. Atkinson blew the whistle and rang the bell as he neared the crossing. Conductor Joe Wallace, a veteran street car conductor, who has been on the Stone Mountain "run" for several years, said he knew the danger of the crossing and for that reason the car invariably approached it at a slow rate of speed.

Because of several buildings which

Continued on Page 4, Column 4.

PRESIDENT LIMNS
HIS IDEA OF MATE

Coolidge Sends Direct
Word to Managers; Hoover and Lowden Are Most Discussed.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 4.—President Coolidge has sent direct word to the republican party managers here, describing the type of man he wants for a running mate.

The president's word reaffirms the previous understanding that he wants a man of his own political mind and does not wish the national ticket to represent an attempt to recognize the insurgent wing.

Mr. Coolidge has told those to whom he confided his wishes that the vice presidential candidate should be a man who could carry an assurance to the country that, should he succeed to the presidency, there would be no change in the fundamental policies of the administration.

Hoover, Lowden Considered.
With this in mind, party managers who are carefully making a pre-convention canvass of available with the idea of agreeing on a man who will be acceptable to the president and agreeable to the delegates, are continuing to discuss Secretary Hoover and former Governor Lowden of Illinois, almost to the exclusion of others who have been mentioned.

Platform builders are having a slow time pending the arrival of Charles R. Warren, American ambassador to Mexico, who will be chairman of the resolutions committee. In the meantime, thousands of suggestions are pouring in by mail and representatives of various organizations who always swarm around the platform committee door, seeking recognition for their ideas and proposals, are beginning to arrive on the ground. Tentative drafts are assuming bulky proportions, but there are no indications that the platform in finished form will depart from the fundamental principles of the party.

Foreign Relations Plank Hardest.
The foreign relations plank as usual will receive the most attention and be most frequently re-written. The hardest job in sight for the platform builders is to draft a plank which will harmonize in a party pronouncement the views of the president and some of the senate leaders on the world court.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY
CHOKES PRATTLE
OF TOTS AT PLAY

Days of Family Bickering
End When Will Jackson
Shoots Wife and Kills Self.

WOUNDED WOMAN
DIES IN HOSPITAL

Uptown Garage Is Scene of Shooting—Money Borrowed by Wife Started Trouble.

Two lives were sacrificed and seven small children made orphans early Wednesday night when W. M. Jackson, 37, of 271 South Whiteford avenue, fatally shot his wife and then ended his own life as a culmination of a series of marital difficulties and quarrels, neighbors assert. Jackson was killed instantly when a bullet crashed into his brain and Mrs. Jackson died two hours later in Grady hospital from a wound in her left chest.

The shooting, which took place in a garage at 200 Mills street, was witnessed by Cliff Morgan, a fellow workman of Jackson's, who was a paint mixer.

According to information obtained by police who investigated the shooting, Mrs. Jackson went to the garage to accompany her husband home. An argument pertaining to money in the possession of Mrs. Jackson, and which she had previously told her husband had been borrowed from a girl friend to buy new dresses for two of the Jackson girls who will soon graduate from Atlanta schools, was revived when Mrs. Jackson showed her husband the dresses.

Few Words Spoken.
Following a few heated words, Morgan claims, Jackson whipped out his revolver and fired point-blank at his wife. The bullet evidently was aimed for her heart and entered the breast about an inch below its intended mark. Morgan fled from the garage following the firing of the first shot and was only a few feet from the door when the second explosion reverberated through the building, he stated.

Morgan summoned assistance and the prostrate bodies, in a rapidly forming pool of blood, were found lying a few feet apart. Life had passed from Jackson's body. His wife was removed to Grady hospital in the ambulance, which reached the hospital nine minutes after the shooting, all efforts to save Mrs. Jackson's life were futile.

While their parents lie cold in death the pall of tragedy has fallen over the home and engulfed the seven children, who range in age from 19 months to 14 years. The youngsters are being cared for by neighbors pending the completion of other arrangements.

Neighbors told Call Officers Duncan and Cheung, who investigated, that the couple had had trouble for many months, almost since the wedding.

Jackson is said to have been thrifty and to have saved enough to buy the

The Weather
GENERALLY FAIR.

Washington—Forecast:
Georgia: Generally fair Thursday;
Friday partly cloudy and warmer;
probably local thunderstorms in interior.

Local Weather Report.
Highest temperature 78
Lowest temperature 58
Mean temperature 69
Normal temperature 74
Rainfall in past 24 hours, ins.00
Excess since 1st of month, ins. 1.27
Deficiency since January 1, ins. .00

| Reports of Weather Bureau Stations. | | | |
|-------------------------------------|---------|--------------------|----------|
| STATIONS | WEATHER | Temperature | Rain |
| AND STATE OF | | (7 a.m. to 4 p.m.) | (inches) |
| Atlanta, Ga. | clear | 78 | .00 |
| Birmingham, Ala. | clear | 78 | .00 |
| Boston, Mass. | cloudy | 58 | .02 |
| Buffalo, N. Y. | clear | 58 | .00 |
| Charlotte, N. C. | cloudy | 72 | .00 |
| Chicago, Ill. | cloudy | 60 | .02 |
| Cincinnati, Ohio | clear | 66 | .00 |
| Dayton, Ohio | clear | 70 | .00 |
| Des Moines, Iowa | clear | 72 | .00 |
| Galveston, Texas | clear | 80 | .00 |
| Hartford, Conn. | clear | 70 | .00 |
| Harve, La. | cloudy | 58 | .00 |
| Jacksonville, Fla. | clear | 82 | .00 |
| Kansas City, Mo. | clear | 78 | .00 |
| Memphis, Tenn. | clear | 80 | .00 |
| Miami, Fla. | cloudy | 80 | .00 |
| Mobile, Ala. | clear | 80 | .00 |
| Monterey, Cal. | clear | 80 | .00 |
| New Orleans, La. | clear | 80 | .00 |
| New York, N. Y. | clear | 64 | .12 |
| North Platte, Neb. | clear | 72 | .00 |
| Oklahoma, Okla. | cloudy | 84 | .00 |
| Phoenix, Ariz. | clear | 100 | .00 |
| Pittsburg, Kan. | clear | 80 | .00 |
| Raleigh, N. C. | clear | 74 | .00 |
| San Francisco, Cal. | clear | 58 | .00 |
| St. Louis, Mo. | clear | 70 | .12 |
| St. Paul, Minn. | clear | 72 | .00 |
| Tampa, Fla. | cloudy | 84 | .02 |
| Tulsa, Okla. | clear | 84 | .00 |
| Wichita, Kan. | clear | 82 | .00 |
| Washington, D. C. | cloudy | 68 | .00 |

Metecologist, Weather Bureau

little home in which they lived, and two additional lots, but he thought his wife spent too much money.

Quarrels Frequent

Family quarrels had been frequent recently, neighbors told police, and it is claimed that Jackson was of a jealous disposition and had charged his wife with infidelity. Mrs. Jackson, on the other hand, is said to have upbraided her husband for his alleged attentions to other women and for drinking.

The couple quarreled Saturday night when Mrs. Jackson was unable to explain satisfactorily where she had obtained $5, with which she intended to buy her daughter's graduation dress. Jackson is said to have questioned her assertions that she borrowed it from a girl friend, and to have demanded a more detailed explanation. Police were summoned to the Jackson home Sunday when arguments between the pair aroused the entire neighborhood.

Monday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are said to have met the woman said to have loaned Mrs. Jackson the money, who verified Mrs. Jackson's statement. Jackson, however, was unconvinced, however, the rift in their matrimonial happiness evidently had been smoothed over.

Following dinner Wednesday, Mrs. Jackson accompanied her husband to the business district, the two boarding the same street car as a neighbor, who told police that they talked congenially and were on good terms. The next morning, however, neighbors of the couple were informed that a Constitution reporter informed them of the tragedy.

Jackson Despondent

Morgan, who worked with Jackson daily and late the dead man intimately, told police that Jackson was despondent because he thought someone had been attempting to have him discharged from his position with the F. J. Coolidge & Son's company.

"Jackson told me that someone had been talking to the superintendent and he wanted to know who it was and what they were doing," Morgan stated. "He said, 'I know you and Wilbanks are gentlemen, but I am going to find out what this is about.'"

Wilbanks, referred to by Jackson, is C. A. Wilbanks in charge of the garage where the shooting took place. Morgan claimed that Jackson indicated of a fear of losing his position, "which would mean the loss of my home," Jackson is quoted as having said.

The couple are survived by seven children, five daughters and two sons, Willie Mae, 14; Mollie, 12; Louise, 10; Mildred, 8; Lucy, 5; William Marshall, 4; and Charles, 10 months. Jackson also is survived by two brothers, Charlie and Marion Jackson, and a sister, Mrs. Maggie Daniel, and Mrs. Jackson leaves four brothers, Claude, Boss, John and Walter High-tower, and a sister, Mrs. Jettie Hull. Funeral arrangements will be announced this morning by Harry G. Poole.

Arrested in 1923

Mrs. Jackson, together with Mrs. Helen Schurle, 26, of 275 Whiteford avenue, was arrested November 23, 1923, on charges of disorderly conduct and stabbing, police records show. At that time it was stated that Mrs. Jackson, who was ill at a local hospital, heard reports of attentions paid Mrs. Schurle by Jackson, and, following her discharge from the hospital, attacked Mrs. Schurle.

Mrs. Schurle, who then conducted a booth for the sale of Red Cross goods, was charged with a knife and both women were arrested.

HARRIS WOULD EXTEND LIVE STOCK REPORTS

Washington, June 4.—(Special.)—Senator W. J. Harris today requested the department of agriculture to allocate sufficient funds in their telegraph market news service to provide livestock reports for the Atlanta office from Louisville, Montgomery, Nashville and Jacksonville. Senator Harris said Atlanta was a prominent livestock market and information was already being given out by the department's office at Atlanta, but he thought government reports from neighboring southern cities would prove desirable for the people selling livestock so they could ship to the highest market. Senator Harris assisted in securing money for the present telegraphic service through the southeast and he said he would continue his efforts to extend the service as well as the classes of agricultural products and livestock handled in the quotation.

U. S. WORLD FLIERS ALL AT SHANGHAI; SMITH MAKES HOP

Shanghai, June 3.—Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, with his mechanic, Lieutenant Leslie P. Arnold, who was delayed in Kagooshima, Japan, by engine trouble, arrived here at 12:10 this afternoon on the flag plane Chicago, rejoining his companions on the American around-the-world flight. Lieutenants Leigh Wade and Eric Nelson, with their mechanics, Sergeant A. M. Ogden and Lieutenant John Harding, Jr.

HARDWICK RAPS KLAN AT 21 MEET

Bitter denunciation of the Ku Klux Klan by former Governor Thomas W. Hardwick marked the meeting Wednesday night at the Kimball hall of the "Twenty-one" club, a political organization.

Although the official call for the meeting stated that candidates for office would be nominated, no such action was followed. Instead the meeting was devoted almost entirely to two speeches, that of Mr. Hardwick and one by James D. Weaver, president of the Farmers' union. Mr. Weaver spoke strictly on agricultural matters and insisted that his name be placed on the "steering committee" of the club, as published, by mistake.

Paul Mote, national secretary of the United Farmers of America, announced that the purpose of the meeting was "in pursuance of a call by the supreme council for the purpose of acquainting members assembled with the selection of candidates for the coming year. The steering committee is to be chosen for each office to be covered by the approaching elections."

The names read, he stated, are to be printed on the customary ballot and sent to all members who will mark and return them to the steering committee. The meeting will meet in Macon June 10 to pass upon and select the several candidates to be inducted by the organization. On June 11 a general meeting will be held in Atlanta and this report will be made public, that action to constitute the endorsement of the organization.

The list of candidates from which the club is to choose those it will endorse included two names for United States senator, neither being the present incumbent; five names for governor, none including the incumbent; three for congress from the fifth district, none being the incumbent; three for mayor of Atlanta; five for the state public service commission; three for judge of the Fulton superior court, and three for commissioner of agriculture, none being the incumbent.

When Governor Hardwick began his address there were 33 present, but as others were attracted in from the lobby the audience grew until there were a few more than a hundred present when the former governor had concluded.

The subject of the speech was "What's the Matter With Georgia." He attacked those who are in office and those who, he asserted, are "dominating public office." He said that he had served his time in behalf of the public and it is not his purpose again to offer for office in any capacity. He asserted that the trouble with Georgia is that the people, for the moment, "have fallen away from the faith of our forefathers and forsaken the fundamental principles of real Americanism." Much of that blame he laid on the business men of the state who, he said, claim they have not the time to give to politics.

He stated as his purpose, from now to the end of the political campaign this year, to bring this appeal to the business man and to the farmers, particularly that the people be brought back to a realization of the principles of Americanism; "that civil and religious liberty is the cornerstone of American freedom; the guarantee to every man and woman of the right to worship God according to the dictates of his or her own conscience and not according to your, or my dictation."

U. S. WORLD FLIERS ALL AT SHANGHAI; SMITH MAKES HOP

Shanghai, June 3.—Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, with his mechanic, Lieutenant Leslie P. Arnold, who was delayed in Kagooshima, Japan, by engine trouble, arrived here at 12:10 this afternoon on the flag plane Chicago, rejoining his companions on the American around-the-world flight. Lieutenants Leigh Wade and Eric Nelson, with their mechanics, Sergeant A. M. Ogden and Lieutenant John Harding, Jr.

HARDWICK RAPS KLAN AT 21 MEET

Bitter denunciation of the Ku Klux Klan by former Governor Thomas W. Hardwick marked the meeting Wednesday night at the Kimball hall of the "Twenty-one" club, a political organization.

Although the official call for the meeting stated that candidates for office would be nominated, no such action was followed. Instead the meeting was devoted almost entirely to two speeches, that of Mr. Hardwick and one by James D. Weaver, president of the Farmers' union. Mr. Weaver spoke strictly on agricultural matters and insisted that his name be placed on the "steering committee" of the club, as published, by mistake.

Paul Mote, national secretary of the United Farmers of America, announced that the purpose of the meeting was "in pursuance of a call by the supreme council for the purpose of acquainting members assembled with the selection of candidates for the coming year. The steering committee is to be chosen for each office to be covered by the approaching elections."

The names read, he stated, are to be printed on the customary ballot and sent to all members who will mark and return them to the steering committee. The meeting will meet in Macon June 10 to pass upon and select the several candidates to be inducted by the organization. On June 11 a general meeting will be held in Atlanta and this report will be made public, that action to constitute the endorsement of the organization.

The list of candidates from which the club is to choose those it will endorse included two names for United States senator, neither being the present incumbent; five names for governor, none including the incumbent; three for congress from the fifth district, none being the incumbent; three for mayor of Atlanta; five for the state public service commission; three for judge of the Fulton superior court, and three for commissioner of agriculture, none being the incumbent.

When Governor Hardwick began his address there were 33 present, but as others were attracted in from the lobby the audience grew until there were a few more than a hundred present when the former governor had concluded.

The subject of the speech was "What's the Matter With Georgia." He attacked those who are in office and those who, he asserted, are "dominating public office." He said that he had served his time in behalf of the public and it is not his purpose again to offer for office in any capacity. He asserted that the trouble with Georgia is that the people, for the moment, "have fallen away from the faith of our forefathers and forsaken the fundamental principles of real Americanism." Much of that blame he laid on the business men of the state who, he said, claim they have not the time to give to politics.

U. S. WORLD FLIERS ALL AT SHANGHAI; SMITH MAKES HOP

Shanghai, June 3.—Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, with his mechanic, Lieutenant Leslie P. Arnold, who was delayed in Kagooshima, Japan, by engine trouble, arrived here at 12:10 this afternoon on the flag plane Chicago, rejoining his companions on the American around-the-world flight. Lieutenants Leigh Wade and Eric Nelson, with their mechanics, Sergeant A. M. Ogden and Lieutenant John Harding, Jr.

HARDWICK RAPS KLAN AT 21 MEET

Bitter denunciation of the Ku Klux Klan by former Governor Thomas W. Hardwick marked the meeting Wednesday night at the Kimball hall of the "Twenty-one" club, a political organization.

Although the official call for the meeting stated that candidates for office would be nominated, no such action was followed. Instead the meeting was devoted almost entirely to two speeches, that of Mr. Hardwick and one by James D. Weaver, president of the Farmers' union. Mr. Weaver spoke strictly on agricultural matters and insisted that his name be placed on the "steering committee" of the club, as published, by mistake.

Paul Mote, national secretary of the United Farmers of America, announced that the purpose of the meeting was "in pursuance of a call by the supreme council for the purpose of acquainting members assembled with the selection of candidates for the coming year. The steering committee is to be chosen for each office to be covered by the approaching elections."

The names read, he stated, are to be printed on the customary ballot and sent to all members who will mark and return them to the steering committee. The meeting will meet in Macon June 10 to pass upon and select the several candidates to be inducted by the organization. On June 11 a general meeting will be held in Atlanta and this report will be made public, that action to constitute the endorsement of the organization.

The list of candidates from which the club is to choose those it will endorse included two names for United States senator, neither being the present incumbent; five names for governor, none including the incumbent; three for congress from the fifth district, none being the incumbent; three for mayor of Atlanta; five for the state public service commission; three for judge of the Fulton superior court, and three for commissioner of agriculture, none being the incumbent.

When Governor Hardwick began his address there were 33 present, but as others were attracted in from the lobby the audience grew until there were a few more than a hundred present when the former governor had concluded.

The subject of the speech was "What's the Matter With Georgia." He attacked those who are in office and those who, he asserted, are "dominating public office." He said that he had served his time in behalf of the public and it is not his purpose again to offer for office in any capacity. He asserted that the trouble with Georgia is that the people, for the moment, "have fallen away from the faith of our forefathers and forsaken the fundamental principles of real Americanism." Much of that blame he laid on the business men of the state who, he said, claim they have not the time to give to politics.

He stated as his purpose, from now to the end of the political campaign this year, to bring this appeal to the business man and to the farmers, particularly that the people be brought back to a realization of the principles of Americanism; "that civil and religious liberty is the cornerstone of American freedom; the guarantee to every man and woman of the right to worship God according to the dictates of his or her own conscience and not according to your, or my dictation."

The subject of the speech was "What's the Matter With Georgia." He attacked those who are in office and those who, he asserted, are "dominating public office." He said that he had served his time in behalf of the public and it is not his purpose again to offer for office in any capacity. He asserted that the trouble with Georgia is that the people, for the moment, "have fallen away from the faith of our forefathers and forsaken the fundamental principles of real Americanism." Much of that blame he laid on the business men of the state who, he said, claim they have not the time to give to politics.

U. S. WORLD FLIERS ALL AT SHANGHAI; SMITH MAKES HOP

Shanghai, June 3.—Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, with his mechanic, Lieutenant Leslie P. Arnold, who was delayed in Kagooshima, Japan, by engine trouble, arrived here at 12:10 this afternoon on the flag plane Chicago, rejoining his companions on the American around-the-world flight. Lieutenants Leigh Wade and Eric Nelson, with their mechanics, Sergeant A. M. Ogden and Lieutenant John Harding, Jr.

HARDWICK RAPS KLAN AT 21 MEET

Bitter denunciation of the Ku Klux Klan by former Governor Thomas W. Hardwick marked the meeting Wednesday night at the Kimball hall of the "Twenty-one" club, a political organization.

Although the official call for the meeting stated that candidates for office would be nominated, no such action was followed. Instead the meeting was devoted almost entirely to two speeches, that of Mr. Hardwick and one by James D. Weaver, president of the Farmers' union. Mr. Weaver spoke strictly on agricultural matters and insisted that his name be placed on the "steering committee" of the club, as published, by mistake.

Paul Mote, national secretary of the United Farmers of America, announced that the purpose of the meeting was "in pursuance of a call by the supreme council for the purpose of acquainting members assembled with the selection of candidates for the coming year. The steering committee is to be chosen for each office to be covered by the approaching elections."

The names read, he stated, are to be printed on the customary ballot and sent to all members who will mark and return them to the steering committee. The meeting will meet in Macon June 10 to pass upon and select the several candidates to be inducted by the organization. On June 11 a general meeting will be held in Atlanta and this report will be made public, that action to constitute the endorsement of the organization.

The list of candidates from which the club is to choose those it will endorse included two names for United States senator, neither being the present incumbent; five names for governor, none including the incumbent; three for congress from the fifth district, none being the incumbent; three for mayor of Atlanta; five for the state public service commission; three for judge of the Fulton superior court, and three for commissioner of agriculture, none being the incumbent.

When Governor Hardwick began his address there were 33 present, but as others were attracted in from the lobby the audience grew until there were a few more than a hundred present when the former governor had concluded.

The subject of the speech was "What's the Matter With Georgia." He attacked those who are in office and those who, he asserted, are "dominating public office." He said that he had served his time in behalf of the public and it is not his purpose again to offer for office in any capacity. He asserted that the trouble with Georgia is that the people, for the moment, "have fallen away from the faith of our forefathers and forsaken the fundamental principles of real Americanism." Much of that blame he laid on the business men of the state who, he said, claim they have not the time to give to politics.

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

A sentence of from 12 to 20 years in the penitentiary Wednesday was given Raymond Sisson, youth indicted with four others in connection with theft several weeks ago of $25,000 worth of revenue stamps from the plant of the Fote & Davies Co.

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

A sentence of from 12 to 20 years in the penitentiary Wednesday was given Raymond Sisson, youth indicted with four others in connection with theft several weeks ago of $25,000 worth of revenue stamps from the plant of the Fote & Davies Co.

The verdict of guilty was reached by a jury after 40 minutes' deliberation.

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

The prosecution, conducted by Attorney J. H. Hudson, assistant to the solicitor general, was pushed vigorously, both as to the trial on the indictment and as to that of a special plea of insanity, which was tried first. The jury found Sisson was sane and the trial for burglary proceeded.

Sisson is also under a five to ten year sentence following conviction in Clark county in connection with a burglary case, it was stated by Attorney Hudson. He escaped in the fall of 1923, after serving less than one year of the sentence. It was stated, Frank Hinton, who turned state's evidence, took the stand against Sisson. During his testimony the defendant suddenly jumped from his seat and sought to attack the witness.

When the burglary was committed B. F. Nichols, night watchman, was bound and gagged. Most of the stamps were later recovered. Hinton drew a term of 5 to 7 years on conviction on the charge of burglary. He was indicted in the case will be tried later.

NOTE FROM GRAVE IS WINNING CARD

Continued From First Page.

lock and forth in front of the committee members, combining argument with appeals for consideration for the people of his race, and frequently was selected to a running cross-fire of questions from committee sheriffs.

NOTE FROM GRAVE IS WINNING CARD

Often the negro committee members, calling his associates by name, asked him to read statements, and at other times he engaged in sharp exchanges with members of the contesting delegation, in which personalities figured on several occasions. There were frequent bursts of laughter from spectators, and gales of laughter in which members of the committee joined.

Anderson, of Millen, Ga., who told his audience he held the hands of democratic electors in his district, presented the case in chief for the contestants, basing his argument largely on the war against the state party machinery at Atlanta in July, 1921, at the request of President Harding and officials of the national committee.

"Every time we would have a republican meeting," he declared, "there always was a row and we had to call on democratic policemen to separate us."

Denying allegations by the Johnson faction that after the reorganization of the party Phillips, as state chairman, had undertaken to read the negroes of Georgia out of the party, Anderson said in place of Johnson, he made "to draw a decency line" in the party. He added that negroes had participated in the Atlanta convention and that negroes had been elected delegates at the convention last April.

Anderson, in concluding, said that while the 1921 convention had recommended Phillips for national committee chairman in place of Johnson, he was authorized to say that Phillips had withdrawn and that if the contestants should be seated some one else would be chosen.

This announcement appeared to furnish Johnson the cue for his introductory remarks.

"The contestants here," he said, "are playing the tragedy of Caesar with Caesar left out. Where is the national committee man you elected at Atlanta? I will tell you where he is. He is on trial in the District of Co."

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

A sentence of from 12 to 20 years in the penitentiary Wednesday was given Raymond Sisson, youth indicted with four others in connection with theft several weeks ago of $25,000 worth of revenue stamps from the plant of the Fote & Davies Co.

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

A sentence of from 12 to 20 years in the penitentiary Wednesday was given Raymond Sisson, youth indicted with four others in connection with theft several weeks ago of $25,000 worth of revenue stamps from the plant of the Fote & Davies Co.

The verdict of guilty was reached by a jury after 40 minutes' deliberation.

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

The prosecution, conducted by Attorney J. H. Hudson, assistant to the solicitor general, was pushed vigorously, both as to the trial on the indictment and as to that of a special plea of insanity, which was tried first. The jury found Sisson was sane and the trial for burglary proceeded.

Sisson is also under a five to ten year sentence following conviction in Clark county in connection with a burglary case, it was stated by Attorney Hudson. He escaped in the fall of 1923, after serving less than one year of the sentence. It was stated, Frank Hinton, who turned state's evidence, took the stand against Sisson. During his testimony the defendant suddenly jumped from his seat and sought to attack the witness.

When the burglary was committed B. F. Nichols, night watchman, was bound and gagged. Most of the stamps were later recovered. Hinton drew a term of 5 to 7 years on conviction on the charge of burglary. He was indicted in the case will be tried later.

NOTE FROM GRAVE IS WINNING CARD

Continued From First Page.

lock and forth in front of the committee members, combining argument with appeals for consideration for the people of his race, and frequently was selected to a running cross-fire of questions from committee sheriffs.

NOTE FROM GRAVE IS WINNING CARD

Often the negro committee members, calling his associates by name, asked him to read statements, and at other times he engaged in sharp exchanges with members of the contesting delegation, in which personalities figured on several occasions. There were frequent bursts of laughter from spectators, and gales of laughter in which members of the committee joined.

Anderson, of Millen, Ga., who told his audience he held the hands of democratic electors in his district, presented the case in chief for the contestants, basing his argument largely on the war against the state party machinery at Atlanta in July, 1921, at the request of President Harding and officials of the national committee.

"Every time we would have a republican meeting," he declared, "there always was a row and we had to call on democratic policemen to separate us."

Denying allegations by the Johnson faction that after the reorganization of the party Phillips, as state chairman, had undertaken to read the negroes of Georgia out of the party, Anderson said in place of Johnson, he made "to draw a decency line" in the party. He added that negroes had participated in the Atlanta convention and that negroes had been elected delegates at the convention last April.

Anderson, in concluding, said that while the 1921 convention had recommended Phillips for national committee chairman in place of Johnson, he was authorized to say that Phillips had withdrawn and that if the contestants should be seated some one else would be chosen.

This announcement appeared to furnish Johnson the cue for his introductory remarks.

"The contestants here," he said, "are playing the tragedy of Caesar with Caesar left out. Where is the national committee man you elected at Atlanta? I will tell you where he is. He is on trial in the District of Co."

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

A sentence of from 12 to 20 years in the penitentiary Wednesday was given Raymond Sisson, youth indicted with four others in connection with theft several weeks ago of $25,000 worth of revenue stamps from the plant of the Fote & Davies Co.

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

A sentence of from 12 to 20 years in the penitentiary Wednesday was given Raymond Sisson, youth indicted with four others in connection with theft several weeks ago of $25,000 worth of revenue stamps from the plant of the Fote & Davies Co.

The verdict of guilty was reached by a jury after 40 minutes' deliberation.

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

The prosecution, conducted by Attorney J. H. Hudson, assistant to the solicitor general, was pushed vigorously, both as to the trial on the indictment and as to that of a special plea of insanity, which was tried first. The jury found Sisson was sane and the trial for burglary proceeded.

Sisson is also under a five to ten year sentence following conviction in Clark county in connection with a burglary case, it was stated by Attorney Hudson. He escaped in the fall of 1923, after serving less than one year of the sentence. It was stated, Frank Hinton, who turned state's evidence, took the stand against Sisson. During his testimony the defendant suddenly jumped from his seat and sought to attack the witness.

When the burglary was committed B. F. Nichols, night watchman, was bound and gagged. Most of the stamps were later recovered. Hinton drew a term of 5 to 7 years on conviction on the charge of burglary. He was indicted in the case will be tried later.

NOTE FROM GRAVE IS WINNING CARD

Continued From First Page.

lock and forth in front of the committee members, combining argument with appeals for consideration for the people of his race, and frequently was selected to a running cross-fire of questions from committee sheriffs.

NOTE FROM GRAVE IS WINNING CARD

Often the negro committee members, calling his associates by name, asked him to read statements, and at other times he engaged in sharp exchanges with members of the contesting delegation, in which personalities figured on several occasions. There were frequent bursts of laughter from spectators, and gales of laughter in which members of the committee joined.

Anderson, of Millen, Ga., who told his audience he held the hands of democratic electors in his district, presented the case in chief for the contestants, basing his argument largely on the war against the state party machinery at Atlanta in July, 1921, at the request of President Harding and officials of the national committee.

"Every time we would have a republican meeting," he declared, "there always was a row and we had to call on democratic policemen to separate us."

Denying allegations by the Johnson faction that after the reorganization of the party Phillips, as state chairman, had undertaken to read the negroes of Georgia out of the party, Anderson said in place of Johnson, he made "to draw a decency line" in the party. He added that negroes had participated in the Atlanta convention and that negroes had been elected delegates at the convention last April.

Anderson, in concluding, said that while the 1921 convention had recommended Phillips for national committee chairman in place of Johnson, he was authorized to say that Phillips had withdrawn and that if the contestants should be seated some one else would be chosen.

This announcement appeared to furnish Johnson the cue for his introductory remarks.

"The contestants here," he said, "are playing the tragedy of Caesar with Caesar left out. Where is the national committee man you elected at Atlanta? I will tell you where he is. He is on trial in the District of Co."

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

A sentence of from 12 to 20 years in the penitentiary Wednesday was given Raymond Sisson, youth indicted with four others in connection with theft several weeks ago of $25,000 worth of revenue stamps from the plant of the Fote & Davies Co.

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

A sentence of from 12 to 20 years in the penitentiary Wednesday was given Raymond Sisson, youth indicted with four others in connection with theft several weeks ago of $25,000 worth of revenue stamps from the plant of the Fote & Davies Co.

The verdict of guilty was reached by a jury after 40 minutes' deliberation.

REVENUE STAMP THIEF IS GIVEN 12 TO 20 YEARS

The prosecution, conducted by Attorney J. H. Hudson, assistant to the solicitor general, was pushed vigorously, both as to the trial on the indictment and as to that of a special plea of insanity, which was tried first. The jury found Sisson was sane and the trial for burglary proceeded.

Sisson is also under a five to ten year sentence following conviction in Clark county in connection with a burglary case, it was stated by Attorney Hudson. He escaped in the fall of 1923, after serving less than one year of the sentence. It was stated, Frank Hinton, who turned state's evidence, took the stand against Sisson. During his testimony the defendant suddenly jumped from his seat and sought to attack the witness.

When the burglary was committed B. F. Nichols, night watchman, was bound and gagged. Most of the stamps were later recovered. Hinton drew a term of 5 to 7 years on conviction on the charge of burglary. He was indicted in the case will be tried later.

NOTE FROM GRAVE IS WINNING CARD

Continued From First Page.

lock and forth in front of the committee members, combining argument with appeals for consideration for the people of his race, and frequently was selected to a running cross-fire of questions from committee sheriffs.

NOTE FROM GRAVE IS WINNING CARD

Often the negro committee members, calling his associates by name, asked him to read statements, and at other times he engaged in sharp exchanges with members of the contesting delegation, in which personalities figured on several occasions. There were frequent bursts of laughter from spectators, and gales of laughter in which members of the committee joined.

Anderson, of Millen, Ga., who told his audience he held the hands of democratic electors in his district, presented the case in chief for the contestants, basing his argument largely on the war against the state party machinery at Atlanta in July, 1921, at the request of President Harding and officials of the national committee.

"Every time we would have a republican meeting," he declared, "there always was a row and we had to call on democratic policemen to separate us."

Denying allegations by the Johnson faction that after the reorganization of the party Phillips, as state chairman, had undertaken to read the negroes of Georgia out of the party, Anderson said in place of Johnson, he made "to draw a decency line" in the party. He added that negroes had participated in the Atlanta convention and that negroes had been elected delegates at the convention last April.

Anderson, in concluding, said that while the 1921 convention had recommended Phillips for national committee chairman in place of Johnson, he was authorized to say that Phillips had withdrawn and that if the contestants should be seated some one else would be chosen.

This announcement appeared to furnish Johnson the cue for his introductory remarks.

"The contestants here," he said, "are playing the tragedy of Caesar with Caesar left out. Where is the national committee man you elected at Atlanta? I will tell you where he is. He is on trial in the District of Co."

Criminal Negligence

HOTEL MEN'S MEET
FORMALLY OPENS

The annual summer meeting of the Georgia Hotel Men's association will open at 10 o'clock this morning with a reception and registration of delegates at the Biltmore hotel. Elaborate plans have been made for the entertainment of visiting delegates during the two-day convention, and business sessions and entertainments will occupy every minute of time until the end of the convention Friday afternoon.

Following registration the convention will be called to order with a prayer by the Rev. J. B. Moody, president of the association and manager of Wincoff hotel, presiding. This morning's program will include addresses by William Booth, manager of the Wayside inn, Cedarhurst; O. C. Omer, manager of the Park hotel, Carterville; H. A. Tisdell, manager of the Aragon hotel, Atlanta; W. P. Felker, secretary of the Atlanta Athletic club; J. G. Craft, manager of the Hotel Hartwell, of Hartwell; L. F. Hackett, manager of the Hotel General Forrest, of Rome; J. R. Styles, manager of the Princeton hotel, Gainesville; Hubert Edeleanu, manager of the Swinton hotel, Newnan; Will V. Zimmer, manager of the Piedmont hotel, Atlanta; Dr. Craig Arnold, manager of the Mountain inn, Dahlonega; T. W. Hooks, of the Lanier hotel, Macon; "Uncle Ben" Branham, president of the Hotel Bulletin, of Chicago; Harry M. Eastman, managing editor of the Hotel Bulletin, of Chicago; E. J. Thornton, manager of Thornton's cafeteria, Atlanta; and William Haine, general manager of the Crescent News company, of Nashville.

After a luncheon in the main dining room of the Biltmore hotel, given by H. B. Judkins, manager of the Biltmore, who presided at the meeting, and an inspection tour of the hotel, a business session will be held.

Dinkler Is Host.
A banquet will be given at 7 o'clock tonight in the main dining room of the Ansley hotel by C. L. Dinkler, vice president and general manager of the Dinkler Hotel company, at which Colonel E. J. Paxon will act as toastmaster, and addresses of welcome will be made by Governor Clifford Walker and Alderman W. T. Hartsfield, by response by Gray Middlebrooks, attorney for the Georgia Hotel Men's association. Former Governor John M. Slaton will deliver the principal address. The Friday morning session will be held in the roof garden of the Cecil hotel, will be devoted to business, reports of committees and selection of the next convention city. The session will close Friday afternoon with an automobile trip to Stone Mountain.

CORN BELT SLIPS

SOLAR-PELUS JAR

Continued From First Page.

not only in Iowa, but in many other states, is being increased daily. One reason is the slant-out game which has been played on the progressives at the Cleveland convention. Iowa republicans, as represented in the state's senator who has just been given a vote of confidence, is not admitted to the Cleveland convention. No effort has been made to hold progressives in line.

Senate Dislikes Quince.
Another reason is in the studied manner in which the senate has been excluded from the convention picture. Even the regulars have been denied any posts of honor. Lodge, the majority leader of the senate, the chairman of the foreign relations committee, and a product of the president's own state, will have little more influence than the lowliest delegate. The result has not been salutary at the convention. Privately, leading republican senators feel aggrieved. They are sullen. It is difficult for them to submit to the dictation of a man who was accidentally made head of his party, especially when they had previously planned—before Harding died—to place Coolidge on the shelf and pick a new vice presidential candidate.

Fixes Up Personal Machine.
Then there is one other important angle. Coolidge is building up his own personal machine to conduct the campaign after the convention. He recently announced that his old Massachusetts friend, William M. Butler would succeed John T. Adams, as chairman of the republican national committee. Now it is announced that Fred W. Upham, for years treasurer of the national committee, will retire after the convention. Ill health is given as the ground. Coolidge also will put his own man in as secretary of the national committee.

All of these changes increase Coolidge's personal grip on the party machinery, but they do not aid in increasing the regulars of the organization. The danger to the president is that his own party leaders will soldier on him. That will be a serious danger if La Follette gets in with his independent movement and the democrats conduct a real offensive.

COUNTY VOTES $3,500
TO SAFETY COUNCIL

The Fulton county commissioners, in session Wednesday, voted to appropriate $3,500 to the Atlanta Safety Council. Judge Shepard Bryan and Attorney Frank Shumate appeared in behalf of the appropriation. The money is to be paid January 1, 1925, if it is in the county treasury.

The government has opened a school to give education to one family of 15 boys and girls, the largest in Alaska. It is said.

Yellowstone Park

Round Trip

Only $94.50

from Atlanta

Park Opens June 20

Write
W. C. Barnett, G. A.
Geo. F. Knight,
T. F. & P. A.
1601 National Cincinnati, Ohio

Billy Sunday Says Gibbet
Should Punish Boy Killers

BY HAROLD ANDREWS.

Chicago, June 4.—Billy Sunday, evangelist, did a high hurdle over the gate of an observation car platform Wednesday, and announced blithely that the world was fox-trotting to perdition and that Chicago was furnishing the orchestral accompaniment.

Sunday, completely recovered from his recent illness and on "out home," was in good comment on "what the world's coming to" when someone directed his attention to the sensational kidnapping and murder of Robert Franks by Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold.

"If they are guilty," said he, "they ought to hang. I for one have no sympathy for them. They are merciless and deliberately set a stage for murder—and then used a human being—a boy—as a puppet."

Here Sunday paused, waved a tightly clenched fist in the air above his head and then brought it down on the palm of his other hand with a terrific smack.

"I think this hideous crime can be traced to the moral misera which contaminates some of our young intellectuals," he said. "Nowadays it is considered fashionable for higher education to scoff at God. Precocious brains, salacious books, infidel minds—all these helped to produce this murder. Remember that purity of heart must keep pace with brilliance of intellect. The soul is more important than the mind."

Sunday pointed a shaking finger at no one in particular, saying that "Chicago, with its 300 murders in one year, was setting the pace for the rest of the world in its dance towards the lower regions. He suggested that the intellectuals" read the Bible occasionally and "lay off the decadent stuff."

The evangelist who recovered from a serious illness in record time under the care of the Mayo brothers at Rochester, Minn., said his restoration to health was due to Divine power.

"I'm going to the bat for God again," said Billy, "there's going to be something popping. I'm after the devil, and I want to put him in a straightjacket before I'm called out."

Sunday will rest at Winona, Ind., for the summer after which he says he'll undertake the hardest evangelistic season of his career.

On the playground of the private school both attended on the day the state believes was first selected as the victim. Previously, he had told of being approached during the day by Loeb but the state believes Loeb was forced to give up his plan because an instructor was present at the time.

The instructor also appeared before the grand jury today. Detectives announced they have found a pair of field glasses with which they contend the youths watched a baseball game from a rented automobile the day of the slaying in order to select their victim, picking the Franks boy when he passed their car on the way home.

Detectives who have been investigating the slaying of Tracy and the attack on Ream were waiting to appear before the grand jury in connection with the Franks case today and asserted they had found information that may connect the youths with these two crimes. They said they expected to resume their investigation tomorrow.

Leopold Owned Typewriter.
Four university students who had said they knew Leopold had a portable typewriter such as the boys considered they used to type the ransom demand made upon Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy, also appeared before the jury. The typewriter on which the notes were written, according to the boys, was thrown in a bag and has not been recovered.

The man who found the body of Franks stuffed in a culvert on the south side the day after he disappeared testified today, and Paul Korff, who found Leopold's shell-rimmed glasses near the body, told his story. It was the spectacles that led to the identity of the slayers.

Evidence substantiating the boys' confession was also brought before the grand jury this afternoon. The articles included the cloth with which they said they struck Franks over the head after inducing him to enter their car, blood-stained boots worn by Leopold in herding the body of Franks into the swamp to conceal it, Loeb's trousers with blood stains on them, the blood-stained matting from the rented car, the remains of clothing worn by the victim, and a remnant of a robe tossed over the youth after he was slain and which the slayers said they later tried unsuccessfully to burn. Seek Habeas Writs.

Among other witnesses were officials and employees of the automobile agency from which the boys rented the car used in the kidnapping, slaying and concealing of the body, and the proprietor of a stationery shop who has declared the youths bought paper there identical with that used in the ransom letters.

Attorneys representing the Loeb and Leopold families called at the jail today to confer with their clients but were refused permission to do so. The boys will be brought into court Friday for a final hearing on petitions for writs of habeas corpus.

Guard Evidence.
State's Attorney Crowe said he was not rushing the case before the grand jury as he desired to present every person who knew anything of it and have them testify under oath to prevent the possibility of their stories being changed later.

Mr. Crowe said he expected to present the confessions of the youths to the grand jury tomorrow. He explained that these confessions still are in the form of shorthand notes and will be read to the jury by the shorthand reporters who made the notes. While the notes have not been transcribed, he said that each page of the confessions was read to Leopold and Loeb, that each page was corrected by them and that they then signed the pages singly.

Four armed men tonight guarded the evidence and Mr. Crowe said they will remain on duty until after the grand jury has taken action. Then it will be placed in four safety deposit boxes in different banks.

LEOPOLD'S LIKENESS TAKEN FROM FILM.
Lansing, Mich., June 4.—Nathan Leopold, Jr., one of the 19-year-old self-confessed slayers of 13-year-old Robert Franks, is the latest victim of movie censorship.

John Baird, state director of censorship, has issued an order forbidding further display of the film showing the slaying of Tracy and the attack on Ream were waiting to appear before the grand jury in connection with the Franks case today and asserted they had found information that may connect the youths with these two crimes. They said they expected to resume their investigation tomorrow.

CONNECT SLAYERS WITH OTHER CRIMES
Continued From First Page.

chemist, that dark stains found on the clothes the two youths wore when they kidnapped Franks were marks made by human blood.

Bloodstains Proven.
The bloodstains were found on Loeb's trousers, Leopold's coat and trousers, on a pair of boots found in the Leopold garage, on the tape-wrapped chisel with which the two said they killed Franks over the head, and on what was left of the robe they wrapped around young Franks in the remains of the robe, which the youths tried to burn, were found at East Seventy-third street on the shore of Lake Michigan.

GRAND JURY CASE TO BE COMPLETE TODAY.
Chicago, June 4.—A score of witnesses testified today before the grand jury which has been asked to indict Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, university students and sons of Chicago millionaires, for murder and kidnapping for ransom in connection with the slaying two weeks ago today of Robert Franks, school boy son of another wealthy Chicagoan.

It was expected tonight that the last witnesses will appear tomorrow and that the grand jury will vote then on the state's attorney's request for indictments on the two charges, each punishable by death if convictions are obtained.

Meanwhile, the youths who have confessed they kidnapped and killed Robert Franks to obtain excitement and a $10,000 ransom for a trip to Europe, were closely guarded in the county jail to prevent escape. Attempts while members of the state's attorney's staff and detectives investigated their possible connection with the slaying last fall of Freeman Louis Tracy, a university student, and the mutilation of Charles Ream, a taxi driver.

Instructor Saved One Boy.
Among those who went before the grand jury was nine-year-old John Levinson, son of a wealthy attorney, who played ball with Robert Franks

LOS ANGELES WINS
1925 SHRINE MEET

Kansas City, Mo., June 4.—Los Angeles was selected late today as the 1925 convention city by the imperial council of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in convention here.

James E. Chandler, of Kansas City, was chosen imperial potentate by the council.

John N. Sebrille, of Khedive temple, Norfolk, Va., was elected imperial outer guard.

Other officers elected: James C. Burger, Denver, imperial deputy potentate; David W. Crossland, Montgomery, Ala., imperial chief rabbi; Clarence M. Dunbar, Providence, R. I., imperial assistant rabbi; William S. Brown, Pittsburgh, imperial treasurer; Benjamin W. Rowell, Boston, imperial recorder; Frank C. Jones, Houston, Texas, imperial high priest and prophet; Leo V. Youngworth, Los Angeles, imperial oriental guide; Esten A. Fletcher, Rochester, N. Y., imperial first ceremonial master; Thos. J. Houston, Chicago, imperial second ceremonial master; Earl C. Mills, Des Moines, imperial marshal; Clifford Ireland, Peoria, Ill., imperial captain of guards.

Thirty thousand persons gathered in the local park today to hear 3,000 musicians, the assembled bands of the Shrine, play under the direction of John Philip Sousa.

Derers traveling about the state, Baird declared, in issuing his order. The film will be brought temporarily to conservation headquarters here and await disposition of the conservation commission at its next meeting.

Baird indicated that it was possible the pictures showing Leopold might be cut out of the film, so that the public would not be denied further views of the rare little warbler. The film has already been shown to thousands of school children throughout Michigan as part of the conservation department's educational program.

Four armed men tonight guarded the evidence and Mr. Crowe said they will remain on duty until after the grand jury has taken action. Then it will be placed in four safety deposit boxes in different banks.

LEOPOLD'S LIKENESS TAKEN FROM FILM.
Lansing, Mich., June 4.—Nathan Leopold, Jr., one of the 19-year-old self-confessed slayers of 13-year-old Robert Franks, is the latest victim of movie censorship.

John Baird, state director of censorship, has issued an order forbidding further display of the film showing the slaying of Tracy and the attack on Ream were waiting to appear before the grand jury in connection with the Franks case today and asserted they had found information that may connect the youths with these two crimes. They said they expected to resume their investigation tomorrow.

Leopold Owned Typewriter.
Four university students who had said they knew Leopold had a portable typewriter such as the boys considered they used to type the ransom demand made upon Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy, also appeared before the jury. The typewriter on which the notes were written, according to the boys, was thrown in a bag and has not been recovered.

The man who found the body of Franks stuffed in a culvert on the south side the day after he disappeared testified today, and Paul Korff, who found Leopold's shell-rimmed glasses near the body, told his story. It was the spectacles that led to the identity of the slayers.

Evidence substantiating the boys' confession was also brought before the grand jury this afternoon. The articles included the cloth with which they said they struck Franks over the head after inducing him to enter their car, blood-stained boots worn by Leopold in herding the body of Franks into the swamp to conceal it, Loeb's trousers with blood stains on them, the blood-stained matting from the rented car, the remains of clothing worn by the victim, and a remnant of a robe tossed over the youth after he was slain and which the slayers said they later tried unsuccessfully to burn. Seek Habeas Writs.

Among other witnesses were officials and employees of the automobile agency from which the boys rented the car used in the kidnapping, slaying and concealing of the body, and the proprietor of a stationery shop who has declared the youths bought paper there identical with that used in the ransom letters.

Attorneys representing the Loeb and Leopold families called at the jail today to confer with their clients but were refused permission to do so. The boys will be brought into court Friday for a final hearing on petitions for writs of habeas corpus.

Guard Evidence.
State's Attorney Crowe said he was not rushing the case before the grand jury as he desired to present every person who knew anything of it and have them testify under oath to prevent the possibility of their stories being changed later.

Mr. Crowe said he expected to present the confessions of the youths to the grand jury tomorrow. He explained that these confessions still are in the form of shorthand notes and will be read to the jury by the shorthand reporters who made the notes. While the notes have not been transcribed, he said that each page of the confessions was read to Leopold and Loeb, that each page was corrected by them and that they then signed the pages singly.

Four armed men tonight guarded the evidence and Mr. Crowe said they will remain on duty until after the grand jury has taken action. Then it will be placed in four safety deposit boxes in different banks.

LEOPOLD'S LIKENESS TAKEN FROM FILM.
Lansing, Mich., June 4.—Nathan Leopold, Jr., one of the 19-year-old self-confessed slayers of 13-year-old Robert Franks, is the latest victim of movie censorship.

John Baird, state director of censorship, has issued an order forbidding further display of the film showing the slaying of Tracy and the attack on Ream were waiting to appear before the grand jury in connection with the Franks case today and asserted they had found information that may connect the youths with these two crimes. They said they expected to resume their investigation tomorrow.

Leopold Owned Typewriter.
Four university students who had said they knew Leopold had a portable typewriter such as the boys considered they used to type the ransom demand made upon Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy, also appeared before the jury. The typewriter on which the notes were written, according to the boys, was thrown in a bag and has not been recovered.

The man who found the body of Franks stuffed in a culvert on the south side the day after he disappeared testified today, and Paul Korff, who found Leopold's shell-rimmed glasses near the body, told his story. It was the spectacles that led to the identity of the slayers.

Evidence substantiating the boys' confession was also brought before the grand jury this afternoon. The articles included the cloth with which they said they struck Franks over the head after inducing him to enter their car, blood-stained boots worn by Leopold in herding the body of Franks into the swamp to conceal it, Loeb's trousers with blood stains on them, the blood-stained matting from the rented car, the remains of clothing worn by the victim, and a remnant of a robe tossed over the youth after he was slain and which the slayers said they later tried unsuccessfully to burn. Seek Habeas Writs.

Among other witnesses were officials and employees of the automobile agency from which the boys rented the car used in the kidnapping, slaying and concealing of the body, and the proprietor of a stationery shop who has declared the youths bought paper there identical with that used in the ransom letters.

Attorneys representing the Loeb and Leopold families called at the jail today to confer with their clients but were refused permission to do so. The boys will be brought into court Friday for a final hearing on petitions for writs of habeas corpus.

Guard Evidence.
State's Attorney Crowe said he was not rushing the case before the grand jury as he desired to present every person who knew anything of it and have them testify under oath to prevent the possibility of their stories being changed later.

Mr. Crowe said he expected to present the confessions of the youths to the grand jury tomorrow. He explained that these confessions still are in the form of shorthand notes and will be read to the jury by the shorthand reporters who made the notes. While the notes have not been transcribed, he said that each page of the confessions was read to Leopold and Loeb, that each page was corrected by them and that they then signed the pages singly.

Four armed men tonight guarded the evidence and Mr. Crowe said they will remain on duty until after the grand jury has taken action. Then it will be placed in four safety deposit boxes in different banks.

LEOPOLD'S LIKENESS TAKEN FROM FILM.
Lansing, Mich., June 4.—Nathan Leopold, Jr., one of the 19-year-old self-confessed slayers of 13-year-old Robert Franks, is the latest victim of movie censorship.

John Baird, state director of censorship, has issued an order forbidding further display of the film showing the slaying of Tracy and the attack on Ream were waiting to appear before the grand jury in connection with the Franks case today and asserted they had found information that may connect the youths with these two crimes. They said they expected to resume their investigation tomorrow.

Leopold Owned Typewriter.
Four university students who had said they knew Leopold had a portable typewriter such as the boys considered they used to type the ransom demand made upon Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy, also appeared before the jury. The typewriter on which the notes were written, according to the boys, was thrown in a bag and has not been recovered.

The man who found the body of Franks stuffed in a culvert on the south side the day after he disappeared testified today, and Paul Korff, who found Leopold's shell-rimmed glasses near the body, told his story. It was the spectacles that led to the identity of the slayers.

If you knew what ageing in wood does for pipe tobacco

Even the finest Kentucky Burley Tobacco (and that's the kind we use) is green and raw when it's pulled. You could hardly smoke one pipe load of it.

And here's where Velvet is different: Our ageing takes out that rawness and harshness, and makes the tobacco mild and mellow and gives it fine flavor. Ageing in wood does what no artificial treatment can do.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

Remember—Velvet Tobacco, aged in wood.

LOS ANGELES WINS
1925 SHRINE MEET

Kansas City, Mo., June 4.—Los Angeles was selected late today as the 1925 convention city by the imperial council of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in convention here.

James E. Chandler, of Kansas City, was chosen imperial potentate by the council.

John N. Sebrille, of Khedive temple, Norfolk, Va., was elected imperial outer guard.

Other officers elected: James C. Burger, Denver, imperial deputy potentate; David W. Crossland, Montgomery, Ala., imperial chief rabbi; Clarence M. Dunbar, Providence, R. I., imperial assistant rabbi; William S. Brown, Pittsburgh, imperial treasurer; Benjamin W. Rowell, Boston, imperial recorder; Frank C. Jones, Houston, Texas, imperial high priest and prophet; Leo V. Youngworth, Los Angeles, imperial oriental guide; Esten A. Fletcher, Rochester, N. Y., imperial first ceremonial master; Thos. J. Houston, Chicago, imperial second ceremonial master; Earl C. Mills, Des Moines, imperial marshal; Clifford Ireland, Peoria, Ill., imperial captain of guards.

Thirty thousand persons gathered in the local park today to hear 3,000 musicians, the assembled bands of the Shrine, play under the direction of John Philip Sousa.

Derers traveling about the state, Baird declared, in issuing his order. The film will be brought temporarily to conservation headquarters here and await disposition of the conservation commission at its next meeting.

Baird indicated that it was possible the pictures showing Leopold might be cut out of the film, so that the public would not be denied further views of the rare little warbler. The film has already been shown to thousands of school children throughout Michigan as part of the conservation department's educational program.

Four armed men tonight guarded the evidence and Mr. Crowe said they will remain on duty until after the grand jury has taken action. Then it will be placed in four safety deposit boxes in different banks.

LEOPOLD'S LIKENESS TAKEN FROM FILM.
Lansing, Mich., June 4.—Nathan Leopold, Jr., one of the 19-year-old self-confessed slayers of 13-year-old Robert Franks, is the latest victim of movie censorship.

John Baird, state director of censorship, has issued an order forbidding further display of the film showing the slaying of Tracy and the attack on Ream were waiting to appear before the grand jury in connection with the Franks case today and asserted they had found information that may connect the youths with these two crimes. They said they expected to resume their investigation tomorrow.

Leopold Owned Typewriter.
Four university students who had said they knew Leopold had a portable typewriter such as the boys considered they used to type the ransom demand made upon Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy, also appeared before the jury. The typewriter on which the notes were written, according to the boys, was thrown in a bag and has not been recovered.

The man who found the body of Franks stuffed in a culvert on the south side the day after he disappeared testified today, and Paul Korff, who found Leopold's shell-rimmed glasses near the body, told his story. It was the spectacles that led to the identity of the slayers.

Evidence substantiating the boys' confession was also brought before the grand jury this afternoon. The articles included the cloth with which they said they struck Franks over the head after inducing him to enter their car, blood-stained boots worn by Leopold in herding the body of Franks into the swamp to conceal it, Loeb's trousers with blood stains on them, the blood-stained matting from the rented car, the remains of clothing worn by the victim, and a remnant of a robe tossed over the youth after he was slain and which the slayers said they later tried unsuccessfully to burn. Seek Habeas Writs.

Among other witnesses were officials and employees of the automobile agency from which the boys rented the car used in the kidnapping, slaying and concealing of the body, and the proprietor of a stationery shop who has declared the youths bought paper there identical with that used in the ransom letters.

Attorneys representing the Loeb and Leopold families called at the jail today to confer with their clients but were refused permission to do so. The boys will be brought into court Friday for a final hearing on petitions for writs of habeas corpus.

Guard Evidence.
State's Attorney Crowe said he was not rushing the case before the grand jury as he desired to present every person who knew anything of it and have them testify under oath to prevent the possibility of their stories being changed later.

Mr. Crowe said he expected to present the confessions of the youths to the grand jury tomorrow. He explained that these confessions still are in the form of shorthand notes and will be read to the jury by the shorthand reporters who made the notes. While the notes have not been transcribed, he said that each page of the confessions was read to Leopold and Loeb, that each page was corrected by them and that they then signed the pages singly.

Four armed men tonight guarded the evidence and Mr. Crowe said they will remain on duty until after the grand jury has taken action. Then it will be placed in four safety deposit boxes in different banks.

LEOPOLD'S LIKENESS TAKEN FROM FILM.
Lansing, Mich., June 4.—Nathan Leopold, Jr., one of the 19-year-old self-confessed slayers of 13-year-old Robert Franks, is the latest victim of movie censorship.

John Baird, state director of censorship, has issued an order forbidding further display of the film showing the slaying of Tracy and the attack on Ream were waiting to appear before the grand jury in connection with the Franks case today and asserted they had found information that may connect the youths with these two crimes. They said they expected to resume their investigation tomorrow.

Leopold Owned Typewriter.
Four university students who had said they knew Leopold had a portable typewriter such as the boys considered they used to type the ransom demand made upon Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy, also appeared before the jury. The typewriter on which the notes were written, according to the boys, was thrown in a bag and has not been recovered.

The man who found the body of Franks stuffed in a culvert on the south side the day after he disappeared testified today, and Paul Korff, who found Leopold's shell-rimmed glasses near the body, told his story. It was the spectacles that led to the identity of the slayers.

Evidence substantiating the boys' confession was also brought before the grand jury this afternoon. The articles included the cloth with which they said they struck Franks over the head after inducing him to enter their car, blood-stained boots worn by Leopold in herding the body of Franks into the swamp to conceal it, Loeb's trousers with blood stains on them, the blood-stained matting from the rented car, the remains of clothing worn by the victim, and a remnant of a robe tossed over the youth after he was slain and which the slayers said they later tried unsuccessfully to burn. Seek Habeas Writs.

Among other witnesses were officials and employees of the automobile agency from which the boys rented the car used in the kidnapping, slaying and concealing of the body, and the proprietor of a stationery shop who

DAUGHERTY BALKS AT WITNESS ROLE

Washington, June 4.—Former Attorney General Daugherty put an abrupt stop to the storm-marked course of the senate investigation of his official conduct today, by refusing to appear as a witness and by withdrawing the attorneys who have represented him in the prolonged proceedings.

To the last minute the clash of the controversy which has raged almost without cessation during nearly four months of the inquiry resounded, as Paul Howland, of Mr. Daugherty's counsel, read the statement of his client charging that members of the senate committee had sought to blacken his reputation and injure his standing in an inquiry which an Ohio federal court had pronounced an illegal proceeding.

New Exchange of Courtesies.

The "silence of the tomb had forever rendered the direct denial of these slanders impossible," Mr. Daugherty said, in a declaration that he had never during tenure of office "profited in any illegal, corrupt or unethical way, directly or indirectly."

Chairman Brookhart in an immediate

Who Is Your Skinny Friend, Ethel?

Tell him to take Cod Liver Oil for a couple of months and get enough good, healthy flesh on his bones to look like a real man.

Tell him he won't have to swallow the nasty oil with the fishy taste, because the McCoy's Laboratories, of New York, are now putting up Cod Liver Oil in sugar-coated tablet form.

Ask for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets. Jacobs' Pharmacy Co., E. H. Cone, Inc., and every druggist worthy the name sells them—60 tablets, 60 cents. Any man or woman can put on five pounds of healthy flesh in thirty days, or the money paid for the tablets will be refunded.

One woman put on fifteen pounds in six weeks. Children grow robust and strong.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets."—(adv.)

DR. LUCIAN LAMAR KNIGHT.

resignation he reviews the work of the department and declares that it is now securely entrenched in the affections of the public and its work recognized all over the country. He stated that he had held the position at a financial sacrifice to himself, because of his ambition to preserve the state's history. He added that he has gathered nearly 350,000 separate documents and manuscripts.

In his letter he says: "Having served the state of Georgia in official responsibility for nearly 12 years I desire at the expiration of my present term on January 1, next, voluntarily and of my own accord, to relinquish the office which I now hold. I have reached this decision with some reluctance, nevertheless with a fixed determination which no argument can alter. The work, though arduous, has been congenial. It has been taking the witness stand, in the best years of my life, and in which I have received without stint the warmest support, cooperation and sympathy of all patriotic and intelligent Georgians."

Declaring that the present is a woman's age and referring to the success of Mrs. Barker Colby as state librarian for Georgia, as well as Mrs. Marie Bankhead Owen, director of the department of archives and history in Alabama, Dr. Knight recommends as his successor, Miss Ruth Blair, his first assistant.

"Miss Blair has been in the department's employ for three years, and the letter stated, 'She is a trained investigator with the mastery of routine and a genius for organization, and to her is due largely the splendid system under which the department is at present operated. She is familiar with all the records; she is a native of the state and possesses a fund of information for Georgia, and I need only to add that in filling this office it is far better to bestow it upon a skilled expert with a specialized equipment than upon a mere salary-grabber whose only qualifications are ineptness and political.'"

Is Widely Known.

Dr. Knight will devote his life in future to travel and literature, he stated. After his resignation goes into effect he will devote a season to travel and following this, intends to continue his work of preserving the history of Georgia, but in a private capacity. He is the author of a number of books, including the notable "History of Georgia and Georgians," and he expects to follow further his literary pursuits when he returns from an extended tour of Europe and other parts of the world, now planned.

Dr. Knight was born in Atlanta in 1868 and educated in the public schools of the city. He attended the University of Georgia law school in 1888 and was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity, but did not finish his course because of illness. He later secured a master's arts degree at Princeton and an LL. D. was conferred upon him by the University of Georgia in 1917 for his literary work. In 1910 he was elected to a fellowship in the Royal Society of London, an honor rare among Americans.

In Newspaper Work.

From 1892 to 1902 Dr. Knight was literary editor of The Constitution. From 1908 to 1910 he was associate editor of The Atlanta Georgian. He spent 1906 and 1907 on the Catalina Islands and it was while there that he commenced his history of Georgia. This was later published in six volumes. Dr. Knight has written fifteen volumes altogether and his latest book, "Life of Woodrow Wilson," is expected from the press in the next few days.

In addition to his literary pursuits, Dr. Knight is well known in business circles. He is vice president of the John B. Daniel Drug company, Atlanta and vice president of literary editor of the Martin & Hott Publishing company.

Dr. Knight founded the Georgia Historical association, which was later merged with the Georgia Historical society.

Driven directly from the tractor motor, a street sweeper has been made with bamboo bristles which are said to be superior to hickory, as they are more pliable.

Doctors Recommend

SHIVAR

America's Greatest Mineral

WATER

For the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder.

Delivered at your door by

MUNN'S

DRUG STORES
Telephone Walnut 6013

STATE HISTORIAN RESIGNS OFFICE

At a meeting Wednesday morning of the state historical commission, Dr. Lucian Lamar Knight, state historian and director of the department of archives and history, tendered his resignation, to go into effect January 1, 1925, and recommended that his first assistant, Miss Ruth Blair, be appointed to succeed him. The committee accepted the resignation with expressions of "sincere regret," but did not act as a successor.

Dr. Knight has held the position since the department was created, nearly 12 years ago. In his letter of

To Hold Summer Hearings.

Three out of five senators who compose it have a tentative agreement to resume open hearings after a summer recess, and assertion has been made that dozens of witnesses given preliminary examination outside their hearing rooms are being held to give testimony.

Probably no other congressional inquiry has been marked by accessory operations of so drastic and far-reaching a nature as those embarked upon in the Daugherty investigation, in addition to a staff of senate employees, Frank A. Vanderlip, New York financier, has lent it the aid of numerous groups of attorneys and investigators organized by him.

Starting in an atmosphere of hostility and with a clear cut decision to take testimony not always within the judicial rules of evidence, the inquiry called first from Eugene Higgins, divorced wife of Jess W. Smith, and Gaston B. Means, former international spy and later department of justice operative, accounts of payments and "deals" they alleged Smith at least had entered while associated with Mr. Daugherty. A host of other witnesses followed, ranging in status from convicts out of the Atlanta federal penitentiary to United States senators.

The facts, accusations and assertions have dealt with many matters touching the conduct of the department of justice in Mr. Daugherty's examination of the books, while M. S. of the prohibition law, through prosecution of war frauds, the transportation of prize fight motion pictures, and the pardon of criminals, down to the enforcement of neutrality laws along the Mexican border.

In three separate proceedings, courts have been asked to intervene to block the committee's course. The Midland National bank obtained a restraining order in Ohio to prevent the examination of the books, while M. S. Daugherty, its president, successfully applied to the federal bench for a writ of habeas corpus which prevented him from taking the witness stand. In the third proceeding, directed by H. M. Daugherty against the committee and telegraph companies, a bar to the production of messages exchanged in office between himself and correspondents was sought in the District of Columbia supreme court. That case is still pending.

A matter of the return of $8,400,000 from the alien property office to a Swiss company which claimed ownership of an interest in the American Metals company, forfeited during the war, was under examination at the committee's last open session before Mr. Daugherty's withdrawal. Witnesses would be heard concerning this, it was said, before a recess of any length would be taken in the committee's proceedings.

Chairman Brookhart also gave formal notice to the senate today that he would discuss the operations of the committee on the floor tomorrow.

SCHOOL BOOKS BOUGHT Junior, Senior High and Fulton County
GAVAN'S
71 WHITEHALL ST.

Santa Fe

Xcursions

California Colorado Arizona New Mexico Rockies Grand Canyon National Park To help plan your trip ask for folders "Grand Canyon Outings, California Picture Book, Colorado Summer, Off the Beaten Path, Old Santa Fe" Fred Harvey meals low fares most everywhere

Through and connecting Pullmans to Colorado and California.

S. Larimer, Gen. Agent
Santa Fe Ry.
151 N. W. Cor.
Atlanta, Ga.
Phone Walnut 3413

Board of Education Plan For Tax Raise Protested

Atlanta could slash $300,000 or more from its teachers' pay rolls simply by bringing the size of school classes up to the standard prevailing in northern cities, which the board has cited as models in its appeals for more money, Frank Vedon, of the Taxpayers' league, told the charter revision committee of city council Wednesday, in protesting against the school board plan for increase of 20 cents on the $100 in tax rate.

The average size of classes in white grammar schools, he said, is 31 in Atlanta and 48 in St. Louis, 45 in Chicago and more than 40 in nearly all big city school systems. Schools should be placed directly under control of city council, as proposed by Councilman Edward H. Inman and Alderman R. A. Gordon, he told the committee.

F. J. Davidson, industrial manager for F. J. Coole & Sons, representing more than $1,000,000 of tax property, he said, protested against a tax increase on the ground that it would discourage the establishment of new industry in Atlanta. The Chamber of Commerce, he said, spends $30,000 a year to attract new business and industry while the school boards' agitation for higher taxes more than counteracts the chamber's efforts by frightening industry and business away.

Adoption Urged.

President John T. Hancock, W. C. Slate, D. M. Therrell and Mrs. Z. V. Peterson, members of the board of education, all urged adoption of the school board's charter revision proposal to increase the city tax rate from $1.50 to $1.70, as a permanent proposition, and to appropriate one-third of all city revenues to schools. Twenty-six per cent of all revenues is now appropriated to schools.

The charter revision committee reserved action on the board's proposal on the ground that it could not be put into effect in time to relieve the immediate needs of the schools for this year. It is to be considered with other proposals looking toward permanent solution of the school problem to be threshed out by council.

Millard and Fight.

Painleve, a strong figure in the radical line, was swept to victory in the elections for president of the chamber Wednesday. With this final proof of radical strength, the real battle in the struggle to oust Millard as president began.

Millard has now decided to fight to retain power.

DAUGHTER SEES FATHER KILLED
Continued From First Page.

reach almost to the car tracks, neither the motorman of the car nor the driver of the automobile were able to see the approach of the other, and it was not until too late to prevent the crash that Atkinson saw the machine, it is stated. He immediately applied the brakes, but was unable to stop in the short distance to the crossing.

Peavy, relatives stated, had intended to visit the Butler home for supper and his car was loaded with groceries, which were scattered along the track. Misses Vannie and Mattie Peavy had gone to the Butler home early in the afternoon, and with Mrs. Butler were awaiting the arrival of their father with the groceries to start preparations for the evening meal.

Brought To Atlanta.

Peavy was rushed to a hospital in the ambulance of Greenberg & Bond. Every effort was made to save his life, but he never recovered consciousness.

In addition to the three daughters who witnessed the tragedy, he is survived by his widow, three daughters, Miss Catherine Peavy and Mrs. Z. Vedon, both of Stone Mountain, and Mrs. Noah Pierce, of McIntosh, Ga. Three sons, Dean, Paul and John M. Peavy, all of Stone Mountain, and two brothers, Gus Peavy, of Redan, Ga., and James Peavy, Roswell, Ga., are also survivors.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Greenberg & Bond.

FOUR ARE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENTS.

Four other accidents, in which one girl was slightly injured, were reported to police Wednesday.

Miss Effie Rogers, 151 Myrtle street, narrowly escaped serious injury when her machine was struck by an automobile operated by an unidentified driver. She escaped with minor bruises and a severe shaking up. The accident occurred at Washington and Glimmer streets. Miss Rogers furnished police with the license number of the car which struck her, and asked that a case be made against the driver.

James Hardy, messenger boy, was badly bruised and scratched when he was knocked from his bicycle Wednesday night in a collision with an automobile driven by Emory Lewis, on Peachtree street near the Candler building. The injured boy requested police not to docket a case against Luthis.

In another accident Wednesday night, Sam Gaither, negro railway porter, had his leg dislocated, and was badly bruised about the head when he was knocked by an automobile at West Mitchell and Haynes streets. He was carried to Grady hospital by Officer J. W. Hollingsworth. The driver of the machine, which struck the negro, increased speed after the accident and escaped arrest. Officer Hollingsworth was aided by witnesses.

An unidentified negro was knocked down and slightly injured at Ivy and Houston streets by an automobile driven by Richard Hunter, 92 East Merritt street. Hunter stated that he offered to carry the injured negro to the hospital, but the offer was refused.

Sentenced to Chainage.

A sentence of 12 months on the chainage was meted out to Arthur Griffin, negro, by Judge John D. Hight on Wednesday. Griffin was convicted of assault and battery in connection with the auto accident in which Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Huskey, of South Peachtree street, were injured on April 20. The evidence was submitted to the judge, a jury trial being waived. The court held the negro was criminally negligent in running down Mr. and Mrs. Huskey.

Huskey drew a fine of $25 for calling Attorney W. C. Byers, representing Griffin, a liar. The fine was reduced to $10 when Huskey apologized. The epithet was applied to the attorney when he asked Huskey if the latter had not gone to police station to find out who drove the car involved in the case.

Twenty-eight drivers were fined in recorder's court Wednesday on charges of violating traffic rules, and four cases were dismissed. Sixteen were fined for speeding, nine for violating traffic ordinances and three for reckless driving, the total fines amounting to $530.

A total of 26 new cases were made during the day, 18 drivers being charged with violating traffic ordinances, 12 with speeding, five with reckless driving and one with driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Adopt "Driver's Creed."

Creed, and ask that other civic organizations take similar steps to help stamp out the evil.

The creed:

"Realizing the great loss of life, the injury to persons, the destruction of property and the annoyance and inconvenience to pedestrians caused by the improper operation of automobiles:

"Realizing that the area of the law cannot be upon every automobile driver at all times:

"Realizing that it should not be necessary to force me to obey the law:

"Realizing that the greatest and least expensive enforcement of law can be accomplished by voluntary compliance on the part of those to whom the law applies:

"Therefore, I will acquaint myself with the laws of my city, county and state pertaining to the operation of automobiles, and will obey these laws at all times and in all places.

"I will drive my car with due respect to the rights and privileges of other drivers and of pedestrians, and especially will I give pedestrians the right of way at street crossings:

"In short, I will do everything in my power to prevent automobile accidents of every kind, and while driving my car I will display to others all proper courtesy and respect."

Many Draw Fines.

The following were fined in recorder's court Wednesday:

RECKLESS DRIVING.
J. H. Sanders, 45, 130 Spring street, $25.
H. W. Parker, 30, 100 South Boulevard, $25.
Clinton Frasier, 17, 7 Grady avenue, $50.

SPEEDING.
O. Gershon, 46, 424 Atlanta avenue, $25.
E. H. Hart, 23, 431 Garden street,

Fists and Paper Wads Fly Amid 'Red' Cries in Chamber

Paris, June 4.—While communists and socialists were busy fighting a fist and paper wad battle in the French chamber amid cries from the "reds" "Long live the Soviets," President Millerand Wednesday took the first steps toward picking a successor to Raymond Poincare from the new radically controlled chamber.

Millerand summoned ex-Premier Paul Painleve, now president of the chamber, and Gaston Doumergue, president of the senate, to confer with him at the Elysee palace Thursday morning. Then, after discussing party alignments, he will probably summon Edward Herriot, leader of the radical bloc, who is expected to be the next premier.

Millerand to Fight.

Painleve, a strong figure in the radical line, was swept to victory in the elections for president of the chamber Wednesday. With this final proof of radical strength, the real battle in the struggle to oust Millerand as president began.

Millerand has now decided to fight to retain power.

Adoption Urged.

President John T. Hancock, W. C. Slate, D. M. Therrell and Mrs. Z. V. Peterson, members of the board of education, all urged adoption of the school board's charter revision proposal to increase the city tax rate from $1.50 to $1.70, as a permanent proposition, and to appropriate one-third of all city revenues to schools. Twenty-six per cent of all revenues is now appropriated to schools.

The charter revision committee reserved action on the board's proposal on the ground that it could not be put into effect in time to relieve the immediate needs of the schools for this year. It is to be considered with other proposals looking toward permanent solution of the school problem to be threshed out by council.

Millard and Fight.

Painleve, a strong figure in the radical line, was swept to victory in the elections for president of the chamber Wednesday. With this final proof of radical strength, the real battle in the struggle to oust Millerand as president began.

Millerand has now decided to fight to retain power.

DAUGHTER SEES FATHER KILLED
Continued From First Page.

reach almost to the car tracks, neither the motorman of the car nor the driver of the automobile were able to see the approach of the other, and it was not until too late to prevent the crash that Atkinson saw the machine, it is stated. He immediately applied the brakes, but was unable to stop in the short distance to the crossing.

Peavy, relatives stated, had intended to visit the Butler home for supper and his car was loaded with groceries, which were scattered along the track. Misses Vannie and Mattie Peavy had gone to the Butler home early in the afternoon, and with Mrs. Butler were awaiting the arrival of their father with the groceries to start preparations for the evening meal.

Brought To Atlanta.

Peavy was rushed to a hospital in the ambulance of Greenberg & Bond. Every effort was made to save his life, but he never recovered consciousness.

In addition to the three daughters who witnessed the tragedy, he is survived by his widow, three daughters, Miss Catherine Peavy and Mrs. Z. Vedon, both of Stone Mountain, and Mrs. Noah Pierce, of McIntosh, Ga. Three sons, Dean, Paul and John M. Peavy, all of Stone Mountain, and two brothers, Gus Peavy, of Redan, Ga., and James Peavy, Roswell, Ga., are also survivors.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Greenberg & Bond.

FOUR ARE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENTS.

Four other accidents, in which one girl was slightly injured, were reported to police Wednesday.

Miss Effie Rogers, 151 Myrtle street, narrowly escaped serious injury when her machine was struck by an automobile operated by an unidentified driver. She escaped with minor bruises and a severe shaking up. The accident occurred at Washington and Glimmer streets. Miss Rogers furnished police with the license number of the car which struck her, and asked that a case be made against the driver.

James Hardy, messenger boy, was badly bruised and scratched when he was knocked from his bicycle Wednesday night in a collision with an automobile driven by Emory Lewis, on Peachtree street near the Candler building. The injured boy requested police not to docket a case against Luthis.

In another accident Wednesday night, Sam Gaither, negro railway porter, had his leg dislocated, and was badly bruised about the head when he was knocked by an automobile at West Mitchell and Haynes streets. He was carried to Grady hospital by Officer J. W. Hollingsworth. The driver of the machine, which struck the negro, increased speed after the accident and escaped arrest. Officer Hollingsworth was aided by witnesses.

An unidentified negro was knocked down and slightly injured at Ivy and Houston streets by an automobile driven by Richard Hunter, 92 East Merritt street. Hunter stated that he offered to carry the injured negro to the hospital, but the offer was refused.

Sentenced to Chainage.

A sentence of 12 months on the chainage was meted out to Arthur Griffin, negro, by Judge John D. Hight on Wednesday. Griffin was convicted of assault and battery in connection with the auto accident in which Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Huskey, of South Peachtree street, were injured on April 20. The evidence was submitted to the judge, a jury trial being waived. The court held the negro was criminally negligent in running down Mr. and Mrs. Huskey.

Huskey drew a fine of $25 for calling Attorney W. C. Byers, representing Griffin, a liar. The fine was reduced to $10 when Huskey apologized. The epithet was applied to the attorney when he asked Huskey if the latter had not gone to police station to find out who drove the car involved in the case.

Twenty-eight drivers were fined in recorder's court Wednesday on charges of violating traffic rules, and four cases were dismissed. Sixteen were fined for speeding, nine for violating traffic ordinances and three for reckless driving, the total fines amounting to $530.

A total of 26 new cases were made during the day, 18 drivers being charged with violating traffic ordinances, 12 with speeding, five with reckless driving and one with driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Adopt "Driver's Creed."

Creed, and ask that other civic organizations take similar steps to help stamp out the evil.

The creed:

"Realizing the great loss of life, the injury to persons, the destruction of property and the annoyance and inconvenience to pedestrians caused by the improper operation of automobiles:

"Realizing that the area of the law cannot be upon every automobile driver at all times:

"Realizing that it should not be necessary to force me to obey the law:

"Realizing that the greatest and least expensive enforcement of law can be accomplished by voluntary compliance on the part of those to whom the law applies:

"Therefore, I will acquaint myself with the laws of my city, county and state pertaining to the operation of automobiles, and will obey these laws at all times and in all places.

"I will drive my car with due respect to the rights and privileges of other drivers and of pedestrians, and especially will I give pedestrians the right of way at street crossings:

"In short, I will do everything in my power to prevent automobile accidents of every kind, and while driving my car I will display to others all proper courtesy and respect."

Many Draw Fines.

The following were fined in recorder's court Wednesday:

RECKLESS DRIVING.
J. H. Sanders, 45, 130 Spring street, $25.
H. W. Parker, 30, 100 South Boulevard, $25.
Clinton Frasier, 17, 7 Grady avenue, $50.

SPEEDING.
O. Gershon, 46, 424 Atlanta avenue, $25.
E. H. Hart, 23, 431 Garden street,

Jesuits May Rebuild Seminary To Train Priests at Macon

Macon, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—St. Stanislaus college, destroyed by fire several years ago, may be rebuilt here. A letter from Rev. E. J. Bernard, former head of the college, received here today, says the Jesuits are giving the matter serious consideration.

It has developed that three sites for the new and larger college are being considered. One is in Macon, where the former college stood; another at Nashville, Tenn., and a third in North Carolina.

The Macon Chamber of Commerce and local civic clubs plan to exert their influence in having Macon again chosen as the home for the Jesuit seat of learning.

The college will be operated as a training school for priests and will bring at least 300 students.

Whether the hair is curly or straight depends on the contour of the hair: the more oval and flattened it is the more it will be curled.

"Come On In"

The Wild Waves Are Saying!

Don your bathing suit and start practicing up on your swimming strokes. And whether you use the dog fashion, overhand or Australian crawl, you'll want a good suit.

Men's Suits
all colors and combinations—
$4, $5, $6.50

Boys' Suits
all colors—ages 2 to 18—
$1.50 to $4.50

Carlton's
36 Whitehall St.

Top Notch

White Leather Dressing

Will bring out and retain the full beauty of your white shoes. Old shoes can be made to look like new. Made by Whittemore which means Superiority. For fine white kid use Shuclean. Quick White is the ideal liquid cleaner for canvas shoes. Albo White in cake form. For every shoe polish need, always specify Whittemore's, the world's premier makers for half a century.

Facts about Furnaces

You can't tell much about furnaces by looking at them. You can't tell much about them by reading a booklet or advertisement. The fact is that as far as externals are concerned, the higher priced, better grade furnaces all look pretty much alike.

You must look below the surface if you wish to own the most satisfactory heating system. You must find the furnace with which you get the three vitally important essentials which govern furnace performance—SCIENTIFIC PLANS—PERFECT INSTALLATION—LOCAL SERVICE.

When you put in a Moncrief Furnace you know that the location of the pipes, the arrangement of the registers and cold air ducts has been scientifically planned by experienced heating engineers to suit your home and to give the maximum heating efficiency. You know, too, that the furnace has been installed by men who have made furnace installation their business for twenty-five years.

On top of that you get local service. Our plant is right at your door—you deal with principals rather than agents—you get what you want when you want it. We are right here all of the time to back up our guarantee of 70 degrees in the coldest weather.

No, there is not much difference in the appearance of different furnaces, but remember there is a vast difference in Furnaces—their PLANNING—their INSTALLATION and the LOCAL SERVICE that you get with them.

If you are building you will unquestionably wish to put in a Moncrief Furnace. Before buying a home be sure that it has a Moncrief Furnace in the cellar.

Moncrief Furnace Company

ATLANTA, GA. Phone Hemlock 1293

TO-NIGHT Tomorrow Alright

KEEPING WELL—An MR Tablet (a vegetable aperient) taken at night will help keep you well, by toning and strengthening your digestion and elimination.

Get a Box

Used for over 30 Years

One-third the regular dose. Made of the same ingredients, then candy coated. For children and adults.

SOLD BY YOUR DRUGGIST

NEW CITY BUILDER DEVOTED TO STATE

The June number of The City Builder, just off the press, presents an artistic cover in four colors of a typical Georgia farm scene, showing a home of the true colonial type surrounded by orchards, growing fields and pasture lands. The issue of the magazine is devoted to the interests of the entire state.

Dr. Andrew M. Soule, president of the Georgia State College of Agriculture and Mechanics, contributes one of the leading articles on "Safeguarding the Future of Our Cities." His findings, of Atlanta, contributes an article on the recent session of the Georgia association and tells of the fine spirit in south Georgia counties at this time.

W. V. Crowley, vice president of the Citizens and Southern bank, writes about the business outlook in Georgia, expressing a hopeful spirit on the part of the farmers.

Charles B. Lewis, president of the Fourth National bank, of Macon, contributes an article in which he concurs with Mr. Crowley in the business conditions in the state.

"Henry W. Grady—Master Builder" is the leading article of the current issue. Walter G. Cooper, an intimate friend of the late great Atlantaan, writes this article which reflects the varied life of Grady in many interesting incidents. Platt Young contributes a poem, "What Shall the Measure of Our Service Be?" Alfred C. Newell and Armand May give glowing accounts of the recent session of the United States Chamber of Commerce at Cleveland.

View of an Editor.
Douglas Freeman, editor of The Richmond News Leader, gives his impressions of Atlanta. Mr. Freeman was here recently for an address. "Sidney Lanier" is the engaging title of a readable article by Philip Aiston, local attorney. Marion Jackson discusses the question of education for the growing city of Atlanta.

Mayor Walter A. Sims writes about the relation of city and country in a brief, but effective article. Dr. Carter Helm Jones, pastor of the Second Baptist church, contributes the address which he recently delivered at the opening of the Atlanta Biltmore. He calls the article "In and Out."

Rabbi David Marx contributes a thoughtful article on "The Best Gift." Other articles in the issue are by R. S. Barker, D. Leon Williams, Ernest Rogers, Athle Roberts, Mrs. Wilber Colvin, Fred Houser, R. M. Cobb, Jr., George Diehter.

The issue is well illustrated with engravings of interest to its wide range of readers.

Waycross Man Wins.
Waycross, Ga., June 4.—(Special.) F. L. Hall, Waycross manager for the Western Union Telegraph company, has been awarded a watch job by the company as a reward for winning a recent business contest.

KEEP YOUR DOG WELL

Sergeant's Condition Pills are a splendid tonic for weak, listless, ailing dogs and puppies. Give them occasionally as they keep your dog well and happy with eyes bright, coat glossy, spirits high and scent keen.

60c at drug, sports and seed stores, pet shops or by mail. Sergeant's Dog Medicines have been the standard for 50 years—safe and effective medicines for all dog ailments.

Free Dog Book Polk Miller's famous Dog Book on Diseases of Dogs with Symptom Chart and Instructions on care, feeding and breeding also Senator Vest's celebrated "Tribute to a Dog." Write for a copy.

Our FREE ADVICE Dog's answers any question about your dog's health free. State symptoms, age and breed in writing.

Polk Miller Drug Co., Inc. 1320 E. Main St., Richmond, Va.

Sergeant's DOG MEDICINES

Pulse of New York Mounts As Convention Fever Rages

BY RODNEY F. DUTCHER.
New York, June 4.—It may be assumed that within a few weeks the democrats will have adopted a slogan that will ring with patriotic fervor and be designed to influence a few million votes, but the democratic slogan just now, based on plans for the coming convention, is "Ain't we got fun!"

Madison Square Garden may be as hot as a telephone booth and delegates may have to work long past midnight in getting a ticket and a platform into shape, but there are going to be compensations.

The delegations are expected to begin arriving as early as Saturday, June 21, and from that time on much more time will be spent in entertaining them than the delegates themselves are likely to put in at the convention hall.

No Lagging Hours.
Aside from numerous set events, as announced by the arrangements committee Wednesday, the state committees of native sons appointed to take care of the various delegations will be expected to fill in every spare moment that a delegate may find on his hands. Some of these committees have assigned a member to each delegate, who will act as a guide and host—not to say as a valet.

The first event on the calendar is a garden party on June 21 to be given by Elizabeth Marbury, New York member of the national committee. Sunday there will be special services in many churches, with prayers for the strangers, and later the sweet young things at the New York Newspaper Women's club will entertain the sweet young things representing newspapers out of town.

Hylan to Dine Them.

Monday, June 23, will be mayor's day, in honor of Mayor John F. Hylan, better known as Hizzoner. At about 7 o'clock that night, following an afternoon parade, Hizzoner will give a dinner for convention officials, national committeemen and committeewomen, and delegates and alternates, and Mrs. Hylan will give another to wives and daughters of national committeemen. In the afternoon there will be a special matinee at a leading theater.

The next day the convention opens, and there will be trips through the Metropolitan museum, a buffet supper for all New Yorkers attending the convention, and a grand gala reception at the Hotel Commodore at night. Following a breakfast of the New York Women's Democratic club on Wednesday morning, the 25th, there will be a visit to Samuel Untermyer's estate north of Yonkers and an evening reception at the Ritz-Carlton with Mrs. William Randolph Hearst as hostess.

Subsequent events include:

Many Sights to See.

Thursday, June 26.—Reception and tea at Brooklyn museum.

Friday, June 27.—Gala program for young people accompanying delegations at the Capitol theater and a garden fete in Washington square.

Saturday, June 28.—A breakfast for women officially attached, or attached through marriage, to the convention.

Sunday, June 29.—Trip to West Point for all delegations and the entertainment committees. Cadets will parade for the visitors.

Sandwiched in between these pieces of the program, the entertainment promises motor trips to the hot dog kennels at Coney Island, the one-piece bathing suit ranch at Long Beach, the races, the ball games and other places of interest. Meanwhile all kinds of special affairs will be arranged by the state entertainment committees for the delegates under their respective wings.

After it's all over, the entertainment committee guarantees to put each delegate on the right train for home.

PROHIBITION VIOLATIONS ON DECREASE IN 1924

Violations of the prohibition law in Georgia have decreased at least 50 per cent this year, as against violations in 1923, according to disclosures in the monthly report of the federal prohibition department for Georgia, released Wednesday by Fred D. Dismuke, in charge of the department.

"The whisky situation in Georgia," Mr. Dismuke stated, "has improved so that our force of agents has been decreased from the number required last year. Fewer stills are found, and there is little flagrant violation of the law."

The report shows that during the month of May there were 354 illicit stills seized and destroyed; 1,143 gallons of whisky, 135,480 gallons of beer, 1,484 fermenters, $3,823.35 worth of property seized and destroyed, and 125 persons reported and recommended for prosecution. The number of persons arrested for violation of prohibition laws totaled 89 and 70 convictions were secured in courts, according to the report.

Heavy fines imposed by the courts is having a tendency to stop the liquor traffic in Georgia, Mr. Dismuke stated.

MRS. A. T. FOWLER ATLANTA WOMAN DIES IN ASHEVILLE

Mrs. A. T. Fowler, former Atlantan, died late Tuesday at Asheville, N. C., according to word received here. Mrs. Fowler, who was wife of A. T. Fowler, sales manager of the Hollingshead company, of Atlanta, moved from this city when stricken by illness about a year ago, going to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Owens, at Newnan, Ga., and later being taken to Asheville.

In addition to her husband and parents, she is survived by a son, Arthur T. Fowler, Jr., three sisters and a brother.

Funeral and interment will be in Newnan.

ANNUAL "SWIM" FOR SMALL BOYS OPENS AT Y.M.C.A.

The annual free "swim" for grammar school boys more than 11 years old will open Monday in the central Y. M. C. A. swimming pool, it was announced Wednesday.

The only requirements for those wishing to take the course are the filling out of application blanks, which are to be presented to the boys' division of the Y. M. C. A., on Luckie street, before Friday night, and the securing of their parents' permission. No fees will be charged for lessons but boys taking the course will be required to furnish towels and soap.

TWO IMPORTANT PAVING CONTRACTS AWARDED BY CITY

Two important paving contracts were awarded for city streets to local contractors by Fulton county commissioners at their monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon.

The Sam E. Finley Construction company was awarded the contract to pave Angier avenue from Pine street to North Boulevard, its bid of $1,161 a square yard for asphalt over granite blocks being the lowest posted.

The MacDougall Construction company was given the contract of paving with willite Tabernacle place from Luckie to Marietta streets, on its bid of $1.25 a square yard. Paving on both jobs is to be rushed to early completion.

SAVANNAH REALTORS ATTEND NATIONAL MEET

Washington, June 4.—(Special.)—The Savannah delegation to the national real estate convention here has headquarters at the Hotel Raleigh. They called on Senator W. J. Harris today, who presented them to other members of the delegation. Among the Savannah realtors are A. S. Harris, G. A. Mercer, Walter Mercer, W. H. Stillwell, Carl Mendel, C. P. Fulton, L. M. White, C. P. Rowland, W. R. Morrison and R. L. Cooper.

POPLAR SPRINGS CLUB TO MEET MONDAY

Future possibilities of the Poplar Springs Civic Improvement club were outlined in a talk by E. J. Conover at a meeting of the club Monday evening. Twenty-five new members were introduced to the club at the meeting and readings were given by Mrs. Alton Flooding and Miss Joe Beth Apperson.

Sunday Fares
Via Seaboard
$2.65—Athens

PROMINENT NEGRO DIES IN VALDOSTA

Rev. Allen Cooper, presiding elder of the Valdosta district A. M. E.

church, died Tuesday night. He was 68 years old and had served 12 years as a preacher and adviser of the conservative element of his race in Georgia. He was chairman of the Georgia delegation to the general conference just closed at Louisville, Ky. He advocated in the last general conference the promotion of Dr. J. A. Lindsey, of Savannah, and Dr. J. T. Hall, of Big Bethel, Atlanta. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Life Insurers Meet.
A report by the committee in charge of the advertising campaign, and consideration of the subject "Life Insurance and Trust Companies' Joint Service" will be the outstanding features at a meeting at 1 o'clock today at the Ansley hotel of Atlanta Life Insurance association.

Robert G. Stephens, of the Trust Company of Georgia, will be the principal speaker.

Choose from our whole store now in our great Half-million-dollar removal sale Selling out such a store full of merchandise as this, isn't as simple as it sounds. The big problem is taking care of the customers.

That's why we started on the suits. Selling has been the greatest Atlanta has ever known, and we aren't half finished yet—there are still hundreds and hundreds of fine

3-piece suits from Hart Schaffner & Marx and other fine makers HALF-PRICE

1/3 off and 1/4 off

Then there are hats, shoes and men's furnishings—all marked down to give you the values---when you want them. You'll be getting ready for your vacation soon and we can save you a lot of money on your shirts, ties, sox, underwear, collars. Here are a few of the many values offered:

One lot $1.50 ties
now 75c
1/2 off

One lot 50c leather belts now 25c
1/2 off

Van Heusen semi-soft collars - - - 45c ea. 3 for $1.25
Earl & Wilson semi-soft collars - - 20c ea. $2.25-dozen Entire stock of straw hats 1/4 off

Daniel Bros. Company
45-49 Peachtree

Where 7% is
The Normal Rate

If you buy investments that pay more than the normal rate of interest you are likely to lose money. Miller First Mortgage Bonds pay up to 7%, which is the average, legal and normal rate in the South.

Write, telephone or call at our office for booklet

"Why the South Offers Investment Opportunities"

G. L. MILLER & CO.

1108 HURT BUILDING,
ATLANTA, GA.
Phone WALnut 3906
New York Philadelphia Pittsburgh St. Louis
Buffalo Memphis Knoxville

No Investor Ever Lost a Dollar in Miller Bonds

L&N OFFICIAL ROUTE
—TO—
KENTUCKY'S HOME COMING
JUNE 16-29

$24.42 ROUND TRIP ATLANTA TO LOUISVILLE
TICKETS ON SALE, JUNE 14, 15, 16 and 18
Liberal Return Limit. Stop Over All Points in Kentucky. Side Trip Tickets to All Points in Kentucky and to Cincinnati, Ohio, on Sale at Louisville June 19, 21 and 22 at Reduced Rates.

Double Daily Train Service
Lv. ATLANTA (UNION STATION) 7:25 A. M. 4:25 P. M.
Ar. LOUISVILLE (UNION STATION) 9:28 A. M. 7:35 A. M.

UNEXCELLED DINING CAR SERVICE

For Further Information and Sleeper Reservations Call
F. T. ALEXANDER, D. P. A. CITY TICKET OFFICE
161 Marietta Street 48 N. Broad Street
Phone WALnut 1460 Phone WALnut 2755

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD

BOBBY JONES

Eastern Golfers Winners Over Western Opponents In Team Play on Wednesday

Oakland Hills Country Club, Detroit, Mich., June 4.—(Special.)—Bobby Jones, of Atlanta, will step out here tomorrow to defend his title of national open golf champion against a strong field in the 1924 classic of the course and with memory of a remarkable victory of eastern players over westerners fresh in the minds of contenders today.

The national open tournament will start at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and will be completed Friday afternoon. While others turned in lower cards in the annual east-west preliminary today, Bobby tonight is the favorite to capture the 1924 crown and take his place with the two other titleholders who have accomplished retention of the championship for two consecutive years.

Today's contest produced the outstanding scoring feat of the week when Wilfred Cox, a husky young professional from Chicago, covered the 6,884-yard layout in 69, three better than par. Out in 36, Cox returned in 33.

Has Big Part in Win. Teaming it with Pat Doyle, the Brooklyn pitcher had a prominent part in the eastern victory. They were opposed to Laurie Atkey and Dewey Webber, Chicagoans, in the final foursome, and Cox's speedy service coming home enabled his side to win the point on which the outcome of the team match hinged.

When the golfers from the Atlantic seaboard grabbed one of the first three foursomes, it looked like a walkover for the east. Eddie Loos and George Kerrigan, in the fourth squad to finish, tightened the match by winning all three points from their eastern rivals, Joe Kirkwood and Joe Tenness. That tied the totals at six points each, but the west fell one point behind again when Pat O'Hara and Dave Spittall, the latter of Savannah, won from Dave Robertson and Wilfred Reid, Detroiters, two points to one. That is the way it stood when Cox and Doyle came breezing down the stretch. The latter picked up a point on the second nine after dropping one on the first and gained enough of a margin on the second half to win the deciding point of the match.

Conditions Ideal. A warm day, with conditions ideal for golfing, brought five others had cards under 75. Eddie Loos, of Chicago, scored 72, one under Leo Diegel, the Detroit home bred, while Johnny Farrell, of Detroit, and Laurie Atkey and Dave Robertson had 74. Bobby Jones, Mike Brady, MacDonald Smith, Dave Spittall and Dewey were 75 men.

Fairways seemed to have become faster overnight and long hitting from the tee featured Wednesday's play. This and the fact that totals under 75 have become more frequent caused many to scoff at the idea that even 290 will be good enough to win the championship. They say that the players had been shooting under 290 under conditions previous to Wednesday and that from now on the scoring will be much lower.

The foursome comprised entirely of amateurs drew the biggest gallery.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

Hotel Dennis
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.
This hotel has been completely renovated and is now the most comfortable and most modern hotel in Atlantic City. It is situated on the beach and is within walking distance of the Casino and the Hotel du Cap. The hotel has 100 rooms, all of which are newly furnished and equipped with the latest in hotel comforts. The hotel has a large dining room, a bar, and a lounge. The hotel is managed by the Dennis family, who have been in the hotel business for over 50 years.

CROCKETT ARSENIC LITHIA SPRINGS AND BATHS
Elevation 1,150 Feet.—Opens June 1st. A Remedy for Nervous Prostration, Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, and all the ailments of the urinary system. The water is pure and healthful. The grounds are beautiful and the climate is ideal. The hotel is comfortable and well equipped. The price is reasonable. Write for literature.

TRAVEL INFORMATION
All steamship lines to Europe, South America, Orient, Hawaii, Alaska, Panama, Alaska, Hawaii, Great Lakes, etc.

TRIPS TO TOURS—CRUISES
JNO. M. BORN 1108 Candler Bldg.

AUSTRALIA
HONOLULU, NEW ZEALAND
The Well Equipped Royal Mail Steamers MAURUA (13,000 tons), July 8, Aug. 27, and MAURUA (13,000 tons), July 8, Aug. 27. For fares, etc., apply to J. M. B. C. For full details, apply to J. M. B. C.

17-DAY ALL-EXPENSE CRUISE to Cuba and Panama. Sailing from New Orleans every Saturday.
Fare $250.00 and up.
JNO. M. BORN 1108 Candler Bldg.

HOLLAND
AMERICA LINE
ENGLAND FRANCE CONTINENT
New York to Rotterdam
Via Plymouth, England—Sailing June 23, VEENDAM (new), June 27, July 19, Aug. 30, NEW AMSTERDAM (new), June 27, July 19, Aug. 30, ROTTERDAM (new), July 19, Aug. 30, Sept. 10, 21, 31, Oct. 11, 21, 31, Nov. 11, 21, 31, Dec. 11, 21, 31.

Europe
Complete Service for Transatlantic Travel
ENGLAND BELGIUM FRANCE ITALY MEDITERRANEAN PORTS
112 ships—over 1,000,000 tons
In this vast fleet of ships, the NAJISTIC, the world's largest ship, the famous OLYMPIC, the HOMERIC, the BELGIQUE, the MINNETONKA, and MINNEAPOLIS, and many others; all large modern ships, equipped with the latest in ship comforts and conveniences. Rates $115 up. Luxury, Comfort, and Fine Cuisine. Accommodations for Every Need and Purpose. For Sailings, Rates, etc., apply to J. M. B. C.

White Star Line
AMERICA LINE
ATLANTIC TRANSPORT—WHITE STAR DOMINION
INTERNATIONAL PASSENGER MARINE COMPANY
John Martin, Mgr.
Hass-Howell Bldg. 2nd Floor, 100 N. W. Cor. of Atlanta, Ga. Local Agents.

Rich Richard Says:
"IT'S OFTEN well to turn over a new leaf. Especially when you turn to the profitable offers made among the columns and columns of ads in The Constitution's Classified Section."

Read them today!
Mrs. Frank O. Foster
Agent for steamship lines to all parts of the world.
88 St. Louis Place, NEA 0880-W

Bobby Jones was the chief magnet with huge Jess Guilford as his partner. They were opposed by Chick Evans and Arthur Sweet, Jones was brilliant at times and this off-set the champion's ordinary play at other times, enabling him to get his 75. The other trio had approximate 78s.

League Leaders

| NATIONAL LEAGUE | | | |
|-----------------|----|----|------|
| Club | W. | L. | Pct. |
| St. Louis | 34 | 10 | .771 |
| Chicago | 33 | 11 | .750 |
| Brooklyn | 32 | 12 | .727 |
| Pittsburgh | 31 | 13 | .706 |
| Cincinnati | 30 | 14 | .682 |
| Philadelphia | 29 | 15 | .659 |
| Cleveland | 28 | 16 | .636 |
| San Francisco | 27 | 17 | .613 |
| Washington | 26 | 18 | .591 |
| St. Paul | 25 | 19 | .568 |
| Indianapolis | 24 | 20 | .545 |
| Chicago | 23 | 21 | .522 |
| Philadelphia | 22 | 22 | .500 |
| Cleveland | 21 | 23 | .477 |
| San Francisco | 20 | 24 | .455 |
| Washington | 19 | 25 | .432 |
| St. Paul | 18 | 26 | .409 |
| Indianapolis | 17 | 27 | .386 |
| Chicago | 16 | 28 | .364 |
| Philadelphia | 15 | 29 | .341 |
| Cleveland | 14 | 30 | .318 |
| San Francisco | 13 | 31 | .295 |
| Washington | 12 | 32 | .273 |
| St. Paul | 11 | 33 | .250 |
| Indianapolis | 10 | 34 | .227 |
| Chicago | 9 | 35 | .205 |
| Philadelphia | 8 | 36 | .182 |
| Cleveland | 7 | 37 | .159 |
| San Francisco | 6 | 38 | .136 |
| Washington | 5 | 39 | .113 |
| St. Paul | 4 | 40 | .091 |
| Indianapolis | 3 | 41 | .068 |
| Chicago | 2 | 42 | .045 |
| Philadelphia | 1 | 43 | .023 |
| Cleveland | 0 | 44 | .000 |

| SALLY LEAGUE | | | |
|---------------|----|----|------|
| Club | W. | L. | Pct. |
| St. Louis | 34 | 10 | .771 |
| Chicago | 33 | 11 | .750 |
| Brooklyn | 32 | 12 | .727 |
| Pittsburgh | 31 | 13 | .706 |
| Cincinnati | 30 | 14 | .682 |
| Philadelphia | 29 | 15 | .659 |
| Cleveland | 28 | 16 | .636 |
| San Francisco | 27 | 17 | .613 |
| Washington | 26 | 18 | .591 |
| St. Paul | 25 | 19 | .568 |
| Indianapolis | 24 | 20 | .545 |
| Chicago | 23 | 21 | .522 |
| Philadelphia | 22 | 22 | .500 |
| Cleveland | 21 | 23 | .477 |
| San Francisco | 20 | 24 | .455 |
| Washington | 19 | 25 | .432 |
| St. Paul | 18 | 26 | .409 |
| Indianapolis | 17 | 27 | .386 |
| Chicago | 16 | 28 | .364 |
| Philadelphia | 15 | 29 | .341 |
| Cleveland | 14 | 30 | .318 |
| San Francisco | 13 | 31 | .295 |
| Washington | 12 | 32 | .273 |
| St. Paul | 11 | 33 | .250 |
| Indianapolis | 10 | 34 | .227 |
| Chicago | 9 | 35 | .205 |
| Philadelphia | 8 | 36 | .182 |
| Cleveland | 7 | 37 | .159 |
| San Francisco | 6 | 38 | .136 |
| Washington | 5 | 39 | .113 |
| St. Paul | 4 | 40 | .091 |
| Indianapolis | 3 | 41 | .068 |
| Chicago | 2 | 42 | .045 |
| Philadelphia | 1 | 43 | .023 |
| Cleveland | 0 | 44 | .000 |

| SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION | | | |
|----------------------|----|----|------|
| Club | W. | L. | Pct. |
| St. Louis | 34 | 10 | .771 |
| Chicago | 33 | 11 | .750 |
| Brooklyn | 32 | 12 | .727 |
| Pittsburgh | 31 | 13 | .706 |
| Cincinnati | 30 | 14 | .682 |
| Philadelphia | 29 | 15 | .659 |
| Cleveland | 28 | 16 | .636 |
| San Francisco | 27 | 17 | .613 |
| Washington | 26 | 18 | .591 |
| St. Paul | 25 | 19 | .568 |
| Indianapolis | 24 | 20 | .545 |
| Chicago | 23 | 21 | .522 |
| Philadelphia | 22 | 22 | .500 |
| Cleveland | 21 | 23 | .477 |
| San Francisco | 20 | 24 | .455 |
| Washington | 19 | 25 | .432 |
| St. Paul | 18 | 26 | .409 |
| Indianapolis | 17 | 27 | .386 |
| Chicago | 16 | 28 | .364 |
| Philadelphia | 15 | 29 | .341 |
| Cleveland | 14 | 30 | .318 |
| San Francisco | 13 | 31 | .295 |
| Washington | 12 | 32 | .273 |
| St. Paul | 11 | 33 | .250 |
| Indianapolis | 10 | 34 | .227 |
| Chicago | 9 | 35 | .205 |
| Philadelphia | 8 | 36 | .182 |
| Cleveland | 7 | 37 | .159 |
| San Francisco | 6 | 38 | .136 |
| Washington | 5 | 39 | .113 |
| St. Paul | 4 | 40 | .091 |
| Indianapolis | 3 | 41 | .068 |
| Chicago | 2 | 42 | .045 |
| Philadelphia | 1 | 43 | .023 |
| Cleveland | 0 | 44 | .000 |

| TEXAS LEAGUE | | | |
|---------------|----|----|------|
| Club | W. | L. | Pct. |
| St. Louis | 34 | 10 | .771 |
| Chicago | 33 | 11 | .750 |
| Brooklyn | 32 | 12 | .727 |
| Pittsburgh | 31 | 13 | .706 |
| Cincinnati | 30 | 14 | .682 |
| Philadelphia | 29 | 15 | .659 |
| Cleveland | 28 | 16 | .636 |
| San Francisco | 27 | 17 | .613 |
| Washington | 26 | 18 | .591 |
| St. Paul | 25 | 19 | .568 |
| Indianapolis | 24 | 20 | .545 |
| Chicago | 23 | 21 | .522 |
| Philadelphia | 22 | 22 | .500 |
| Cleveland | 21 | 23 | .477 |
| San Francisco | 20 | 24 | .455 |
| Washington | 19 | 25 | .432 |
| St. Paul | 18 | 26 | .409 |
| Indianapolis | 17 | 27 | .386 |
| Chicago | 16 | 28 | .364 |
| Philadelphia | 15 | 29 | .341 |
| Cleveland | 14 | 30 | .318 |
| San Francisco | 13 | 31 | .295 |
| Washington | 12 | 32 | .273 |
| St. Paul | 11 | 33 | .250 |
| Indianapolis | 10 | 34 | .227 |
| Chicago | 9 | 35 | .205 |
| Philadelphia | 8 | 36 | .182 |
| Cleveland | 7 | 37 | .159 |
| San Francisco | 6 | 38 | .136 |
| Washington | 5 | 39 | .113 |
| St. Paul | 4 | 40 | .091 |
| Indianapolis | 3 | 41 | .068 |
| Chicago | 2 | 42 | .045 |
| Philadelphia | 1 | 43 | .023 |
| Cleveland | 0 | 44 | .000 |

Humphreys Sent To Sally League

Memphis, Tenn., June 4.—Mark Humphreys, Olethorpe university pitcher recently signed by the Memphis Southern association club, has been released conditionally to the Spartanburg club of the South Atlantic association, it was announced today.

May Postpone Fight Once More

New York, June 4.—The Harry Wills-Bartley Madden heavyweight encounter, blocked for a variety of reasons here and in Newark since last February, may not be held, its manager, next Monday night at the Queensboro stadium, despite the 30-day permit granted the arena by the board of standards and appeals in reversing the fire department's condemnation order. George E. Brover, chairman of the state athletic commission, said today no license would be granted until the fire department endorsed the arena permit.

Members of the board of standards and appeals, however, insisted such endorsement was not necessary and pointed out that the delay evidently was caused by failure of the boxing solons to get a copy of the resolution approving the arena. This, they said, would not be in the hands of the commission until next Tuesday, so that another postponement of the bout seems inevitable.

NEW YORK HOTELS
The Ambassador Hotel
"New York's Smartest Hotel"
"Where Dining is an Art"
Catering to the needs of the world's affairs—where that atmosphere has been refined, refined and refined in the prevailing note of French cuisine.
The Ambassador Hotel System
The Ambassador, New York
The Ambassador, Atlantic City
The Ambassador, Los Angeles
The Ambassador, San Francisco

Rich Richard Says:
"IT'S OFTEN well to turn over a new leaf. Especially when you turn to the profitable offers made among the columns and columns of ads in The Constitution's Classified Section."

Read them today!
Mrs. Frank O. Foster
Agent for steamship lines to all parts of the world.
88 St. Louis Place, NEA 0880-W

Europe
Complete Service for Transatlantic Travel
ENGLAND BELGIUM FRANCE ITALY MEDITERRANEAN PORTS
112 ships—over 1,000,000 tons
In this vast fleet of ships, the NAJISTIC, the world's largest ship, the famous OLYMPIC, the HOMERIC, the BELGIQUE, the MINNETONKA, and MINNEAPOLIS, and many others; all large modern ships, equipped with the latest in ship comforts and conveniences. Rates $115 up. Luxury, Comfort, and Fine Cuisine. Accommodations for Every Need and Purpose. For Sailings, Rates, etc., apply to J. M. B. C.

White Star Line
AMERICA LINE
ATLANTIC TRANSPORT—WHITE STAR DOMINION
INTERNATIONAL PASSENGER MARINE COMPANY
John Martin, Mgr.
Hass-Howell Bldg. 2nd Floor, 100 N. W. Cor. of Atlanta, Ga. Local Agents.

Rich Richard Says:
"IT'S OFTEN well to turn over a new leaf. Especially when you turn to the profitable offers made among the columns and columns of ads in The Constitution's Classified Section."

Read them today!
Mrs. Frank O. Foster
Agent for steamship lines to all parts of the world.
88 St. Louis Place, NEA 0880-W

Europe
Complete Service for Transatlantic Travel
ENGLAND BELGIUM FRANCE ITALY MEDITERRANEAN PORTS
112 ships—over 1,000,000 tons
In this vast fleet of ships, the NAJISTIC, the world's largest ship, the famous OLYMPIC, the HOMERIC, the BELGIQUE, the MINNETONKA, and MINNEAPOLIS, and many others; all large modern ships, equipped with the latest in ship comforts and conveniences. Rates $115 up. Luxury, Comfort, and Fine Cuisine. Accommodations for Every Need and Purpose. For Sailings, Rates, etc., apply to J. M. B. C.

White Star Line
AMERICA LINE
ATLANTIC TRANSPORT—WHITE STAR DOMINION
INTERNATIONAL PASSENGER MARINE COMPANY
John Martin, Mgr.
Hass-Howell Bldg. 2nd Floor, 100 N. W. Cor. of Atlanta, Ga. Local Agents.

Rich Richard Says:
"IT'S OFTEN well to turn over a new leaf. Especially when you turn to the profitable offers made among the columns and columns of ads in The Constitution's Classified Section."

Statistics

STANDING OF CLUBS.
SOUTHERN LEAGUE.
Club W. L. Pct.
St. Louis 34 10 .771
Chicago 33 11 .750
Brooklyn 32 12 .727
Pittsburgh 31 13 .706
Cincinnati 30 14 .682
Philadelphia 29 15 .659
Cleveland 28 16 .636
San Francisco 27 17 .613
Washington 26 18 .591
St. Paul 25 19 .568
Indianapolis 24 20 .545
Chicago 23 21 .522
Philadelphia 22 22 .500
Cleveland 21 23 .477
San Francisco 20 24 .455
Washington 19 25 .432
St. Paul 18 26 .409
Indianapolis 17 27 .386
Chicago 16 28 .364
Philadelphia 15 29 .341
Cleveland 14 30 .318
San Francisco 13 31 .295
Washington 12 32 .273
St. Paul 11 33 .250
Indianapolis 10 34 .227
Chicago 9 35 .205
Philadelphia 8 36 .182
Cleveland 7 37 .159
San Francisco 6 38 .136
Washington 5 39 .113
St. Paul 4 40 .091
Indianapolis 3 41 .068
Chicago 2 42 .045
Philadelphia 1 43 .023
Cleveland 0 44 .000

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Club W. L. Pct.
St. Louis 34 10 .771
Chicago 33 11 .750
Brooklyn 32 12 .727
Pittsburgh 31 13 .706
Cincinnati 30 14 .682
Philadelphia 29 15 .659
Cleveland 28 16 .636
San Francisco 27 17 .613
Washington 26 18 .591
St. Paul 25 19 .568
Indianapolis 24 20 .545
Chicago 23 21 .522
Philadelphia 22 22 .500
Cleveland 21 23 .477
San Francisco 20 24 .455
Washington 19 25 .432
St. Paul 18 26 .409
Indianapolis 17 27 .386
Chicago 16 28 .364
Philadelphia 15 29 .341
Cleveland 14 30 .318
San Francisco 13 31 .295
Washington 12 32 .273
St. Paul 11 33 .250
Indianapolis 10 34 .227
Chicago 9 35 .205
Philadelphia 8 36 .182
Cleveland 7 37 .159
San Francisco 6 38 .136
Washington 5 39 .113
St. Paul 4 40 .091
Indianapolis 3 41 .068
Chicago 2 42 .045
Philadelphia 1 43 .023
Cleveland 0 44 .000

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Club W. L. Pct.
St. Louis 34 10 .771
Chicago 33 11 .750
Brooklyn 32 12 .727
Pittsburgh 31 13 .706
Cincinnati 30 14 .682
Philadelphia 29 15 .659
Cleveland 28 16 .636
San Francisco 27 17 .613
Washington 26 18 .591
St. Paul 25 19 .568
Indianapolis 24 20 .545
Chicago 23 21 .522
Philadelphia 22 22 .500
Cleveland 21 23 .477
San Francisco 20 24 .455
Washington 19 25 .432
St. Paul 18 26 .409
Indianapolis 17 27 .386
Chicago 16 28 .364
Philadelphia 15 29 .341
Cleveland 14 30 .318
San Francisco 13 31 .295
Washington 12 32 .273
St. Paul 11 33 .250
Indianapolis 10 34 .227
Chicago 9 35 .205
Philadelphia 8 36 .182
Cleveland 7 37 .159
San Francisco 6 38 .136
Washington 5 39 .113
St. Paul 4 40 .091
Indianapolis 3 41 .068
Chicago 2 42 .045
Philadelphia 1 43 .023
Cleveland 0 44 .000

SALLY LEAGUE.
Club W. L. Pct.
St. Louis 34 10 .771
Chicago 33 11 .750
Brooklyn 32 12 .727
Pittsburgh 31 13 .706
Cincinnati 30 14 .682
Philadelphia 29 15 .659
Cleveland 28 16 .636
San Francisco 27 17 .613
Washington 26 18 .591
St. Paul 25 19 .568
Indianapolis 24 20 .545
Chicago 23 21 .522
Philadelphia 22 22 .500
Cleveland 21 23 .477
San Francisco 20 24 .455
Washington 19 25 .432
St. Paul 18 26 .409
Indianapolis 17 27 .386
Chicago 16 28 .364
Philadelphia 15 29 .341
Cleveland 14 30 .318
San Francisco 13 31 .295
Washington 12 32 .273
St. Paul 11 33 .250
Indianapolis 10 34 .227
Chicago 9 35 .205
Philadelphia 8 36 .182
Cleveland 7 37 .159
San Francisco 6 38 .136
Washington 5 39 .113
St. Paul 4 40 .091
Indianapolis 3 41 .068
Chicago 2 42 .045
Philadelphia 1 43 .023
Cleveland 0 44 .000

TODAY'S GAMES.
SOUTHERN LEAGUE.
St. Louis at Atlanta.
Atlanta at Mobile.
Atlanta at Birmingham.
Atlanta at New Orleans.
AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Boston at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Cleveland.
Washington at Detroit.
New York at Milwaukee.
NATIONAL LEAGUE.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.
Cincinnati at Boston.
Chicago at New York.
Pittsburgh at Brooklyn.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.
Toronto at Buffalo.
Rochester at Syracuse.
Reading at Baltimore.
Jersey City at Newark.
TEXAS LEAGUE.
Houston at Dallas.
Beaumont at Shreveport.
San Antonio at Port Worth.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.
SOUTHERN LEAGUE.
Atlanta, 3; Memphis, 4 (12 innings).
Little Rock, 3-16; Birmingham, 4-7.
Chattanooga, 1; New Orleans, 4-7.
AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Boston, 6; St. Louis, 5.
Philadelphia, 6; Cleveland, 4.
Washington, 6; Detroit, 6.
New York, 3; Chicago, 6.
NATIONAL LEAGUE.
St. Louis, 12; Philadelphia, 5.
Other games postponed, rain.

SOUTH ATLANTIC LEAGUE.
Greenville, 7; Charlotte, 8-5.
Spartanburg, 2; Charleston, 2-7 (first game 10 innings).
Aiken, 12-1; Macon, 4-5 (second game seven innings).

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
Louisville, 6; Columbus, 6.
St. Paul, 17; Toledo, 2.
Minneapolis, 3; Kansas City, 2.
FLORIDA STATE LEAGUE.
Tampa, 3; Lakeland, 1.
Tallahassee, 12; Pensacola, 1-2.
St. Petersburg, 5; Daytona, 8.

AMUSEMENTS

Lyric Theater—All week (Stock)—The Lyric Players in "Ladies' Night." Comedy.

Atlanta Theater—All week (Stock)—The Lyric Players, featuring John B. Little, in "Anna Christie." Drama.

Fourth—All week (Stock)—Jimmy Hodges & Co. in "My Havana Girl." Musical comedy.

Loew's Grand—Loew's vaudeville and feature pictures—See advertisement for program.

Howard Theater—(Feature pictures)—Agnes Ayres in "Bluff." The Paramount Quartet are featured in the prologue.

Metropolitan Theater—(Feature pictures)—The Great White Way, with Anita Stewart.

Rialto Theater—(Feature pictures)—Mac Murray in "Midnight." Comedy.

Alamo No. 2—(Picture)—Alice Calhoun in "The Man Next Door."

Tudor Theater—(Picture)—Lionel Barrymore in "The Unhappily Ever After."

Alpha Theater—(Picture and serial)—"Romance Land" with Tom Mix.

Read the Atlanta Constitution's amusement pages on Sunday and know what's what in the world of amusements.

"Ladies' Night."

(At the Lyric.)

People who like to laugh may revel in the undoubted comedy the Lyric players are offering all this week in "Ladies' Night," advertised as the laughing hit of the year. Seven pretty Atlanta girls figure prominently.

It is to be seen each night this week and at matinees today and Saturday.

A real sensation is to be sprung next week when "The Bat," by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Hopwood, is to be presented.

"Anna Christie."

(At the Atlanta.)

John Little, leading man of the Baldwin Players, at the Atlanta theater, is proving his versatility this week in "Anna Christie," the Eugene O'Neill drama which is attracting so much attention. Mr. Little is in a Irish character and portrays the role with convincing ease.

Clayton Hurlbut, in the name role, also is adding to her stage honors in the offering and has been commented on most favorably by the public and the press.

Hodges' Musical Comedy.

(At the Forsyth.)

Four musical comedies have been presented in Atlanta whose scores of acts have been as elaborately devised and as carefully worked out as those which form a big feature of the presentation of "My Havana Girl" being offered by Jimmie Hodges and his company.

"Anna Christie."

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

Box Office Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

Phone WA 0595

"LOVE YOU"

COMEDY HIT

THEATRE

Mat. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.—2:30

P. M. Nights—8:30 P. M.

JOHN B. LITTLE

AND THE

BALDWIN PLAYERS

NOW

"ANNA CHRISTIE"

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

Box Office Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

Phone WA 0595

"LOVE YOU"

COMEDY HIT

THEATRE

Mat. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.—2:30

P. M. Nights—8:30 P. M.

JOHN B. LITTLE

AND THE

BALDWIN PLAYERS

NOW

"ANNA CHRISTIE"

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

Box Office Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

Phone WA 0595

"LOVE YOU"

COMEDY HIT

THEATRE

Mat. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.—2:30

P. M. Nights—8:30 P. M.

JOHN B. LITTLE

AND THE

BALDWIN PLAYERS

NOW

"ANNA CHRISTIE"

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

Box Office Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

Phone WA 0595

"LOVE YOU"

COMEDY HIT

THEATRE

Mat. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.—2:30

P. M. Nights—8:30 P. M.

JOHN B. LITTLE

AND THE

BALDWIN PLAYERS

NOW

"ANNA CHRISTIE"

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

Box Office Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

Phone WA 0595

"LOVE YOU"

COMEDY HIT

THEATRE

Mat. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.—2:30

P. M. Nights—8:30 P. M.

JOHN B. LITTLE

FORTH MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY

at the Forsyth theater this week.

And "My Havana Girl" in point of melodious entertainment is a success of which he should feel justly proud. Its breezy harmony, romance and beauty, and the excellent company and chorus provide a wealth of talent.

Loew's Vaudeville.

(At the Grand.)

"Seminole Scandal" with Miss Tommie Allen and her pajama girls, has been a hit in Atlanta judging by the reception of this musical farce, which headlines the bill of vaudeville at Loew's Grand theater this week.

Earle and Mathews are clever with their imitations, while Fiske and Fallon can hardly be beaten when it comes to dancing.

"Bluff."

(At the Howard.)

"Bluff," featuring Agnes Ayres and Antonio Moreno, their latest Paramount picture now playing at the Howard theater, is the story of a girl who bluffed New York city and won fame and riches. Agnes Ayres has the role of a young and beautiful woman designer who cannot win recognition for her work by virtue of the fact that she is unknown. She poses as a missing English beauty and designer and gains instant response. Antonio Moreno has the part of a young lawyer who ultimately saves Agnes Ayres from the clutches of the law.

"Great White Way."

(At the Metropolitan.)

Joe Rickard, the fight promoter; Tex Humphreys, the silver-tongued announcer; Jack Gallagher, who referred the Dempsey-Firpo battle; Damon Runyon, sports writer, and scores of professional fighters who do their training in Madison Square Garden, have just made their debut as regular movie actors and will be seen in "The Great White Way," a wonder picture of New York's "Main Street," which the Metropolitan corporation offers at the Metropolitan theater this week.

"Mademoiselle Midnight."

(At the Rialto.)

Gorgeous "Mademoiselle Midnight," a fine comedy, and the International News reel, with other short subjects make up a splendid program of entertainment which is offered for two more days only at the Rialto theater this week.

Hodges' Musical Comedy.

(At the Forsyth.)

Four musical comedies have been presented in Atlanta whose scores of acts have been as elaborately devised and as carefully worked out as those which form a big feature of the presentation of "My Havana Girl" being offered by Jimmie Hodges and his company.

"Anna Christie."

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

Box Office Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

Phone WA 0595

"LOVE YOU"

COMEDY HIT

THEATRE

Mat. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.—2:30

P. M. Nights—8:30 P. M.

JOHN B. LITTLE

AND THE

BALDWIN PLAYERS

NOW

"ANNA CHRISTIE"

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

Box Office Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

Phone WA 0595

"LOVE YOU"

COMEDY HIT

THEATRE

Mat. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.—2:30

P. M. Nights—8:30 P. M.

JOHN B. LITTLE

AND THE

BALDWIN PLAYERS

NOW

"ANNA CHRISTIE"

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

Box Office Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

Phone WA 0595

"LOVE YOU"

COMEDY HIT

THEATRE

Mat. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.—2:30

P. M. Nights—8:30 P. M.

JOHN B. LITTLE

AND THE

BALDWIN PLAYERS

NOW

"ANNA CHRISTIE"

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

Box Office Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

Phone WA 0595

"LOVE YOU"

COMEDY HIT

THEATRE

Mat. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.—2:30

P. M. Nights—8:30 P. M.

JOHN B. LITTLE

AND THE

BALDWIN PLAYERS

NOW

"ANNA CHRISTIE"

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

Box Office Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

Phone WA 0595

"LOVE YOU"

COMEDY HIT

THEATRE

Mat. Tues.-Thurs.-Sat.—2:30

P. M. Nights—8:30 P. M.

JOHN B. LITTLE

AND THE

BALDWIN PLAYERS

NOW

"ANNA CHRISTIE"

The Play That Is Different.

THE PLAYERS' GREATEST SUCCESS.

SPEECHES AND HUGE PARADE

Mark First Day of Reunion

Veterans Weary but Happy at Close, While Younger Element and Visitors Attend Ball.

Memphis, Tenn., June 4.—With the first day of their 34th annual reunion recorded in history the hosts of the Confederacy turned tonight to the gaieties of the reunion which honors the followers of Lee and which marks another milestone along their journey to the place where there is no bivouac and no "lost cause."

The first day of the reunion was a busy one for the old veterans, who turned to their barracks tonight, weary but happy, while their sons and daughters and the thousands of reunion guests attended the ball given by the Sons of Confederate Veterans and the Confederate Veterans' Association at the Tri-State fair grounds.

In Session Most of Day.

Convening at 10 o'clock this morning the old veterans remained in session until mid-afternoon. They heard a number of speeches by men and women who paid glorious tribute to the south and the cause for which they fought. Then hundreds of them climbed into automobiles and followed the program of the day.

So far there has been no opposition to the plan to name Mrs. Genevieve Clark Thomson, of New Orleans, daughter of the late Representative, Governor Perry A. Hardee, national conventionman.

Huey P. Long, of Shreveport, chairman of the state public service commission, is the leader of a large force opposed to the selection of Mr. Thomas as national conventionman and upon his arrival here today declared victory of the opposition.

Senator J. B. McRae, of Louisiana, and Mrs. L. C. McRae, wife of former Governor Pleasant.

The party leaders plan to send eight instead of four delegates-at-large to the national convention and a resolution to that effect already has been prepared. It names as the delegates, Governor Perry A. Hardee, of Florida, delivered the literary address, and Dr. Rufus W. Weaver, president of the college, delivered the baccalaureate address and the diploma.

Honorary degrees were conferred on Judge W. H. Felton, of Macon, dean of the law school for many years, L. D. deLoach, former Governor of Alabama, and J. W. R. Jenkins, of Alabama, D. D. degree.

The exercises were largely attended. Most of the students left this afternoon and tonight for their homes.

Atlanta Firemen Respond to Plea for New Blood

Following an appeal by J. J. Cato, of 212 Simpson street, on behalf of his wife, who is fighting for her life at Grady hospital, seven members of the Atlanta fire department Wednesday afternoon addressed a meeting to save the woman's life by transfusion of new blood.

The firemen are C. J. Decker, W. R. Hunt and M. H. Dean, of engine house No. 1; H. H. Evans, from No. 17; J. P. Griewell, from No. 12; E. S. Konkle, from No. 6, and H. C. Guimarin, from No. 10. All with the exception of Guimarin, president of the association, in his annual address, declared the time has come for reducing the number of pecan growers' associations to one.

It was later learned that two of the three associations in this territory, the Southern Pecan Growers' association, with headquarters at Albany, and the Georgia Pecan Growers' association, with headquarters at Albany, were in the process of exchanging with headquarters at Albany.

Groves attending the convention, which will continue through tomorrow, expressed their interest in the matter which President Snedeker presented.

Marble Company Enters Bankruptcy

An involuntary petition of bankruptcy filed in district court here Wednesday against the Aaron Marble company, a corporation of Fulton county. Petitioning creditors are Ed Godfrey, of Talking Rock, Ga., and a number of Atlanta creditors. A. Sullivan, of Atlanta, $410; C. A. Sullivan, of Whitehouse, $40; Oscar Parker, of Talking Rock, $50; Jimmie Parker, of Talking Rock, $50; Clyde Rowe, of Talking Rock, $50.

The Alden Marble company is engaged in the business of mining marble, delaminate, crushed stone and similar products.

Mellon Gets Degree of Doctor of Laws

New York, June 4.—Columbia university at its one hundred and seventh commencement today awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws to Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury. Victor F. Lawson, publisher of the Chicago Daily News; Melville E. Stone, counsel of the Associated Press; and Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of the New York Times.

The degree of Doctor of Letters was conferred upon Booth Tarkenton, novelist, and Dr. Robert Bridges, poet, by the University of London.

Police Searching for Porch Climbers

A store operated by L. Pazol, at 189 East Georgia avenue, and the H. M. Long Printing company, shop, 112 South Broad street, were entered by thieves Wednesday. Pazol claims that the thieves gained entrance by climbing from a tree to the roof and prying open a second story window. Loot valued at $50 was obtained from his store, and a typewriter taken from the printing company's shop.

80 Mercer Seniors Awarded Degrees; Gov. Hardee Speaks

Macon, Ga., June 4.—Eighty graduates of the various departments at Mercer university received their diplomas this morning at the closing exercises of the annual convocation of Florida, delivered the literary address, and Dr. Rufus W. Weaver, president of the college, delivered the baccalaureate address and the diploma.

Honorary degrees were conferred on Judge W. H. Felton, of Macon, dean of the law school for many years, L. D. deLoach, former Governor of Alabama, and J. W. R. Jenkins, of Alabama, D. D. degree.

The exercises were largely attended. Most of the students left this afternoon and tonight for their homes.

Atlanta Firemen Respond to Plea for New Blood

Following an appeal by J. J. Cato, of 212 Simpson street, on behalf of his wife, who is fighting for her life at Grady hospital, seven members of the Atlanta fire department Wednesday afternoon addressed a meeting to save the woman's life by transfusion of new blood.

The firemen are C. J. Decker, W. R. Hunt and M. H. Dean, of engine house No. 1; H. H. Evans, from No. 17; J. P. Griewell, from No. 12; E. S. Konkle, from No. 6, and H. C. Guimarin, from No. 10. All with the exception of Guimarin, president of the association, in his annual address, declared the time has come for reducing the number of pecan growers' associations to one.

It was later learned that two of the three associations in this territory, the Southern Pecan Growers' association, with headquarters at Albany, and the Georgia Pecan Growers' association, with headquarters at Albany, were in the process of exchanging with headquarters at Albany.

Groves attending the convention, which will continue through tomorrow, expressed their interest in the matter which President Snedeker presented.

Marble Company Enters Bankruptcy

An involuntary petition of bankruptcy filed in district court here Wednesday against the Aaron Marble company, a corporation of Fulton county. Petitioning creditors are Ed Godfrey, of Talking Rock, Ga., and a number of Atlanta creditors. A. Sullivan, of Atlanta, $410; C. A. Sullivan, of Whitehouse, $40; Oscar Parker, of Talking Rock, $50; Jimmie Parker, of Talking Rock, $50; Clyde Rowe, of Talking Rock, $50.

The Alden Marble company is engaged in the business of mining marble, delaminate, crushed stone and similar products.

Mellon Gets Degree of Doctor of Laws

New York, June 4.—Columbia university at its one hundred and seventh commencement today awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws to Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury. Victor F. Lawson, publisher of the Chicago Daily News; Melville E. Stone, counsel of the Associated Press; and Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of the New York Times.

The degree of Doctor of Letters was conferred upon Booth Tarkenton, novelist, and Dr. Robert Bridges, poet, by the University of London.

Police Searching for Porch Climbers

A store operated by L. Pazol, at 189 East Georgia avenue, and the H. M. Long Printing company, shop, 112 South Broad street, were entered by thieves Wednesday. Pazol claims that the thieves gained entrance by climbing from a tree to the roof and prying open a second story window. Loot valued at $50 was obtained from his store, and a typewriter taken from the printing company's shop.

Decrease Is Seen in Number Of New Corporations Formed

BY R. L. BARNUM.
New York, June 4.—Those who keep in close touch with industrial developments realize that when there there is a perfectly good explanation for this. It is not because the average intelligence in this part of the country is higher. It's because the state has a higher development of inment, so is this part of the country dependent upon highly developed industrial New England. New England saw the existing slowing down in general industry coming before the signs were detected by most people here in Wall Street, consequently it is of interest to point out at this time that while New England cotton

Pig iron production for May averaged daily only 84,358 tons against 107,781 tons for April. This is a drop of 23,423 tons compared with the decline of 22,187 in October of 1919, the month of the great steel strike. The sharp recession of 1907 following the big panic. The figures show how rapid curtailment

This, however, is for the long run. In the short term, the steel and iron trade during the month just closed were made anxious by the fact that the sharpness of the settlement bears out the conclusion that the market is still far from fully recovered.

There was a decrease of 56,211 or 3.1 per cent to 1,760,288 in the number of men employed by the railroads during the month of March as compared with February.

The commission explained that during the year ending March 31, 1934, it had confined its work largely to shop men. The payrolls a large carrier for March footed up $241,406.637 against $255,447.764 for the same period of last year.

Inasmuch as the gross earnings of the railroads for the first four months of 1934 were about $8,000,000 less than for 1933, some people are be-

The five months of this year the fix rates are $3,397,440,000 against $3,347,608,000 for 1923 and $3,887,400,000 for 1922.

The average of the times is found by adding the bids just received for the offering of $67,400,000 City of New York bonds which totaled ten times the amount of bonds offered, reflecting the fact that the freight charges are not to be depended upon in judging the trend of general trade.

This conclusion, however, is not warranted, because the detailed figures are not available and it will be found that the class of business handled ran largely to tonnage in bringing in a lower freight rate.

CURB MARKET

| | | | | |
|--|-------------------------|--------|--------|--------|
| Total sales of stocks, 305,100 shares. | 400 Hologier Gold Min. | 12 1/2 | 12 1/2 | 12 1/2 |
| Total sales of bonds, $506,000. | 2000 Inland Lead Mines. | .07 | .07 | .07 |
| New York, June 4.—Following is the official list of transactions on the New York | 50000 3lb Cons. | .59 | .59 | .51 |
| | 2000 Kat Cooper | 1 1/2 | 1 1/2 | 1 1/2 |

| | | | | | | | |
|----------------------|-----|-----|-----|-----------------------|----|----|-----|
| 245 Adirondack P & L | 33 | 20% | 32% | 1000 Mohican Copper | 28 | 28 | 28 |
| 40 Am Cat Fab Pd | 97 | 97 | 97 | 500 Niles Copper | 6 | 6 | 6 |
| 70 Am Gas & El New | 70% | 69% | 69% | 100 Plymouth Lead | 32 | 32 | 32 |
| 40 Am Gas & El Pd | 97 | 97 | 97 | 1000 Red Hills | 01 | 01 | 01 |
| 40 Am Light & Tr | 122 | 122 | 122 | 1000 Red Hills Lead | 01 | 01 | 01 |
| 100 Blyn Shoe | 10% | 10% | 10% | 500 Silver Horn | 01 | 01 | 01 |
| 100 Candy Prod | 14% | 14% | 14% | 1000 Speerhead | 04 | 04 | 04 |
| | | | | 1000 St Louis Lead | 16 | 16 | 16 |
| | | | | 300 Tonopah Extension | 2 | 3 | 2-5 |
| | | | | 400 United Eastern | 63 | 61 | 61 |

[illegible]

| | | |
|-----------------------|------|------|
| 500 Gillette Saf Raz | 263% | 263% |
| 500 Glen Allen Coal. | 97% | 97% |
| 500 Hays Stores | 60 | 59% |
| 500 Hay Tob pfd cfts. | 6 | 5% |
| 700 Hazeltine Corp. | 17% | 16% |
| 500 Healy Bros | 3 | 3% |
| 100 Hud & Manh. | 20% | 20% |
| 250 Intercont Runt. | 24 | 23% |
| 500 Int'l Denim Dress | 48% | 45% |
| 100 Leigh Col Sales. | 79% | 78 |
| 500 Leigh Pow Sec. | 64% | 63% |
| 500 Lumber Co | 94% | 94% |
| 500 Lum T 1933 | 107 | 107 |
| 5 Alum G & Elec Ga. | 94% | 94% |
| 500 Macmillan Bk | 107 | 107 |
| 5 Macaunda Cop | 65% | 65% |
| 12 Anglo-Am Oil Pkgs. | 102% | 102% |
| 12 Anglo-Am Oil Pkgs. | 102% | 102% |
| 22 At Gulf & W I Is. | 53% | 53% |
| 7 Beth Steel T 1935. | 103% | 103% |
| 100 Bk Natl City | 94% | 94% |
| 1 Cities Serv T C.. | 92 | 94 |
| 3 Cities Serv Ta D. | 92 | 91% |
| 100 Clarks | 94 | 94 |

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

| | | | |
|----------------------------|------|------|-----|
| 10 Northern P L..... | 81% | 67% | |
| 100 Penn Ind..... | 35% | 34% | 35% |
| 100 Penn Mex Fuel..... | 35% | 34% | 35% |
| 101 Prairie Oil & Gas..... | 216 | 211 | 212 |
| 101 Southern Ind..... | 191 | 192 | |
| 10 Solar Ref..... | 183 | 183 | 183 |
| 100 South Penn Oil..... | 134 | 133 | 133 |
| 10 Southern Ind..... | 87 | 87 | |
| 0400 Stand Oil Ind..... | 58 | 56% | 56% |
| 280 Stand Oil..... | 40 | 40 | 40 |
| 100 Stand Oil Kan..... | 100% | 100% | |
| 100 Stand Oil Neb..... | 299 | 297 | 297 |
| 100 Stand Oil Tex..... | 299 | 297 | 297 |
| 5 Swift & Co..... | 90% | 90% | |
| 15 Union Pac..... | 91% | 91% | 91% |
| 6 United Oil Prod S..... | 5% | 49% | |
| 4 Western Elec J. & P..... | 102 | 102 | 102 |
| 4 Webster Mills..... | 61% | 102 | 102 |
| Foreign Bonds. | | | |
| 1 Comp Assurance..... | 97 | 97 | 97 |
| 7%..... | 97 | 97 | 97 |
| 1 Rep Peru S..... | 90% | 90% | 90% |
| 10 Rio de Jan Co..... | 90% | 90% | 90% |
| 12 Swiss Gov..... | 90% | 90% | 90% |

[illegible]

| | | | | |
|-----------------------------|-----|-----|-----|-----|
| 100 Gulf Oil | 58% | 58 | 58 | 58 |
| 100 Gulf States Oil | 50 | 50 | 50 | 50 |
| 700 Lago Pet | 4 | 3% | 3% | 3% |
| 2000 Latin Am Oil | .08 | .05 | .05 | .05 |
| 200 Irving Pet | 3% | 1% | 1% | 1% |
| 200 Mexico Oil | 11 | 11 | 11 | 11 |
| 100 Mount Producers | 18% | 18% | 18% | 18% |
| 400 Mutual Oil cfs | 10% | 10 | 10% | 10 |
| 200 New Bradford | 5% | 5% | 5% | 5% |
| 100 New Mex & Ariz Ld | 6 | 6 | 6 | 6 |
| 000 Co | 40 | 40 | 40 | 40 |
| 000 Penn. Eastern | 40 | 40 | 40 | 40 |

| | | | |
|-----------------------------|-----|-----|-----|
| 600 Pennock Oil | 14% | 14% | 14% |
| 800 Red Banks Oil new | 22% | 22% | 22% |
| 200 Royal Canadian | 1% | 1% | 1% |
| 600 Salt Creek Prod | 21% | 21% | 21% |
| 214 Salt Creek Cons | 81% | 81% | 81% |
| 600 Shinarump Oil | 20% | 20% | 20% |
| 100 Turman Oil | 4% | 4% | 4% |
| 300 Wilcox Oil | 5% | 5% | 5% |
| 700 Woodley Petroleum | 12% | 12% | 12% |
| Minns. | | | |
| 800 Black Oak | 74 | 74 | 74 |
| | 75 | 75 | 75 |

More than 75 attrac-

| | | | |
|------------------------------|--------|--------|--------|
| 500 Cons Nevada Min | 2% | 2 1/2 | 2 1/2 |
| 500 Cons Colorado-Utah | 06 | 06 | 06 |
| 4000 Cons Silver | 42 | 42 | 42 |
| 4000 Cons Black Butte | 10 | 08 | 10 |
| 75000 Diamond Gold Min | 17 1/2 | 17 1/2 | 17 1/2 |
| 5000 Goldfield Bond | 02 | 02 | 02 |
| 50000 Hard Shell Min | 01 | 01 | 01 |
| 100000 Hiram Div Mfg | 06 | 06 | 08 |
| 40000 Hawthorne Min | 08 | 08 | 08 |
| 50000 Hecla Min | 8 1/2 | 8 1/2 | 8 1/2 |
| 100000 Hilltop Min | 07 | 08 | 02 |

WANTED
High - class BUSINESS partner with $10,000 cash, to be used for expansion only, in an already established, profitable, stable cash, office business, minimum overhead.
Address: Box 162, Care Constitution.

Hubbard Bros. & Co., Cotton Merchant
Hanover Square, New York
 Members New York Cotton Exchange, New Orleans Cotton Exchange
 New York Produce Exchange, associate members Liverpool Cotton Assocciation. Orders solicited for the purchase and sale of cotton and cotton seed oil for future delivery. Special attention and liberal terms given for consignments of spot cotton for delivery. Correspondence invited.

The Fun Shop

SLAY IT WITH SLANG.
By Joseph I. Fell.
Do you dance? Then you're a "dancer."
Do things well, and you're a "wiz-ard."
Are you nervous? You're a "nuz-ler."
In the "slangage" of the day, if you drink you are a "guzzler." Got a "line"? Then you're a "puz-ler."
If you laugh, you are a "giggler." And as such, you are a "passe."
"Get my drift?" means understand me. "Loose that half-Nelson," unhand me. He "picks a wicked wallop." Means he's quite a better, son, got this "info" from a "necker." Who's a "ramp," also a "wrecker." She "threw me to the bow-wow." After "giving me a run."
Stand on custom? You're a "quib-ler."
Fond of cake? A "cookie nibbler." A "bun-duster," a "cake-eater." Or whichever one you will.
Shall I "dish the dirt" still deeper? No, I think I'll "shut my peeper." Or some playful "little bimbo." May "massage me with a pill!"

Wise Harold.
Aunt Jane: "The stork just brought you a little baby sister. Would you like to take a little peek at her?"
Harold: "If it's all the same to you, aunt, I'd rather take a peek at the stork!"
—C. A. Anderson.

After reading the current books and magazines, the modern wife is disappointed if her husband proves true to her.

THE MODERN VERSION.
By L. G. A. Copley.
Samson made joke scarce and funny. And Delilah was his little honey. But she wasn't quite fair. For she cut off his hair deeper. That was tougher than allmomy!
Seven years Jacob labored for Leah, I declare that's a funny idea. If I want a wife. You bet your sweet life I'd knock off all work and go see her!

Jingle-Jangles.
Any funny, nonsensical rhyme that will make Fun Shop readers laugh is a Jingle-Jangle. It must be in two lines. For example:
After winter comes the spring; Tonsils hurt like everything.
Cows have horns and sheep have wool; Dentists have a lot of pull.
You will undoubtedly contribute funnier Jingle-Jangles than these. Address them separately to Jingle-Jangle Department, The Fun Shop, The Atlanta Constitution.

Our Own LOST AND FOUND Department.
G. Sparrow: I could be much happier if you'd let me have that poem beginning: "Happy the man and happy he alone."
Dear Brother Sparrow: The blue-

Lord Waldock Clears Mystery

By James Barr

Continued From Yesterday.
Then slowly he unfolded and stood full height on top of the monster's broad tail.
A hot glow of victory thrilled through him. He could not forbear glancing in the direction of the cave, and when he saw that the girl was watching him he felt a wave of pride sweep over him.
So far all went well. He ran his eye up the monster's back till it reached the head that reposed so comfortably on the cliff top. From where he stood to where he could step off in safety, seemed a very, very long way indeed.
Step by step, he advanced slowly yet easily up the slope of the back until he was securely astraddle the middle crest when he suddenly froze stiff.
The monster stirred. As it heaved his head Lord Waldock sank down to one side of the crest, covering it as small a compass as he could squeeze his body. Never before had he realized the charm of invisibility. The monster heaved its head high in the air and abruptly plunged away from the cliff.
Lord Waldock lunged down and prepared to slide off and drop to the ground, but already he was twenty-five feet above the tow-path, a distance he could not expect to fall and land in a condition to make good his escape, even if he avoided being crushed by the monster's legs.
The top of the cliff was another twenty feet above him. There was nothing for it but to hold on like grim death.
Each moment he expected the bulging eye of the reptile to spot him, and the tongue to lick him up, yet he could not keep from wondering what his fellow members of the Sports Club would think if they could see him now! Never since the Stone Age could mortal man have ridden a creature such as he, in despair, clung to.

Noozie
TH' FIRST DAY OF SUMMER SHOULD BE A NATIONAL HOLIDAY AND AT TH' TWELVE O'CLOCK WHISTLE EVERYBODY STOP THEIR WORK AND TURN A SUMMER SAULT!

THE GUMPS—THE WOUNDED HERO

HERE COMES ELAM HAMMER WITH HIS BUSTED HAND—WHAT A WALLOP HE MUST HAVE HANDED HER—THE DOWN-TRODDEN HUSBANDS OF AMERICA SHOULD HAVE PICTURES TAKEN OF THAT MIGHTY RIGHT HAND AND PLACE ONE IN EVERY HOME—IF THAT BABY WEIGHED ABOUT TWELVE OUNCES MORE HE'D WHIP JACK DEMPSEY TO A LIGHT FROTH—

WELL, IF IT ISN'T BATTLING ELAM PERSON—I WANT YOU TO COME OVER TO MY HOUSE TONIGHT—WE'LL OPEN A BOTTLE OF PRE-WAR CATSUP TO CELEBRATE YOUR VICTORY—

I DON'T MIND IF I DO—THERE IS NOTHING I ENJOY BETTER THAN TO VISIT A FRIEND AND SPEND A NICE QUIET EVENING—IN SPIKE OF WHAT THE SCANDAL MONGERS SAY I AM A RESPECTABLE PEACEFUL MAN—

IF THAT BABY IS A PEACEFUL MAN GEN. PERSONING IS A PACIFIST—ANY GENTLEMAN WHO TWINES BASEBALL BATS OVER HIS WIFE'S FAIR BROW CAN NOT BE CLASSIFIED AS A NONCOMBATANT—IT WOULD ONLY TAKE ABOUT FIFTEEN PEACEFUL BIRDS LIKE ELAM TO START ANOTHER THIRTY YEAR WAR—

SOMEBODY'S STENOGR—The Joyous Sound of Industry

SAY, IT'S NOT RIGHT TO LOAF ON THE BOSS THIS WAY. WE REALLY OUGHT TO DO A LITTLE WORK—BUT JUST THINK HOW WONDERFUL IT MUST BE IN THE COUNTRY!

JUST THINK OF THE GREEN FIELDS AND CUTE STREAMS! SAY!!! LET'S GET UP A PICNIC! WE'LL ALL INVITE A FRIEND FOR SATURDAY AFTERNOON—YOU WRITE ON THAT OTHER MACHINE.

AN' I'LL INVITE MY SWEETIE ETHELBERT!

HURRY UP AND FINISH THE INVITATIONS!

WHAT A LUCKY MAN I AM TO HAVE SUCH A HARD WORKING OFFICE FORCE!

WINNIE WINKLE THE BREADWINNE

Back to Baby Day

THIS IS THE PLACE WHERE ELEANOR HAD HER HAIR BOBBED? WONDER IF I OUGHT TO GO IN AND HAVE MINE DONE!! I JUST CAN'T MAKE UP MY MIND! MAYBE I BETTER WAIT A BIT!

WELL THERE'S A GIRL LOOKS REAL CUTE WITH BOBBED HAIR!!

I JUST KNOW MY HORACE WILL BE ANGRY BUT I SHOULD WORRY #1 I FEEL 10 YEARS YOUNGER WITH MY HAIR BOBBED!!

OH MY HUSBAND WILL RAVE TOO BUT WHO CARES! I'VE BEEN OLD-FASHIONED LONG ENOUGH!

GRANDMA, IT'S SIMPLY WONDERFUL WHAT A DIFFERENCE BOBBED HAIR MAKES! YOU LOOK AT LEAST TWENTY YEARS YOUNGER!!!

HEH-HEH-HEH! NOW ALL I NEED IS A NEW SET O' TEETH AN- OH BOYS!!

GASOLINE ALLEY—FISH FOR LUNCH? ABSOLUTELY

GOLLY, IT WOULD BE GREAT TO LAND A NICE TROUT FOR LUNCH, SKEEZIX!

I THOUGHT SURE I COULD PULL ONE OUT OF HERE. THEY DON'T SEEM TO BE BITING.

UNICA WALT GET NO FISH?

NO, AND I WAS JUST SORT OF HUNGRY FOR FISH TOO! I KNOW WHAT WE'LL DO!

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE A NICE SARDINE SANDWICH?

MOON MULLINS—SHE WENT ON, ALRIGHT

LOOKIT MY WIFE SETTIN' IN HER BROTHER'S MILK WAGON, MOON—DON'T SHE LOOK FUNNY?

HOLY SMOKE! SHE'S GABBIN' WITH EGYPT. I BET SHE'S SPUTTIN' ME ON TH' PAN, HERMAN.

YES, MAM—HE TOLD MY HUSBAND HIMSELF THAT HE WASN'T GOING TO MAKE UP WITH YOU TILL AFTER YOUR BIRTHDAY—OH, I SUPPOSE I SHOULDN'T TELL YOU ALL I KNOW 'BOUT HIM, EGYPT.

OH YES GO ON.

Willard

BEHIND THE BARS—

THE IDEA OF ARRESTIN' A GUY AND PUTTIN' HIM IN A CELL FOR DRINKIN' A LI' TOO MUSH HOOSH—IT AINT RIGHT.

CUT OUT THAT NOISE.

IT AINT RIGHT, I SAY—IT AINT RIGHT.

WHO IS MAKIN' ALL THE NOISE BACK HERE?

NOT ME! IT'S HIM.

SO YOU'RE THE NOISY CUCKOO? HUH?

THERE'S THE DOOR, GET OUTA THIS JAIL—YOU'RE TOO NOISY!

Girdles, $2.98

—Reg. $5 to $5.50 Gossard clasp-around and step-in girdles of flesh, brocade and surgical elastic. Three pairs hose supporters. Sizes 22 to 32. Thrift Thursday only, $2.98.

—Rich's, Third Floor

Chiffon Hose, $1.69

—$3 all-silk chiffon hose. New shadow cloz. Well fashioned. Perfect! Nude and fawn. Also Paris open-work cloz. Thrift Thursday only, $1.69.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Novelty Silk Gauntlets, $1.89

—Reg. $2.95 quality. Novelty silk gauntlets with petal cuffs, tucked cuffs, ruffle cuffs. Heavy embroidery stitching. Sizes 5 1/2 to 7 1/2. Thrift Thursday only, $1.89.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Scarfs, $1

—Reg. $1.50 Fiber Scarfs in many smart color combinations. Full length Silk fringed ends. Thrift Thursday only, $1.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Silk Bags, $1.95

—Reg. $2.95. Of silk crepe. In many colors, with embroidered flowers in contrasting colors. Nickel frames. Five colors. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Shades, $1

—Scalloped window shades, 3 feet wide, 6 feet long, fringed. Ecoru Holland. Complete—ready to put up. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Fourth Floor

Wash Suits, $1.19

—Reg. $1.50 boys' wash suits of good quality chambray and cotton pongee. Light and dark colors. Oliver Twist and middy styles. Sizes 2 to 4 years. Thrift Thursday only, $1.19.

—Rich's, Third Floor

EMERY Shirts, $1.95

—Reg. $2.50. Of genuine Krinkle Crepe. EMERY Shirts, mind you! Collar attached or detached. Thrift Thursday only, $1.95.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Costume Slips, $3.95

—Reg. $5.95 costume slips of radium, crepe de chine and satin. Flesh and white. 20-inch hem make them shadow proof. Black and 3-inch hem. 36 to 44 sizes. Thrift Thursday only, $3.95.

—Rich's, Third Floor

Glove Silk Hose, $1.49

—$2.50 Women's white glove silk stockings. Fancy novelty stripes. Also plain with black clock at side. Thrift Thursday only; all sizes, $1.49.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Union Suits, 98c

—Usually $3 quality. Fine lisle thread union suits for women. Trunk knees—open style. White or pink—regular and extra sizes. Thrift Thursday only, 98c.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Bead Bags, $1.29

—Reg. $1.95. Drawstring style beaded bags. Also shell frame style. Solid and combination colors. Thrift Thursday only, $1.29.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Dresses, $2.98

—Reg. $3.50 to $3.95 L'Aiglon and Gold Medal apron dresses of dotted and figured voiles. Light and dark colors. Sizes 36 to 46. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Third Floor

Sport Hose, 95c

—Formerly $3. All-silk full-fashioned sport hose. Ideal for sport and street wear. Your choice of several shades. Thrift Thursday only, 95c.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Novelty Silk Gloves, $1.95

—Reg. $2.95 quality. 12 and 16-button length. Ruffle fluted up side. Shirred and tucked styles. Silk. All perfect. Sizes 5 1/2 to 7 1/2. Thrift Thursday only, $1.95.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Bather's Bag, 59c

—Reg. 75c. Of pure rubber. Size 12x18-inch. With drawstring top. A real bargain. Selling on Thrift Thursday only, 59c.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Sheets, $1.15

—Ordinarily $1.50. 81x90 double bed size sheets. Soft finish, no dressing. Good quality muslin. Thrift Thursday only, $1.15.

—Rich's, Second Floor

Glove Silk Vests, $1.89

—Regularly $2.50 women's glove silk vests. Boyce style or built-up shoulders. White or pink. 32 to 42. Thrift Thursday only, $1.89.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Glove Silk Bloomers, $2.95

—Usually $3.95 women's glove silk bloomers. Closed style—elastic at waist and knee. Flesh or white. 6 to 7. Thrift Thursday only, $2.95.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Silk Umbrellas, $2.95

—Reg. $5.95 and $6.95 quality. Ten ribs. Strap and ring handles. Tips and ends in amber and ivory. Sun or rainproof. Most are India shape. Good silk. Thrift Thursday only, $2.95.

—Rich's, Street Floor

—Broadcast the news to all your friends! The first Thrift Thursday in Rich's New Store—today! Folks have been waiting—watching—for it! You'll find "Rich's Better Values!"—Rich's better bargains! All merchandise of certified quality. Prices absolutely for one day only. NOTE: So many bargains even a page in another paper could not hold them all! Come, see for yourself! Watch for White and Black Signs in all departments.

Coty's Powder, 69c

—Reg. 89c Coty's face powder. Flesh, white and brunette. L'Oriani perfume. Thrift Thursday only, 69c.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Sox, 15c

—Reg. 35c to 50c mercerized socks for children. Dark and light colors. Every pair perfect. 4 1/2 to 9 1/2. Thrift Thursday only, 15c.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Boys' Blouses, 79c

—Reg. 98c quality. Boys' sports and regular blouses of white pongee and fancy stripes. Ages 6 to 14. Thrift Thursday only, 79c.

—Rich's, Second Floor

Pitchers, $4.95

—Reg. $8.95. Water pitchers of fine quality china plate on nickel. Silver base. Guaranteed to wear a lifetime. Butler finish. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Bob Combs, 79c

—Reg. 98c quality. Celluloid folding combs suspended on sautoir to be worn around the neck. Set with brilliant. Thrift Thursday only, 79c.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Georgette, $1.10

—Very unusual! 40-inch georgette crepe in nearly all the colors one could imagine. Buy for summer dresses and negligees. Thrift Thursday only, $1.10 yard.

—Rich's, Second Floor

Ferneries, $3.95

—Reg. $7.50 quality. Fiber ferneries in brown baronial finish. 28 inches long, 11 inches wide and 30 inches high. Galvanized iron container. Thrift Thursday only, $3.95.

—Rich's, Fifth Floor

Pongee, 70c

—Special! 12-moon Japanese. This silk is indeed unusual at 70c yard. Buy for cool summer wear—for draperies, too. Thrift Thursday only, 70c yard.

—Rich's, Second Floor

Printed Crepes, $1.85

—Reg. $2.95 Printed crepes. Think of the savings! Plenty of black and white—perhaps the most wanted of all. Black and blue checks and dots. 39 and 40 inches wide. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Second Floor

Shirts, $1.19

—Reg. $1.50 men's domestic broad-cloth shirts. Tan or white. Collars attached or detached. Sizes 14 to 17. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Mirrors, $3.95

—Reg. $10 polychrome mirrors—upright and oblong style. Brand-new, well-made and well finished. Size 12x24 inches, 14x28 inches. Thrift Thursday only, $3.95.

—Rich's, Fifth Floor

Tub Silk, $1.15

—Special! 32-inch tub silk in stripes, small, medium and large. Washable. Buy for practical summer dresses, shirts and blouses. Thrift Thursday only, $1.15.

—Rich's, Second Floor

Percolators, $5.19

—Reg. $6.50 quality. 7-cup electric percolators, made of pure aluminum. Complete with 6-ft. cord and 2-piece attachment plug. Thrift Thursday only, $5.19.

—Rich's, Fourth Floor

Electric Irons, $3.19

—Reg. $4.75 quality. Six-pound electric irons. "Blue Ribbon" family size. Complete with cord and plug. Thrift Thursday only, $3.19.

—Rich's, Fourth Floor

Tables, $11.95

—Mahogany finished davenport tables. Tudor and Queen Anne period. 60x30-inch. Well made and finished. Thrift Thursday only, $11.95.

—Rich's, Fifth Floor

Neckwear, 50c

—Reg. 75c and $1 collar and cuff sets. Peter Pan. Buster Brown and roll styles. Many materials and patterns. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Tourists' Cases, $1.19

—Reg. $1.95. Kleiner's. Of crotonne. Lined with rubber. Absolutely waterproof. Compartments for toilet accessories. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Toiletware Sets, $2.95

—Reg. $4.95. Of shell. Hairbrush with eleven rows of real bristles. Doubleplate mirror. Comb to match. Thrift Thursday only. Set, $2.95.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Rocker, $11.95

—Reg. $15 quality. Mahogany-finished rocker. Beautiful figured tapestry and velours. Only a limited number. Thrift Thursday only, $11.95.

—Rich's, Fifth Floor

Suit Cases, $13.45

—Reg. $17.50 Leather Suit Cases. Heavy, full-stock leather. Reinforced corners. Straps all around. Thrift Thursday only, $13.45.

—Rich's, Fourth Floor

Wardrobe Trunks, $32.75

—Reg. $45 quality. Hole-proof Wardrobe Trunks. All equipments. Lined throughout with crotonne. Four drawers, full set of hangers. Thrift Thursday only, $32.75.

—Rich's, Fourth Floor

Travel Bags, $16.95

—Reg. $25 genuine walrus pin seal, sea lion, shark and smooth cowhide leather. Sewed frame. Leather lined. Thrift Thursday only, $16.95.

—Rich's, Fourth Floor

Rousing Thrift Thursday Special!

Silk Frocks

$23

—Attention, Vacationists and Stay-at-Homes! $23 for regular $29.75 to $35—and more! Flat crepes, georgettes, prints, crepes de chine and Roshanaras. Straightlined—or with skirts a trifle full.—Including sports plaids—so much the vogue. Georgettes, beaded or with real Irish lace.

—Dresses for street or afternoon wear—even for semi-formal summer occasions.

Orchid, Blue, Brown, Tan, Yellow, Green, Rose

—Sleeves of every conceivable length—or, perhaps LACK of length would be better—for many have no sleeves at all.

—Better come early—for bargains like these will vanish like magic! Many women will buy more than one. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Third Floor

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

PHONE 4636 BROAD, ALABAMA AND FORSYTH

Organdy Bands, 49c

—Usually $1.50 yard. Three to four-inch white organdy banding embroidered in pink and blue. Trim dresses and children's clothes. Thrift Thursday only, 49c yard.

—Rich's, Second Floor

Blankets, $1.39

—Reg. $2.50 baby's blankets of heavy quality beacon cloth. Pink and blue reversible. Fancy stitched edge. Size 36x50. Thrift Thursday only, $1.39.

—Rich's, Third Floor

Necklaces, $1.19

—Reg. $1.95 pearl bead necklaces of indestructible pearl beads, 10-karat, spring ring clasp. 24-inch graduated lengths. Oriental tints. Guaranteed not to peel. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Rugs, $2.95

—Reg. $3.95 China matting. Size 6x9. Size 8x10, regular $3.95, for $4.95. Size 9x12, regular $6.95, for $5.95. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Fourth Floor

Novelty Laces, $2.89

—Ordinarily $4.50. Novelty laces in black, white, gray, brown and bronze. Also flourcings in two-tone. 36 inches wide. 500 yards. Thrift Thursday only, $2.89 yard.

—Rich's, Second Floor

Sandwich Trays, $1.95

—Reg. $2.09. Triple-plated on nickel silver base. Guaranteed for a lifetime. Bright or Butler finish. Hammered effect; pierced design. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Street Floor

Teddies, $1.98

—Reg. $3.95 women's silk teddies in tailored or lace-trimmed styles. Crepe de chine and radium are the materials. Flesh, orchid and peach. Sizes 36 to 44.

—Rich's, Third Floor

Photo Frames, 49c

—Reg. 69c. Wooden frames—gold and silver finish. Sizes 5x7, 7x9. Each fitted with glass. Thrift Thursday only.

—Rich's, Street Floor

News of Society and Woman's Work

THE CONSTITUTION'S DAILY WOMAN'S MAGAZINE

Features which Will Interest
Every Woman

The Thrill of the Moment! Keely's Dress Sale

Two Groups--Worth a Third More

$10 and $15

Crowds flocked to our store yesterday. All day long they came "for to admire and to see," and to buy. They filled our fitting rooms and every available inch of space where dresses could be tried on. Our salespeople flitted back and forth with heaping armfuls, for it was really hard to choose from such a galaxy of beauty--particularly if only one was to be selected. But some didn't choose just one--they bought two or three.

"I must have that exquisite beaded voile for Martha's dance." ... "I never will find such a darling little georgette again." ... "This dark blue printed crepe de chine is just what I want to wear on the train when I take my vacation"--were some of the things we heard.

We've Added 500 New Frocks
Arriving Late Yesterday

Now here comes an additional 500 to make today's offering just as versatile, just as brimful of value as that of yesterday. And many of these models were not included in yesterday's sales. Whatever kind of dress you want you'll find it in this collection. Don't miss it!

At $10

At $15

—French Voiles in lovely pastel shades made entirely by hand, exquisitely hand-drawn and hand-embroidered—some trimmed with row upon row of dainty Val lace.

—Belgian Linens in Peter Pan styles, side-fastened models, and youthful little slipovers, hand-drawn, hand-embroidered or severely tailored. One pretty model has voile blouse and sleeveless linen coat.

—Printed Voiles, many in flock-dotted effects on dark blue or black grounds trimmed in wide borders of the same or else with cool white organdie. Regular and extra sizes.

—All-over Emb'd Voile and embroidered voile combined with linen in all-white and dainty pastel colors. Many white and colored combinations.

—All Sizes in every type and style—16's to 46's.

—Beaded Voiles—fine, French voiles in white and delicate colors as heavy with beads as an expensive georgette. Our most popular sellers in yesterday's offering.

—Printed Georgette, rich Dresden effects as well as the most subdued patterns, some elaborately pleated, others trimmed in rows of Val lace, sometimes with corsage flowers.

—Wash Silks, including Loom-craft silk broadcloths in clear, smart stripes and genuine Floriswah in solid colors—hand-drawn, hand-embroidered, dainty lace trimmed.

—Printed Crepes de Chine, mostly dark blue or black grounds. Smartly pleated. Roman striped Cantons in solid white, or black with gold stripes.

—Genuine Normandy Voiles, navy, brown, black or white grounds dotted in white. Charming styles for the stout woman included. Sizes 40's to 46's.

KEELY'S

Fine Arts Club Will Meet at Mrs. Woolford's

The meeting of the Fine Arts club on Saturday, June 7, at 5 o'clock in the Cator Woolford gardens, will bring this season's work to a fitting close.

Following up the interest created by the recent exhibition at the Biltmore, the club has secured George Elmer Browne, noted artist, for the lecturer. In an illustrated talk, Mr. Browne will explain "Etchings in the Making."

With such an appropriate beginning, the Fine Arts club through future programs hopes to foster the newly-awakened enthusiasm in Atlanta for the best in contemporary art.

The officers of the club will receive at an informal garden party at the close of the lecture. Mrs. Ten Eyck Brown, president; Mrs. Ewell Gay, honorary life president; Mrs. W. H. Kiser, first vice president; Mrs. Frank Lennon, second vice president; Mrs. Joel Hurt, Jr., third vice president; Mrs. William P. Hill, secretary; Mrs. Brooks Morgan, treasurer; Mrs. Wilmer Moore, Sr. and Mrs. Paul Seydel, concert directors.

As this meeting will be open to the public, tickets may be secured from Mrs. Wilmer Moore, 36 West Eleventh street, or from Phillips & Crew.

Tea Compliments Miss Inman's Visitors.

Miss Louise Edwards, of Birmingham, and Miss Louise Howarth, of Philadelphia, were complimented at a tea Wednesday afternoon by Miss Latrelle Smaw, at her home in Peachtree street.

Miss Smaw and her guests were assisted in entertaining by Miss Eugenia Buchanan and her guest, Miss Lillie May Stanton, Miss Sara Hanahan and her two guests, Miss Grace Everett, of Plattsburg, N. Y., and Miss Elizabeth Webb, of Shelby, N. C.; Miss Evelyn Knox, Miss Elizabeth Lowe, Miss Sophie Horn and Miss Ninetta Sharp.

Don't let constipation make you an invalid —relieve it with Kellogg's Bran Few people realize how dangerous is constipation until this dread disease tears down their health. Did you know that more than forty serious diseases can be traced to constipation?

Keep your health, or restore it, with Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. It brings relief in mild and chronic cases of constipation. It is effective because it is ALL bran. That is why it is recommended so highly by doctors. They know that only ALL bran can bring 100 per cent results. Part bran is, at best, only a halfway measure.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran will bring permanent relief—even in the most chronic case. It is guaranteed to do so. If it fails, your grocer will return your money.

Miss Pitts Weds John S. Owens, Jr., At Brilliant Church Ceremony

Montgomery, Ala., June 4.—One of the most brilliant weddings of the season was that of Miss Ellen Caroline Pitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Edwin Pitts, of Montgomery, and John Sheffield Owens, Jr., of Atlanta, which was solemnized Wednesday evening at the Court Street Methodist church in Montgomery.

The ceremony, performed at 8:30 o'clock, was characterized by great beauty and was witnessed by a large gathering of friends and relatives and including prominent out-of-town guests. Dr. Hal S. Spragins, pastor of the historic Court Street church, performed the impressive wedding service.

Wedding Music.
An appropriate selection of wedding music was rendered during the assembling of the guests by Mrs. James Haygood, organist, who played "Lieberstraum," "Love Song" and "Water Lily." Mrs. Fannie Marks Seibels, violinist, played "The Old Refrain" by Kreisler, and "Melody." During the ceremony Schubert's "Serenade" was played. The bridal chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was used as a processional and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played for recessional.

The church was beautifully decorated with rich green palms and smilax. A white lattice, covered with Loretta branches, screened the organ loft and four tall cathedral candelabra, burning white tapers were placed against the green foliage, alternating with white wicker baskets filled with Easter lilies. The pulpit was banked with white roses and plumosa and at intervals down the aisle were tall standards of white roses tied with graceful ribbons.

The pews reserved for members of the families were marked by gorgeous bouquets of bride's roses tied with white maline.

Bridal Party.
The bridesmaids included a coterie of lovely young women, representative of Alabama's foremost families, Misses Elleen Gunter, Katherine Tabor, Ethel Salter, Isabel Reasley, Carolyn Culloway, Mrs. Sanders Hickey, of Atlanta, and Miss Elizabeth Lee, of Lynchburg, Va.

They entered singly and wore beautiful Collet models of banana-colored chiffon elaborately trimmed in bangle lace and ostrich bands to match. The gowns were made with empire waist, rainbow-colored ribbons and hand-made ribbon flowers finishing the waistline and falling to the edge of the skirt, which was bouffant. The bouquets were showers of sunburst roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Julie Pitts, sister of the bride, entered alone. Preceding the bride came the dainty flower girl, Martha Hall, of Morristown, N. J., small niece of the groom. Her lovely frock was of flesh chiffon trimmed with narrow cream lace. She carried an arm basket of pink rosebuds and rose petals.

The groomsmen were Preston Watson, of Montgomery; Wayne Martin, Frank Harold, George Weyman, Frank Owens, all of Atlanta; Edward Hall, of Morristown, N. J.; Charlie Pencher and Edwin Pitts, of Montgomery.

The bride entered the church with her father, William Pitts, and they were met at the altar by Mr. Owens and his brother, Donovan Owens, who acted as his best man.

Beautiful Bride.
The bride, who is a noted beauty, was exquisitely lovely in her bridal robe which was an exquisite straight line Collet model of white crepe Romaine with pleated inserts from knee to hem to give a bell effect to the bottom of the skirt. The gown had an all-over embroidery in seed pearls in original design, enhanced with rhinestones. The train, three yards long, was embroidered in pearls and rhinestones to match the design of the gown. Her bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley combined with Parlatense fern and ribbons tied with sprays of valley lilies.

A brilliant reception at the home of the bride's parents on South Perry street followed the ceremony. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Pitts, the bride and groom, the members of the wedding party, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Owens, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Owens, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall, of New Jersey.

Mrs. Pitts, mother of the bride, wore a gown of flesh-colored duchess with elaborate embroidery in pearls. The handsome interior of the home made a fitting setting for the lovely decorations of palms and masses of pink roses. The receiving line was formed in the spacious drawing room before a bank of palms and pedestal vases holding pink roses and lilies. The chandeliers and side lights were garlanded with smilax.

In the dining room the bride's table had an imported lace cover veiling white satin. Adorning the center was the exquisite wedding cake, made in the form of a heart, garlanded with La France roses and resting on a mound of lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern. At intervals about the table were silver vases filled with lilies of the valley and pink rosebuds. Compotes held mints and bonbons embossed in pink rosebuds.

The porches were enclosed and were decorated with palms and ornamental plants. The sides were covered with garlands of smilax and studded with pink roses. Punch was served from artistically decorated tables by Miss Mink Steiner, Miss May Wood, Miss Margaret Thorington and Mrs. Wiley Croom Hill, Jr.

A coterie of young matrons and girl friends of the bride assisted. During the evening a beautiful program of music was rendered by an orchestra directed by Otto de Palma.

Later in the evening the young couple left for a wedding trip. The bride traveling in a handsome three-piece costume of sand-colored flat crepe with citron trimmings.

Mrs. Owens is one of the most beautiful young girls in Alabama society. She is of brunette type and her charm and vivacity have made her a belle wherever she has visited. She attended Hollins college, Virginia, and afterward spent a year of travel in Europe. Her paternal and maternal ancestors have been prominent in the history of Alabama.

Her father is president of the Pitts

South Carolina Visitor Will Be Given Luncheon

Miss Jane Taylor, of Spartanburg, S. C., who is the attractive guest of Miss Sara Fisher, will be honor guest Friday at a buffet luncheon to be given by Miss Fisher at her home in the Pershing Point apartments.

Invited to meet Miss Taylor are Misses Kate Thompson, Adeline Winston, Miss Julianne Hagan, Sophie Candler, Laura Candler, Catherine Redwine, of Gainesville, Ga.; Katherine Raine, Jeannette Bailey, Lillian Cain, Mary Armstrong, Mary Wellborn, Jane Davison, Betty Davison, Anna Lester Patterson, of Clearwater, Fla.; Frances Floyd, Elizabeth Crankshaw, Runa Erwin, Virginia Howard, Leticia Johnson, Elizabeth Johnson, Lula Lewis, Ruth Osburn, Zoe Fisher, of Newnan, Ga.; Grey Foote and Anne Spalding.

The hostess will be assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. H. M. Fisher.

Miss Taylor will share honors with Miss Catherine Redwine, of Gainesville, Ga., who is the guest of Miss Catherine Candler, and Miss Anna Lester Patterson, of Clearwater, Fla., who is the guest of Miss Jane Davison, at the bridge-luncheon Monday to be given by Miss Ruth Osburn at her home in Brookwood Hills.

Miss Elizabeth Crankshaw will give a box party at the Lyric theater on Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Fisher's visitor.

Other parties will be given for Miss Fisher and Miss Taylor by Miss Julianne Hagan and Miss Leticia Johnson.

Brides-Elect Given Beautiful Tea-Party.

Miss Elizabeth Candler Owens and Miss Lucy Magill Candler were the honor guests at a tea given by Mrs. William Candler at the Biltmore hotel on Wednesday afternoon.

The guests were received on the terrace of the Biltmore overlooking the formal garden. On the terrace was a graceful arrangement of palms, ferns, smilax and growing plants forming a charming setting for the airy costumes of the guests.

The beautifully appointed tea table was covered with a real lace cloth and adorning the center was a large basket filled with roses, snapdragons, sweet peas, larkspur, poppies and other garden flowers in Dresden shades.

Mrs. Candler was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Anna Candler, Jr., Mrs. D. B. Teabaut, Mrs. Henry Heinz, Mrs. Howard Candler, Mrs. Walter Candler, Mrs. George Ivey, of Charlotte, N. C.; Miss Oda Teabaut, Miss Emmie Nixon, Miss Katherine Haverly, Miss Louise Inman, Miss Catherine Candler and Miss Laura Candler.

Two hundred guests were invited.

West End Women Serve Luncheon.

The ladies of West End Christian church continue their restaurant at 132 Peachtree street. Good home cooked chicken pies, baked ham, roast beef, vegetables and desserts are served.

The public is cordially invited.

Shoe company, and Mrs. Pitts was before her marriage Miss Julia Walters, of the well-known Walters family of Snowdown, Ala.

Mr. Owens is prominent and popular in the business and social circles of Atlanta. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Owens and a brother of Donovan Owens and Mrs. Edward B. Hall, of Morristown, N. J.

He is a graduate of West High school, where he was a member of the University of Georgia. Mr. Owens is a popular member of the Chi Phi fraternity and returned last year from England, where he attended Oxford university after his graduation from the University of Georgia. He is a representative of distinguished families prominent in the early history and upbuilding of Georgia.

Chamberlin-Johnson- DuBose Co.

Lots of Springtime Slippers for the Kiddies

Child's Oxfords

—Patent Leather, Red Kid, Brown Kid—light, flexible, serviceable.

—Sizes 2 to 5, $2.45
—Sizes 5½ to 8, $2.95

Olive Elk Sandals

flexible, soft and very serviceable.

—5½ to 8, $2.95
—8½ to 11, $3.45
—11½ to 2, $3.95

Child's White Calfskin Oxfords

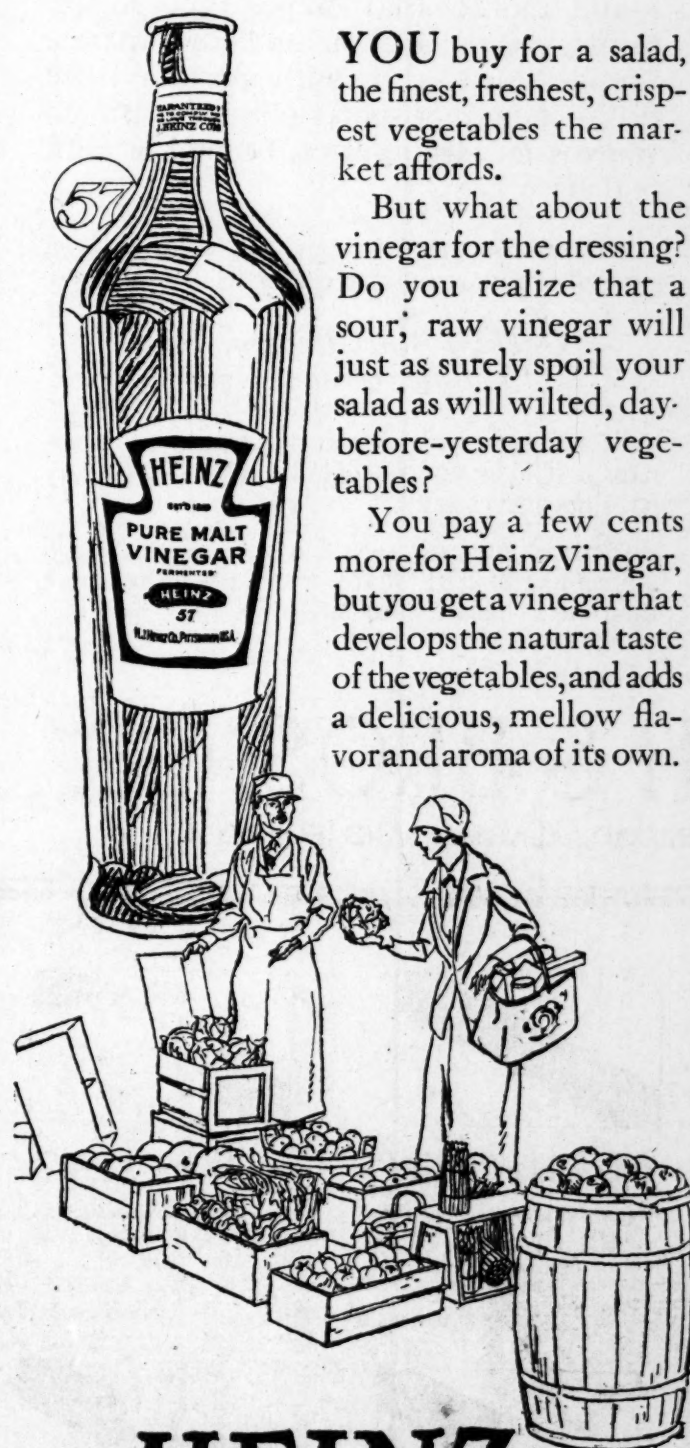

Excellent for summer wear, very serviceable.

—Sizes 8½ to 11, $3.95

Child's Sandals

—Patent Leather, Red Kid, Brown Kid—light, flexible, serviceable.

—Sizes 2 to 5, $2.45
—Sizes 5½ to 8, $2.95

YOU buy for a salad, the finest, freshest, crispest vegetables the market affords.

But what about the vinegar for the dressing? Do you realize that a sour, raw vinegar will just as surely spoil your salad as wilted, day-before-yesterday vegetables?

You pay a few cents more for Heinz Vinegar, but you get a vinegar that develops the natural taste of the vegetables, and adds a delicious, mellow flavor and aroma of its own.

HEINZ PURE Vinegars

Hodgson-McNeel Wedding Is Brilliant Event at Athens

Athens, Ga., June 4.—The wedding of Miss Hazel Eveleth Hodgson and Morgan Louis McNeel, Jr., of Marietta, was beautifully solemnized on Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the First Baptist church. Dr. J. C. Wilkinson, pastor of the church, officiated, using the ring ceremony which always adds interest and impressiveness.

Hugh Hodgson rendered a program of music arranged in attractive and effective form during the seating of the distinguished company of guests and played the wedding marches, Lohegrin's as the processional and Mendelssohn's as the long line of attendants left the church.

Handsome Decorations.

The church, one of the most stately in the south, with its ivy and mahogany woodwork combining artistically with the mass of greenery, myriads of sparkling white candles and gorgeous white flowers, created a scene of beauty. The altar, extending nearly the length of one end of the spacious church, was adorned with palms arranged in pyramidal effect to the rear of the platform, and eleven pedestals topped by seven-branched candelabra holding white candles were placed against the dark background. Floor baskets, graduated in height, filled with lilies and asparagus fern, were set farther to the front, forming a decorative and delightful touch. The two columns were festooned from top to floor with amilax which also fell in charming grace from atop the door arches, and draped the railings. The prie Dieu held a white satin cushion finished with heavy silk tassels and bearing a delicate tracery of valley lilies. The pews were finished with great clusters of white lilies and fern caught with fluffy tulle bows.

Wedding Attendance.

The ushers included Messrs. E. R. Hodgson, Morton Hodgson and Walter Hodgson, of Athens, Dr. Frederick Hodgson and Robert Woodruff, of Atlanta, and the bride, Charles DeFoor, of Marietta, and Harry and Edward Hodgson, brothers of the bride.

The bridesmaids were Miss Dotty Gross, of Milwaukee; Miss Dot Hamilton, of Athens and Paris; Miss Elizabeth Harris, Miss Kathryn Ashford, of Athens; Miss Elizabeth Ashford, of Madison; Miss Virginia Boston, of Marietta; Miss Margaret McNeel, of Marietta.

Their beautiful old-fashioned gowns reflected the pastel shades of taffeta, and were made alike. The long full-ruffled skirts revealed underneath dainty lace frilling pantalettes. Hand-made roses adorned waistline and a silver lace bertha finished the low round neck. They carried old-fashioned nosegays of cornflowers, snapdragons, roses, delphinium, daisies, valley lilies, and baby breath. Adorning their hair were flower coronets, each made of flowers to match the gown, combined with silver ribbons.

Miss Virginia Hodgson, only sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a lovely gown of lace frills veiling shell pink taffeta. Mrs. Bolling Jones II, of Atlanta, aunt of the bride and matron of honor, was gowned in French blue chiffon draping chiffon of an exquisite orchid shade.

The flower girls, little Miss Agnes White, in pink, and Miss Betty Crews, in blue, wore frocks duplicating the old-fashioned style of the maids, affecting, too, the head-dress and bouquets.

The groom had as his best man, his brother, Eugene McNeel, of Marietta, and his groomsmen included Messrs. James Johnston, Stewart Coleman, Horace Rhorer, of Atlanta; William Shiley, Charles Gardner, Ed Simpson, Frank McNeel, and A. D. Little, of Marietta.

Radiant Bride.

The bride entered with her father, Harry Hodgson, by whom she was given in marriage. Her bridal gown was an artistic creation, modeled in the fashion of the sixties, emphasizing the combination of chiffon, pearls and princess lace. The waist was trimmed in pearls and insets of real lace medallions. The hoop skirt, fashioned from two wide lace ruffles with chiffon between, which were outlined with pearls, was made over white satin, the long satin train was caught to a plaited lace ruche which extended from shoulder to shoulder. A deep band of princess lace finished the train and the entire veil was of the beautiful real lace. A band of orange blossoms encircled the bride's dark hair and held in place the veil which fell from a lace fan-shaped frill to the end of her train. Clusters of baroque pearls finished the waist line. She carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies and bride's roses.

Brilliant Reception.

A brilliant reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hodgson, on Milledge avenue. The building orchestra, of the University of Georgia, seated on the porch amid palms and ferns and flowers, played during the evening. The reception rooms were adorned with beautiful flowers of pink and white effectively combined. The bride's table was circular and overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a long mirror bordered with Dorothy Perkins roses. A silver loving cup in the center overlaid with flowers of variegated hue, suggesting colorful tints of the gowns of the bridesmaids. Silver candlesticks held pink candles and silver dishes, mints hand-decorated in flowers to match the daintily colored individual cakes. Strolling about this garden in miniature were the tiniest of old-fashioned lady dolls, their bouffant dresses of taffeta made to conform to the style of the bridesmaids' gowns, each skirt concealing an electric light—these attractive appointments being gifts of the bride to her attendants. Covers were placed for twenty.

Assisting in entertaining were Miss Marjorie Hodgson, Mrs. James Park, Mrs. Dan H. Magill, Miss Queen Holden and Miss Katherine Park, and the ladies of the Hodgson family. Mrs. Hodgson, the bride's mother, wore orchid chiffon headed in crystals, a straight model with a choux of the chiffon to one side in the back. A corsage bouquet of orchids and valley lilies completed a lovely costume.

Mrs. McNeel, mother of the groom, was gowned in a handsome model of powder blue chiffon, her corsage bouquet of pink sweetpeas and valley lilies adding a pretty touch.

During the evening Mr. McNeel and his bride left for an extended wedding journey after which they will be at home in Marietta.

The bride's traveling suit was of brown heavy crepe tucked and with this she wore a handsome brown coat with collar of fur.

Distinguished Families.

Mrs. McNeel is descended from a family long identified with the history of Athens. Her grandfather, the late Edward Reginald Hodgson, was a man of great ability and prominence. He was the founder of the Empire Chemical company and the Hodgson Cotton company, and besides these interests gave generously of his cooperation to the Rabun Gap industrial school and other worthy enterprises. The paternal grandmother, Mrs. Hodgson, was Miss Mary Virginia Strahan, of Baltimore, and is a woman of great charm and beauty.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hodgson, inheriting from both the Hodgson family and her mother, who was formerly the beautiful Miss Marie Bishop Lowe, of Chicago, many social charms and graces which have secured for her a long list of admirers and friends wherever she has visited.

She attended school at Lucy Cobb institute, going later to the Ely Court school, Greenwich, Conn., from where she was graduated. Since finishing school she has had the cultural advantages of wide travel, having visited in many cities of the south and east. She has often been an admired guest of her relatives in Atlanta who are Dr. and Mrs. Fred G. Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Bolling Jones, II, and Mrs. McNeel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan L. McNeel, of Marietta, who are prominently identified in social and financial circles in Marietta and Atlanta. He received his education at Georgia Tech where he was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is a popular member of the Piedmont Driving club and the Nine O'Clocks, one of the city's most exclusive social organizations.

The groom holds a responsible executive position with the McNeel Marble company, of Marietta.

Among the distinguished guests at the occasion were three grandmothers of the bride and groom: Mrs. Matilda Bishop Lowe, Mrs. E. R. Hodgson, Sr., and Mrs. McNeel, of Marietta; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dullis, ex-Governor and Mrs. Hugh M. Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly DuBose, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Bolling Jones, II, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ashcraft, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Newell, all of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan McNeel, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNeel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeFoor, Mr. and Mrs. Trammell, of Marietta.

Annual Reception To Be Given Tech Men.

The annual reception to the senior class of the Georgia School of Technology will take place at the president's home, 142 West North avenue, from 5 to 7, Friday afternoon, June 6. Music will be furnished by the college orchestra.

Receiving with President and Mrs. Brittain.

Mrs. Brittain will be former Governor and Mrs. N. E. Harris, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Emerson and the following young ladies: Misses Irene Thomas, Mary Tuller, Catherine Cannady, Edna Belle Baine, Reulah Perkins, Martha Madlock, Mildred Bawel, Caroline Ciles, Corday Rice, Harriet Shelden, Ada Peoples, Marion Wolff, Arabella Dudley, Adelaide Cannady, Mary Knight, Mary Imman Pearce, Virginia Brittain.

Mrs. Clark Howell And Mrs. Block Honored at Luncheon

Mrs. Price Gilbert's luncheon Wednesday at the Piedmont Driving club was given in compliment to Mrs. Clark Howell, Sr., and Mrs. Francis Block, who has recently returned from Europe where she spent the past four months.

The clubhouse was decorated with palms and ferns. Exquisite cut flowers filling silver baskets and vases were arranged on the mantels and console tables. Luncheon was served in the main dining room, and around the side of the walls were banded palms and wall baskets filled with Easter lilies and trailing vines of Dorothy Perkins roses.

The round table was overlaid with a cover of real lace, and adorning the center was a French wicker basket filled with Madonna lilies and Dorothy Perkins roses. Placed at either side of the central decoration was a gold French basket holding white and pink American Beauty roses. Silver compots were placed at intervals filled with Dresden shaded mints, dipped grapes and cherries.

Mrs. Gilbert wore a handsome gown of deep cream-embroidered batiste and real lace over black satin finished with a black and gold sash. Her hat of black was trimmed with gold maline and burnt goose.

Mrs. Howell was gowned in brown satin, combined with bands of hand-embroidered batiste, and her gold colored hat was trimmed in a single yellow rose and a brown lace veil.

Mrs. Block wore a gown of blue georgette crepe combined with lace, and her hat was of orchid maline, faced with black lace, and trimmed with lace.

Mrs. Ada Watts, of Columbus, who assisted in receiving, wore a gown of black chiffon, and her black hat was trimmed with small lavender flowers.

Study Class Postpones Meeting.

The mothers' study class of the Kirkwood Parent-Teacher association postponed its meeting from Wednesday, June 4, to Wednesday, June 11, on account of the closing exercises of the schools. The class will meet at the home of Mrs. Kate Green Hess at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

request the honor of your presence at the marriage of

The June Bride

to

The Groom of June

Every day, June 5th to 14th at the Bride's Own Cottage

Fourth Floor

R. S. V. P. (in person)

Al Fresco

The June Bride and Her Home

The House of Ideas

Now Becomes

The June Bride's Own Cottage

(Furnished on Our Budget Plan)

We hope everybody will accept our invitation to see the June Bride's al fresco wedding and to take a peep into the June Bride's home, where all is in readiness to receive her following the ceremony in the garden.

The Sun Room

Gleaming with sunshine from without and within with its gay orange draperies, valance of brilliant figured chintz, and comfortable brightly cushioned wicker furniture.

The Bedroom

Here again the attractive furniture in parchment finish, done in our own workshop, and the colorful chintz draperies, are going to vie for your attention with the bride's intimate trousseau, all spread for her friends' inspection.

The Living Room

Smartly up-to-date, yet thoroughly livable, in old gold hangings, tones of old blue and rose, furniture that never becomes tiresome by daily contact.

The Guest Room

Not a visitor but will think "how I'd love to be a guest in this delightful room!"—rose color, for pleasant dreams! A room that says "welcome" in a simply exquisite, unassuming way.

The Dining Room

One can scarcely take time for the splendid walnut furniture and charming hangings of glazed chintz when here's the bride's table with the wedding cake and all the exquisite bridal decorations!

The Room of Gifts

A fortunate bride indeed who receives gifts such as these! Gifts handsome or very simple. Gifts that prove that a gift may be inexpensive, yet beautiful. All assembled from our various gift sections.

The Budget Plan

A delightful feature of the Bride's home is this:

Each room has been furnished with the idea of showing just what an attractive effect may be achieved with the minimum outlay.

Those interested in home furnishing and re-furnishing are cordially invited to consult with our experts on the fourth floor. A competent expert in interior decorating will assist in planning the attractive assemblies of furniture, rugs, and hangings for any room or the entire home.

The budget plan is most elastic. No matter how modest the family income may be, we are prepared to work out with you a satisfactory scheme of furnishing your home attractively and on terms that will prove agreeable.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

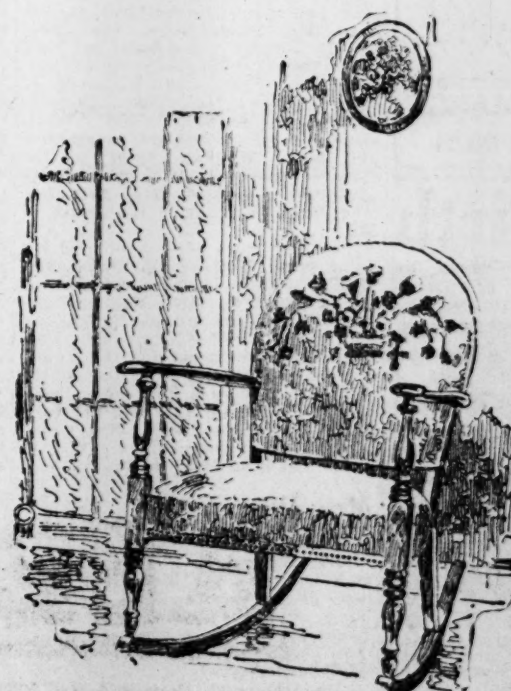

In the Bride's Home

There's a charming simplicity throughout the bride's home that makes an irresistible appeal to all home-lovers. And especially so to prospective home-builders and those who plan a change to "something different."

Many a couple will exclaim with pleasure "why we can afford this," when they see how cleverly our budget plan has it all figured out—and how inexpensive.

—Fourth Floor

FOUGHT UNDER 'OLD HICKORY'

Widow of 1812 Rifleman Living in Tennessee—Says She Has Used Black-Draught for Twenty Years.

South Pittsburg, Tenn.—Mrs. Louisa Wade, who lives here with her son, Mr. Van Thompson, is the widow of Farleigh Wade, a Virginia rifleman, who fought with Gen. Andrew Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans, in the War of 1812. Mrs. Wade, herself 87 years old, draws a pension from the government on account of the services of the old militiaman in that war. In spite of her years Mrs. Wade is active and in good health, visiting her different relatives and taking a great interest in current affairs.

"We have used Black-Draught in our family for twenty years," says Mrs. Wade. "A long time ago I began to use this splendid medicine for biliousness. I have suffered a great deal during my life from constipation and nothing seems to do me as much good as Black-Draught. I have found no relief like Black-Draught and I have tried many remedies."

"For the dull, heavy headache, which comes from a clogged condition of the system, I regard Black-Draught as a fine remedy. Sometimes I take it in the form of a tea and sometimes I take it dry so."

"For years I was never without it in the house. Now I don't keep house, but I get this old standby when I need it."

Over nine million packages sold a year. Try it. Sold everywhere.

Thedford's
BLACK-DRAUGHT
LIVER MEDICINE

Padgett-Weathers Marriage Event of Wednesday Evening

A beautiful home wedding of Wednesday evening was that of Miss Dorothy Padgett and Charles Weathers, Jr., taking place at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hammond, on the Prado in Ansley Park. A beautiful bit of sentiment was that the marriage also celebrated the twelfth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond.

The Rev. C. V. Weathers, father of the groom, performed the ceremony. Miss Violet Welborn, of Anderson, S. C., played Lohengrin's Wedding March, rendering a program of appropriate selections while the guests were assembling.

The rooms of the home were artistically decorated in summer flowers, white and pink being the color scheme. Palms and lilies were used with the myriads of lighted candles that furnished a setting of rare beauty for the bride and her guests.

Lovely Bride.
The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marsh Padgett, and her only attendant was a little niece, Miss Caroline Frances Hammond, who was flower girl.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Louise Maurer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ferdinand Maurer, and Ernest Deneen Trotti will take place this morning at 11 o'clock at the Sacred Heart church.

Mrs. Walter Candler will be hostess at a bridge-luncheon at the Biltmore hotel for Miss Lucy Candler and Miss Elizabeth Owens.

This afternoon Mrs. James Carlton and Mrs. Herman Ewins will be joint hostesses at a bridge-tee for Miss Elizabeth Owens, Miss Lucy Candler and Miss Elizabeth Kontz, another lovely bride-elect of June.

A 6 o'clock alfresco tea will be given by Mrs. Bulow Campbell at her home on Andrews Drive in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Kontz.

Mrs. Mabelle Shropshire Wall will present a group of her piano pupils at Cable hall at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in the second of the series of recitals arranged for the season.

Mrs. Karl Hester and Mrs. Jarrell Black, of Marietta, will be hostesses at a party for Miss Augusta Cohen and Miss Mary Gilbert, brides-elect.

Mrs. Irl Ferrand O'Neal will present a group of her piano pupils in a recital in Steinway hall today at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Harold Youmans will give an afternoon tea today in compliment to Miss Jewell Harrison, a bride-elect.

Mrs. Jack Clarke will entertain at a bridge-tee at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue complimentary to Miss Leila May Jenkins.

Mrs. Guy D. Ayer will entertain at luncheon at the Piedmont Driving club in compliment to Mrs. Zepherus Gaston and Mrs. Robert Burnett, of Birmingham, Ala., who are the guests of Mrs. F. A. Wilson-Lawson.

Georgia Tech tea-dance at Barbour hall this afternoon from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock, as the first of commencement week festivities.

Georgia Tech Junior prom at the Brookhaven Country club.

Mrs. Newton Craig will entertain this afternoon at her home on Muscogee avenue in honor of Mrs. Clark Howell, Sr.

Mrs. Percy H. Plant will give a matinee party at the Lyric theater followed by a tea.

Mrs. W. A. Kimbell will entertain at a buffet supper following the rehearsal of the wedding of Miss Emily Earle Dunn and Alfred Loftin Oslin, Jr.

Mrs. J. D. Willingham will entertain at a bridge-luncheon at her home on Beecher street in compliment to Miss Roberta McCreary.

This afternoon Mrs. Hugh Howell will entertain at a matinee party at the Atlanta theater in compliment to Miss Roberta McCreary.

Fair-Weather Wives

BY MILDRED BARBOUR

The Opening of a Chrysalis.

The fortnight at the Thornton Baynes, was illuminating to Marjorie in many ways.

For the first time she was really a participant in the world of society and fashion which was the breath of life to Mrs. Boice-Nevis.

She had emerged from the chrysalis into the butterfly in an incredibly short time. Cinderella had become the fairy princess overnight. And, curiously enough, the evolution was accomplished quite easily and gracefully.

There was nothing gauche about it—or about Marjorie. Her poise was admirable and enviable. Her gravity, the wisdom of her dark-fringed eyes and soft red mouth lent her the distinction of mystery, an alluring contrast to the noisy, shrill-voiced, self-obvious flappers.

"She looks like the Blessed Damsel herself," was Mrs. Thornton Baynes's comment to an intimate, "but I'd wager my best pearls she's a regular little devil underneath. The quiet ones are deepest and make the biggest ripples in the end."

Marjorie found enjoyment and a species of incredulity in her own sudden importance. Mrs. Boice-Nevis was insistent that Mathilda do her hair these days. Frocks and hats and sheerest lingerie were sent up from town by exclusive shops for her selection. She, who had never known a jewel except the little girl trinkets that had come with birthdays and holidays, suddenly found herself possessed of a necklace of square-cut sapphires that deepened the gentian of her eyes to violet.

Dan was at the station to meet them the day they returned to "Soundview."

The limousine with the coat of arms on the door and Jenkins in uniform, with upraised arm stiffly at attention beside it, brought an inquiring look from Marjorie to her mother. She had thought all these outward and visible signs of wealth forever put aside.

Mrs. Boice-Nevis was quite serene and untroubled. Her pretty doll face reflected not a flicker of anxiety. She greeted Dan affectionately, inquiring if he had had a pleasant fortnight.

"Beastly!" he answered shortly. "The governor got out a few days after you left and I moved over to the club. Had a rotten time. No money for bridge. I say, mother, he broke out, 'what in the name of Pete are you going to do? I'm likely to be posted for dues any day. I don't pay up pretty soon, and you ought to see the bills at home. Hutchins, been dumping them in the library, and you can barely get the door open now.'"

Mrs. Boice-Nevis drummed lightly on the plate glass of the car window with prettily gloved fingers. Her smile was mysterious, reflective.

"Trust me, Danny. Remember, I'm all you have to look to now since your father failed you."

A hot protest was on Marjorie's lips at this slander of an intimate, but I'd wager my best pearls she's a regular little devil underneath. The quiet ones are deepest and make the biggest ripples in the end."

Marjorie found enjoyment and a species of incredulity in her own sudden importance. Mrs. Boice-Nevis was insistent that Mathilda do her hair these days. Frocks and hats and sheerest lingerie were sent up from town by exclusive shops for her selection. She, who had never known a jewel except the little girl trinkets that had come with birthdays and holidays, suddenly found herself possessed of a necklace of square-cut sapphires that deepened the gentian of her eyes to violet.

Dan was at the station to meet them the day they returned to "Soundview."

The limousine with the coat of arms on the door and Jenkins in uniform, with upraised arm stiffly at attention beside it, brought an inquiring look from Marjorie to her mother. She had thought all these outward and visible signs of wealth forever put aside.

Mrs. Boice-Nevis was quite serene and untroubled. Her pretty doll face reflected not a flicker of anxiety. She greeted Dan affectionately, inquiring if he had had a pleasant fortnight.

"Beastly!" he answered shortly. "The governor got out a few days after you left and I moved over to the club. Had a rotten time. No money for bridge. I say, mother, he broke out, 'what in the name of Pete are you going to do? I'm likely to be posted for dues any day. I don't pay up pretty soon, and you ought to see the bills at home. Hutchins, been dumping them in the library, and you can barely get the door open now.'"

Mrs. Boice-Nevis drummed lightly on the plate glass of the car window with prettily gloved fingers. Her smile was mysterious, reflective.

"Trust me, Danny. Remember, I'm all you have to look to now since your father failed you."

A hot protest was on Marjorie's lips at this slander of an intimate, but I'd wager my best pearls she's a regular little devil underneath. The quiet ones are deepest and make the biggest ripples in the end."

Marjorie found enjoyment and a species of incredulity in her own sudden importance. Mrs. Boice-Nevis was insistent that Mathilda do her hair these days. Frocks and hats and sheerest lingerie were sent up from town by exclusive shops for her selection. She, who had never known a jewel except the little girl trinkets that had come with birthdays and holidays, suddenly found herself possessed of a necklace of square-cut sapphires that deepened the gentian of her eyes to violet.

Dan was at the station to meet them the day they returned to "Soundview."

The limousine with the coat of arms on the door and Jenkins in uniform, with upraised arm stiffly at attention beside it, brought an inquiring look from Marjorie to her mother. She had thought all these outward and visible signs of wealth forever put aside.

Mrs. Boice-Nevis was quite serene and untroubled. Her pretty doll face reflected not a flicker of anxiety. She greeted Dan affectionately, inquiring if he had had a pleasant fortnight.

"Beastly!" he answered shortly. "The governor got out a few days after you left and I moved over to the club. Had a rotten time. No money for bridge. I say, mother, he broke out, 'what in the name of Pete are you going to do? I'm likely to be posted for dues any day. I don't pay up pretty soon, and you ought to see the bills at home. Hutchins, been dumping them in the library, and you can barely get the door open now.'"

Mrs. Boice-Nevis drummed lightly on the plate glass of the car window with prettily gloved fingers. Her smile was mysterious, reflective.

"Trust me, Danny. Remember, I'm all you have to look to now since your father failed you."

A hot protest was on Marjorie's lips at this slander of an intimate, but I'd wager my best pearls she's a regular little devil underneath. The quiet ones are deepest and make the biggest ripples in the end."

Marjorie found enjoyment and a species of incredulity in her own sudden importance. Mrs. Boice-Nevis was insistent that Mathilda do her hair these days. Frocks and hats and sheerest lingerie were sent up from town by exclusive shops for her selection. She, who had never known a jewel except the little girl trinkets that had come with birthdays and holidays, suddenly found herself possessed of a necklace of square-cut sapphires that deepened the gentian of her eyes to violet.

Dan was at the station to meet them the day they returned to "Soundview."

The limousine with the coat of arms on the door and Jenkins in uniform, with upraised arm stiffly at attention beside it, brought an inquiring look from Marjorie to her mother. She had thought all these outward and visible signs of wealth forever put aside.

Mrs. Boice-Nevis was quite serene and untroubled. Her pretty doll face reflected not a flicker of anxiety. She greeted Dan affectionately, inquiring if he had had a pleasant fortnight.

"Beastly!" he answered shortly. "The governor got out a few days after you left and I moved over to the club. Had a rotten time. No money for bridge. I say, mother, he broke out, 'what in the name of Pete are you going to do? I'm likely to be posted for dues any day. I don't pay up pretty soon, and you ought to see the bills at home. Hutchins, been dumping them in the library, and you can barely get the door open now.'"

Mrs. Boice-Nevis drummed lightly on the plate glass of the car window with prettily gloved fingers. Her smile was mysterious, reflective.

"Trust me, Danny. Remember, I'm all you have to look to now since your father failed you."

A hot protest was on Marjorie's lips at this slander of an intimate, but I'd wager my best pearls she's a regular little devil underneath. The quiet ones are deepest and make the biggest ripples in the end."

Marjorie found enjoyment and a species of incredulity in her own sudden importance. Mrs. Boice-Nevis was insistent that Mathilda do her hair these days. Frocks and hats and sheerest lingerie were sent up from town by exclusive shops for her selection. She, who had never

PAINLEVE ELECTED CHAMBER PRESIDENT

Paris, June 4.—(By The Associated Press.)—President Millerand summoned Paul Painleve, former premier and newly elected president of the chamber of deputies, to the Elysee palace to day for a consultation in regard to the formation of a new cabinet to succeed the outgoing cabinet headed by Raymond Poincare.

The consultation at the Elysee will take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, after which the president of the republic will receive in audience, Gaston Doumergue, president of the senate.

Painleve today was elected president of the chamber of deputies, 296 votes having been cast for him as against 200 for Andre Maginot, former minister of war. Andre Marty, who served a prison sentence for his part in the Black Sea fleet mutiny before Sebastopol, received twenty-seven votes for the presidency of the chamber.

The chances of M. Painleve for the presidency of the republic are thought to have been somewhat shaken by the result of the voting in the chamber, as his vote for the presidency of that body represents only a majority of twelve of its full strength.

On the other hand the friends of President Millerand are much encouraged by the unexpected strength shown in opposing the former premier.

"The coalition of the left," M. Millerand's friends said after the balloting, "looked for victory, but sagely. The reaction was bound to come. Mr. Herriot is quite as likely as M. Millerand to be a victim of the unprecedented situation brought about by the campaign of the socialists against the present occupant of the Elysee."

The majority of sixty out of a total vote of 552 was a disappointment to the leaders of the left bloc and a surprise to the opposition. M. Painleve polled less than the total vote of the joint caucus of the coalition on Sunday while M. Maginot received much stronger support than his friends had counted upon. The conclusion of the voting after the balloting was announced was that in view of the fact that there were more than forty abstentions and most of them outside of the bloc of the left, the margin of the new majority would be precariously small.

The Old Colony club, of Atlanta, a unit of the national chain of clubs in principal cities throughout the country, will open quarters on the second floor of the Piedmont hotel rooms, this afternoon, at 5 o'clock, announced by D. D. Brock, executive secretary for the southeast.

Mr. Brock, who is here with K. H. Scott, field secretary, to install the new organization, states that the club will start its activities with approximately 100 charter members, including prominent business and professional men of the city.

The Atlanta quarters, which will also be headquarters for the southeastern territory, will consist of lounging rooms, dressing and bathing rooms, and a bath for the convenience of local and visiting Old Colony members. Executive and membership committees of the Atlanta club will be named in the near future.

Establishment of the Atlanta club, which has been in progress for the past five months, brings into being the forty-third club in the national chain.

Executive Secretary Brock points out that service is essentially the keynote of the Old Colony club, the purpose of the organization being to relieve the business men of all petty annoyances attendant upon traveling. It obtains Pullman reservations for traveling members, secures railroad schedule information, obtains theater tickets, makes hotel reservations, supplies shoppers' guarantee cards, handles income tax matters and in many other ways serves its membership.

In addition, its quarters serve as business conference places and rest rooms, while confidential information may be secured from local members or members of out-of-town clubs at request.

NEW GAME LAWS TO BE PROPOSED TO LAWMAKERS

Peter S. Twitty, state commissioner of game and fish, has called a special meeting of the committee on game and fish of the state legislature for Thursday. The committee will discuss what legislation it will place before the assembly at its coming session for the protection of the fish industry of the state and of its game animals. William Tyson, representing McIntosh county, is chairman of the committee.

Bridgeport, Connecticut.—"I was completely run-down, had headaches, dizzy, faint feelings and other troubles women often have."

As I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before, my husband said to take it again. I have now taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, the Liver Pills, and six boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets. I am feeling very good now and shall continue taking them for a while. I have been telling my cousin about the medicine and she wants to take it, too. I always recommend it."

—Mrs. HENRY C. SMITH, R. F. D. No. 3, Box 6, Bridgeport, Conn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for such conditions. It has in many cases relieved those symptoms by removing the cause of them. Mrs. Smith's experience is but one of many.

In a recent country canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, over 121,000 replies were received, and 98 per cent. reported they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Miss Tappan Becomes Bride Of A. S. Farris at Home Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Bessie Tappan to Alton S. Farris was an interesting social event of Wednesday evening, taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tappan, on Springle road. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. G. Shankle, of Grace Methodist church, in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives.

Handsome Decorations.
The spacious lower floor was thrown open for the occasion and quantities of sweetpeas and roses in the shades of pink and white were used in profusion for decoration. The altar, placed in the living room, was banked with palms, and cathedral candles were placed in silver candelabra on the altar, while smilax was gracefully draped on doors and windows.

Miss Ray Ballard played the wedding march and Mrs. Charles McLaughlin sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" just before the entrance of the bride.

Miss Gladys Butler and Mrs. Harriett Keene, ribbon bearers, entered first. They wore gowns of blue Georgette trimmed in lace and silver ribbons and made alike.

Little Miss Carolyn Pearce was the junior bridesmaid and wore a rainbow frock of blue Georgette over pink, trimmed in silver ribbons, and carried an old-fashioned bonnet of pink roses in a lace holder.

The maid of honor was Miss Max Tappan, cousin of the bride, and her costume was of pink Georgette, lace and silver trimmed, and her bouquet of pink roses and sweetpeas.

Beautiful Bride.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in her wedding gown of white Georgette crepe richly embellished in seed pearl design. A veil of tulle formed the train and was caught to her dark hair with a coronet of orange blossoms.

Her bridal bouquet was of the bride's roses and valley lilies, arranged in pink roses. She was met at the altar by the groom and A. H. Johnson, who acted as best man.

Reception to Bridal Party.
An informal reception followed the ceremony. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Tappan in entertaining were Mrs. C. B. Keene, sister of the bride; Mrs. Ray Pearce, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. H. D. Carter. The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Robert Mitchell.

Misses Marian and Lucia Smith served punch.

Mrs. Tappan was given in gray Georgette and wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. Elizabeth Farris, mother of the groom, wore powder blue Georgette over rose satin, headed in crystal.

The bride's going-away costume was of blue Canton crepe embroidered in gray and her cloche hat was of blue straw trimmed in gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Farris left for a brief wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Greenwood, S. C., where Mr. Farris makes headquarters.

Waycross Lions Elect.
Waycross, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—L. E. Pollock, prominent member of the Waycross bar and member of the council of the chamber of commerce, has been elected president of the Lions' club.

Other officers are: First vice pres-

DEFICIENCY MEASURE IS PASSED BY HOUSE

Washington, June 4.—A deficiency appropriation bill, carrying $158,196,000, of which $131,943,000 would be for meeting the first year's cost of the soldiers' bonus, was passed today by the house.

The measure would provide $9,230,000 for the coast guard to meet additional expenses resulting from a recent increase in the service to prevent rum running, and $500,000 for the state department for putting into effect the new immigration law.

Expenditure also would be authorized of $3,500,000 for combating the foot and mouth disease; $2,500,000 for scrapping naval vessels, and $1,000,000 for road construction in national parks.

For a Nickel
Goobar Goodies
A Delicious
Confection

We Thank Our Friends

SINCE the fire of June 1st, which damaged our general offices at 336-338-340 Marietta Street, we have received many expressions of concern and goodwill from our friends. To each one of them we want to say "Thank You" and to announce "business as usual" at our

TEMPORARY OFFICES:

305 - 307 Marietta Street

Our Laboratories and Works at 12-14-16 Latimer Street were not damaged by the fire. We, as manufacturers and distributors of Soaps, Insecticides, Disinfectants and Sanitary Products, look back with pardonable pride upon more than a quarter of a century of uninterrupted service to the South—and, forward, with understanding, to the importance of sanitation to the health and happiness of us all.

THE SELIG COMPANY

Disinfectants and Sanitary Products

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Phones: Ivy 7187-7188

A Friendly Way to Visit Your Entire Trade

EVERY jobber and wholesaler would like to occasionally have a personal, friendly chat with the merchants who are buying their goods.

A face to face meeting with every customer is not always possible, but a personal talk with each one can be had at any time at small cost.

The long distance telephone carries your voice and your personality into the office or store of your customer. It gets you his immediate and undivided attention.

A cheery greeting, a personal assurance of appreciation of continued patronage go a long way toward binding the trade to the house.

The good effect of such a thoughtful act is reflected in the welcome extended your salesman on his next visit.

Station-to-station service at lower rates makes the plan inexpensive.

Why not try it in your business?

C. G. BECK, Georgia Manager

"BELL SYSTEM"
SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

One Policy, One System, Universal Service

Stewart
GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY
FRED S. STEWART CO.
ATLANTA, GA.
Main Floor

A Shoe for Every Occasion

| | | |
|----------------------------|-----------------|------------------|
| White Kid $11 | White Calf $10 | Black Kid $9.00 |
| Patent or Black Satin $10 | | |

| Stages 40 | Merchandise |
|--------------|---|
| Stage. A. G. | Articles for Sale |
| WAl. 4270. | WHITE sugar from factory to Products company, Austell. |

LUMBER — Williams-Flynt L pany. Lumber and building ma
259 Elliott street. IVy 1095.
SANITARY Septic Tanks. P supply systems. W. M. I Arcade.

Business & Office Equ
ADDING MACHINE—In first

CO., 37
WAL-

1890, 29 stores, 135 Peachtree Ave. N.E., apt. 2840
 TYPEWRITERS—$3.00 brings derwood late model Shipm built; we buy, sell, exchange a makes. Quick Service Typewr
 Peachtree Arcade, Atlanta. C
 Walnut 1618

Household Goods
 FURNITURE—Stoves, floor phonographs at bargain. SW
 Co., 131 Whitehall.
 FURNITURE—Lowest prices;

FURNITURE—All kinds stoves sold. 224 Peters street. MAIN

HANDSOME living, dining, bed sacrifice; used six months. Avenue.

musical Merchandise
PIANOS—Slightly used. Visit gain department, 82 North I FLAYER PIANO—Cable solo hogany; rolls less than half der Piano company, 163 North

Radio Equipment
RADIO BATTERY CHARG volts, 60-cycle, three or six
D. C. amperes, also type R-3 radio magnivox; will sacrific 4653.

Seeds, Plants, Flow
POTATO PLANTS—Improved
potato plants, $2 1,000 f. o.
collard plants, $1 1,000 f. o.
Growers, Rockingham, Ga.
POTATO PLANTS—Improved
potato plants, government chemically treated; $2 per 1,000 at $1.65; cash with orders.
Alma, Georgia.

POTATO PLANTS—Genuine Potatoes.
Nancy Hall potato plants $2.25 per 1,000 prepaid over 5,000, $2 per 1,000 prepaid post or express. Government treated. Cash with order. W plants. Southern Plant Company ham, Ga.

POTATO PLANTS—If you want potato plants pay $2.50 per 1,000 get them. Alma Coca-Cola Bo near Alma, Ga.

other perhomefolks.

PORTO RICO Potato Slips, $3.
sand, by express collect; $3. prepaid. Can ship day order
Capital City Seed Co., 33 S. P
Main 3185.

INSURE your cotton against weevil. Attractive prices. sonate and Dinkins Machine purchase 1217 Cliti-second mort-

Y carries

HOUSEHOLD GOODS—Highest price paid for household goods and furniture. Call us, Main 3199, Auerbach Co., 71 S. Broad St.

PIANO—Wanted for cash; good or abused or junk wanted. WANTED.

WANT to buy three-gin Continental and 40-horse electric motor. L. Oxford, N. C.

Rooms and Board
Rooms With Board
 HIGHLAND AVE.—Near Ponca two large cool rooms, furni-furnished. Meals optional. HE JUNIPER, 121—Excellent room veniences; to refined peopl home; two meals if desired.
 6698-J.

JUNIPER STREET—Private home, excellent room, meals if desired. 2067-W.

NORTH AVENUE, EAST, 169—Large room in private home, in mahogany, adjoining bath, fire, ideal surroundings, excellent cuisine. Write tenants. HEmlack 7692-J.

NORTH SIDE—Delightful, large room, desirable for summer.

48
Lark street.

49 white per

MEMS; best location, refined, pri
HEMlock 2463-J.

NORTH SIDE—Room, breakfast dinner; modern, private home,
IVY 3212-J.

NORTH SIDE—Large, well furn
Board optional. Splendid loca venient to three car lines. HEM PEACHTREE, W. 520—Lovely room; home environments.
more. HEMlock 405

190: Par-
$4; per live week. live at this ad & Bankcatalog Mo.
k chicks,
$2.75.

PRYOR ST., 336—Attractive cellent meals; $7 weekly; w tance. First class.

BUSINESS lady desires congen lady, share housekeeping rooms. able. West 0402-W.

DESIRABLE cool rooms, twin bu excellent meals. Close in.
2202.

LARGE, delightful room, couple gentlemen, also small room, 362 street.

LOVELY rooms, with or without ideal for business people. HEM NEATLY furnished rooms, close in lences, gentlemen or business
 IVY 2559-W.
ONE or two young men to board home. Call HEMlock 6708-J.
SEVEN or eight business men, tu

TRANSIENT boarders, best location or ten days, reasonable. HEMLOCK

Rooms Without Board

BLUE RIDGE AVE., 209—Druid's location, one single and one double every known convenience; gentle business couple preferred. HEMLOCK money-Autryon half 2859.

for

READ the classified ads—and h when promotions are being ha and profits are being presented.

INMAN PARK—On Elizabeth Str
nished room, hot and cold water lights, all conveniences. Phone M
ELEVENTH STREET, WEST, 1 attractive room, with private ba lock 0696.

NORTH SIDE—With owner, go room, gas, or—

Box
PEACHTREE, 624—Large room with one or two men. HEMLOCK 7300.
PEACHTREE, W., 200—Front room or without private bath.
3219-W.
SIXTH STREET, EAST, 33—On street, facing Biltmore garden, two connecting bath. HEMLOCK 1122.
WEST PEACHTREE, 610, Two

Five smoking Tenn.
Furnished, pounds postage.
Brg-room chair.
Euclid

WEST TEACHREE, 819-1700 kitchen, connecting, all conv
HEMlock 1270-J.
LA SALLE HOTEL and Annex. A first class hotel. Best rooms Steam heat, elevator, electric lig and cold water in each room. Al rooms, large, light, cool and
Phone IVY 9186. L. C. Gentie, P
10514 North Pryor Street.
ROOMS—Nicely furnished or unf also apartment, walking distance of phone. Call IV 9836-J.

ROOM—Private or adjoining bath, hot water, garage; gentlemen.
5347.

NICELY furnished room on Street, Inman Park, electric lig and cold water, large closets, all fences. Price $20.00 per month.
Main 1076.

perfect are A straps.
bridles
e rein. perfect
a. d.
o. d.

TURN to the classified section at the doorbell of opportunity.
